Commercial Nationalism and Tourism Leanne White, 2017-01-19 This book combines academic analysis and critical exploration to examine national narratives in the context of tourism and events around the world It explores how particular narratives are woven to tell and sell a national story By deconstructing images of the nation it closely examines how national texts create key archival imagery that can promote tourism and events while also shaping national identity It investigates the complex relationship between state appropriation of marketing strategies and the commercial use of nationalist discourses The book aims to demystify the ways in which the nation is imagined by key organisers and organisations and then communicated to millions
