

UNDERSTANDING REFRAMING AND SPINNING

Reframing Difference

Anne M. Nicotera

Reframing Difference:

Reframing Difference Carrie Tarr, 2005-09-17 This is the first major study of two overlapping strands of contemporary French cinema: cinema beur films by young directors of Maghrebi immigrant origin and cinema de banlieue films set in France's disadvantaged outer city estates. Carrie Tarr's insightful account draws on a wide range of films from directors such as Mehdi Charef, Mathieu Kassowitz, and Djamel Bensalah. Foregrounding such issues as the quest for identity, the negotiation of space, and the recourse to memory and history, she argues that these films challenge and reframe the symbolic spaces of French culture, addressing issues of ethnicity and difference which are central to today's debates about what it means to be French.

Bridging Differences: Understanding Cultural Interaction in Our Globalized World Newtona (Tina) Johnson, Shawn Simpson, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Interdisciplinary Press in 2016. Cultural interaction in our worlds today is essential to building 21st century bridges between communities. The experiences and lessons learned from the authors of the articles herein are shared with empathy and humility across many disciplines. The creation and re-creation of individual identities and group identities due to migrations throughout history is an ongoing story. Never does one cultural profile remain constant. On the contrary, as boundaries change, so do people and therefore cultures. Interculturalism is the one valid approach to understanding these changes but should be used with great sensitivity. And sensitivity is the overriding emotion emanating from the different studies in this volume: the search for one's identity when the latter has been lost or has become difficult to recognize; the attempts to erase identities so as to conform to national unity; the will to create new identities to fit in with new environments; the need to re-evaluate oneself so as to remain true to oneself. These endeavors are subtly described in this vibrant compendium of intercultural monographies.

The SAGE Handbook of Organizational Communication Linda L. Putnam, Dennis K. Mumby, 2013-11-04 Organizational communication as a field of study has grown tremendously over the past thirty years. This growth is characterized by the development and application of communication perspectives to research on complex organizations in rapidly changing environments. Completely re-conceptualized, The SAGE Handbook of Organizational Communication, Third Edition, is a landmark volume that weaves together the various threads of this interdisciplinary area of scholarship. This edition captures both the changing nature of the field with its explosion of theoretical perspectives and research agendas and the transformations that have occurred in organizational life with the emergence of new forms of work, globalization processes, and changing organizational forms. Exploring organizations as complex and dynamic, the Handbook brings a communication lens to bear on multiple organizing processes.

Re-hybridizing Transnational Domesticity and Femininity Stacey Weber-Fève, 2010-01-05 Re hybridizing Transnational Domesticity and Femininity examines the problems of voicing the personal when considering the role and place of women in the home Analyzing a collection of first person cinematic and literary narratives by Assia Djebar Annie Ernaux Simone de Beauvoir Raja Amari Coline Serreau Leila Sebbar and Yamina Benguigui Weber Fève explores the transnational processes of identity formation gender performance and construction of culture and society Through a closer look at contemporary representations of French Algerian and Tunisian women on the page and on the screen this study discusses the ways in which homemaking nation and gender are intricately bound to one another and situated in personal history Working within as well as beyond so called national systems of visual and written representation these women artists challenge inherited and monolithic performances definitions and discourses of femininity In doing so they create re hybridized subjects that begin to recognize and embrace the differences within themselves The authors and filmmakers in this study through their female protagonists the protagonists homes and homemaking acts and the investigative lens of the interrogation of the personal are interested in exploring how the process of uncovering or articulating new and other identities and subjectivities ushers in new and re hybridized ways of seeing knowing and being female ReFocus: The Films of Rachid Bouchareb Michael Gott, 2020-09-21 ReFocus The Films of Rachid Bouchareb is the first book length study of the internationally recognized director's films Bouchareb was one of France's first filmmakers of North African descent and his career as a director and producer now spans over 35 years Remarkably varied in their themes formal elements and narrative settings Bouchareb's work has engaged with and reflected on a variety of crucial social political and historical issues from the role of colonial troops in the French army during the Second World War to terrorism in contemporary Europe This volume examines Bouchareb's films from an interdisciplinary perspective exploring key influences on his output and considering new theoretical approaches to his filmmaking Transforming Conflict through Communication in Personal, Family, and Working Relationships Peter M. Kellett, Thomas G. Matyók, 2016-11-15 A transformational approach to conflict argues that conflicts must be viewed as embedded within broader relational patterns and social and discursive structures Central to this book is the idea that the origins of transformation can be momentary situational and small scale or large scale and systemic The momentary involves shifts and meaningful changes in communication and related patterns that are created in communication between people Momentary transformative changes can radiate out into more systemic levels and systemic transformative changes can radiate inward to more personal levels This book engages this transformative framework by bringing together current scholarship that epitomizes and highlights the contribution of communication scholarship and communication centered approaches to conflict transformation in personal family and working relationships and organizational contexts The resulting volume presents an engaging mix of scholarly chapters think pieces and personal experiences from the field of practice and everyday life The book embraces a wide variety of theoretical and methodological approaches including narrative critical intersectional rhetorical and quantitative It makes a valuable additive contribution to the ongoing dialogue across and between disciplines on how to transform conflicts creatively sustainably and ethically

Origins and Traditions of Organizational Communication Anne M. Nicotera, 2019-06-14 Origins and Traditions of Organizational Communication provides a sophisticated overview of the fundamentals of organizational communication as a field of study examining the field's foundations and providing an assessment of the field to date explaining and demonstrating a communicational approach to the study of organization It provides a set of literature reviews on focused topics written by experts in each area and links organizational communication theory and research to practice In reviewing foundational management theory the book analyzes how early to mid 20th century management theories shaped contemporary organizations providing students both with background knowledge of these foundational theories and an understanding of their influence on our thinking and our organizational world Written at an accessible level for early graduate students yet still sophisticated enough for doctoral students the book is ideal for students and teachers of organizational communication and communication history Downloadable ancillary materials include chapter PowerPoints and a set of instructors materials containing chapter abstracts glossaries discussion questions annotated supplementary readings lists and practitioners' corners Please visit www.routledge.com/9781138570313
