Gitlow, 1995-10-10 To find more information on Rowman Littlefield titles please visit us at www.rowmanlittlefield.com Realizing the Distinctive University Mark William Roche, 2017-02-28 In Realizing the Distinctive University Vision and Values Strategy and Culture Mark William Roche changes the terms of the debate about American higher education A former dean of the College of Arts and Letters at the University of Notre Dame Roche argues for the importance of an institutional vision not simply a brand and while he extols the value of entrepreneurship he defines it in contrast to the corporate drive toward commercialization and demands for business management models Using the history of the German university to assess the need for and implementation of distinctive visions at American colleges and universities Roche s own vision benefits from his deep connection to both systems as well as his experience in the trenches working to realize the special mission of an American Catholic university Roche makes a significant contribution by delineating means for moving such an institution from vision to implementation Roche provides a road map to creating a superb arts and sciences college within a major research university and offers a rich analysis of five principles that have shaped the modern American university flexibility competition incentives accountability and community He notes the challenges and problems that surface with these categories and includes ample illustration of both best practices and personal missteps The book makes clear that even a compelling intellectual vision must always be linked to its embodiment in rhetoric support structures and community Throughout this unique and appealing contribution to the literature on higher education Roche avoids polemic and remains optimistic about the ways in which a faculty member serving in administration can make a positive difference Realizing the Distinctive University is a must read for academic administrators faculty members interested in the inner workings of the university and graduate students and scholars of higher education The Absence of Soulware in Higher Education Way Kuo, 2023-08-15 THE ABSENCE OF SOULWARE IN HIGHER EDUCATION The book offers an analytical account of higher education in Taiwan Hong Kong and Mainland China with examples of best practices from higher education in the US for guidance This book is Professor Way Kuo s attempt to address issues that remain to be challenges for universities in the globalized 21 Century namely academic autonomy and freedom seamless integration between research and teaching curricula update innovative and problem driven research and adopting best global practices based on his reflections about higher education from a global perspective through his personal experience as a senior academic leader in the US and Hong Kong Borrowing from the languages of computer science this book not only talks about the hardware and software in higher education which refer to the infrastructure and the physical entities that provide an environment conducive to good teaching and research it also highlights the importance of a third category for achieving great success the presence of a certain mindset a willingness to embrace due process and follow international standards and procedures or a vision in making the best use of the hardware and software to spearhead innovation in combining teaching and research for the benefit of students and the well being of society Such a mindset is called the soulware of higher education Specifically this book Covers four key areas where a lack of proper soulware or mindset is deterring the advancement of higher education internationalization seamless integration of teaching and research quality and evaluation and creativity and innovation The author s arguments are factual and comments are critical on what is perceived to be less desirable or a failure in higher education The book offers useful insights into the future and a global perspective on trends challenges and opportunities in higher education Audience Educators policymakers higher education providers and administrators global stakeholders of higher education including students and parents and the general public in both the East and the West who have an interest in global higher education
