Stephen Gilmore, Lisa Glennon

Refuge From Abuse:

Refuge from Abuse Nancy Nason-Clark, Catherine Clark Kroeger, 2009-09-20 Abuse is ugly It is always wrong It is never part of God's design for healthy family living It distorts relationships and shatters dreams It creates pain and despair It never produces hope You know this all too well that's why you've picked up this book Nancy Nason Clark and Catherine Clark Kroeger know the pain of women who have been abused especially the unique pain of Christian women who thought it couldn't happen to them In this straightforward practical book they supply the answer to the questions you face How do I know I need help How much of my story should I tell Where do I find spiritual support as a victim of abuse What help can I find in the community How do I get started on the healing journey What key steps will I need to take to get on with my life How can I understand what help my abuser needs How do I learn to trust God again Their advice is solid backed up by Nason Clark's professional expertise as a sociologist and Kroeger's as a biblical scholar Together they supply both here and now step by step advice you need to start the healing journey and biblical insights to nourish your soul and sustain you on the path to wholeness

Housing and Domestic Abuse Yoric Irving-Clarke, Kelly Henderson, 2020-11-05 Housing and Domestic Abuse provides an analysis of how housing policy has been historically utilised in responding to domestic abuse The authors trace the history of policy from the feminist roots of the refuge movement to the use of anti social behaviour legislation to address abuse and the current proposals being considered The UK government and devolved governments in Scotland and Wales are currently making significant changes to the ways they address domestic abuse including involving housing policy in their responses This book provides details of the differential approaches of the Scottish and Welsh governments and proposes a whole housing approach to addressing abuse Readers will gain a detailed knowledge of historic and current policy and practice in this area They will also benefit from insights from two of the leading scholars in their respective fields of housing and domestic abuse policy and practice This book will be of interest to academics policy makers and practitioners across the fields of housing and domestic abuse policy and practice as well as students studying social policy more broadly

Draft Sentencing Guidelines Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Home Affairs Committee, 2006-06-28 Domestic violence is a social problem of enormous proportion In 2000 there were an estimated 12.9 million incidents and 1.2 million women were affected by stalking It accounts for a quarter of all violent crime Victims and children suffer with physical and psychological abuse The costs to society are high recently estimated as amounting to 3.1 billion for services for survivors including absence from employment medical psychiatric and addiction treatment housing and other social and legal assistance The loss to the economy has been estimated at 2.7 billion per year Two draft guidelines on domestic violence were published by the Sentencing Guidelines Council on 11 April 2006 Overarching Principles Domestic Violence deals with the general principles There is no specific offence of domestic violence and conduct amounting to domestic violence can be covered by a wide range of offences not only assaults but criminal damage harassment threats to injure or kill false imprisonment and sexual offences The guidelines define domestic violence and discuss assessing seriousness aggravating and mitigating factors and the wishes and interests of victims and children Breach of a Protective Order the second draft guideline addresses breaches of restraining or non molestation orders imposed in order to prevent harassment or fear of violence or the molestation of others The Committee endorses the general approach in these guidelines particularly the explicit recognition that courts should treat domestic violence no less seriously than other cases of violent crime The Committee makes a number of recommendations for amendments to the guidelines The National Wildlife Refuge System Act of 1990 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Merchant Marine and Fisheries. Subcommittee on Fisheries and Wildlife Conservation and the Environment,1990 Overcoming Emotional Abuse Susan Elliot-Wright,2016-02-18 Many women assume that abuse is always physical But this is not always the case Psychological verbal and emotional abuse may not cause broken bones or black eyes but when one person persistently inflicts severe mental pain on another by the use of fear intimidation humiliation and manipulation the damage can be just as serious The resulting deep emotional scars may take years to recover from Susan Elliot Wright explores the nature of this often subtle manipulative behaviour and what can be done to break the cycle As well as offering emotional support the author looks at the practicalities that may be involved such as consulting a solicitor or gaining access to benefits Subjects covered include types of emotional abuse who may be a victim and why how to protect yourself and any children sources of help such as women s refuges can an abusive relationship survive helping the abuser forming a new life

Child Abuse, Child Exploitation, and Criminal Justice Responses
Daniel G. Murphy, April G. Rasmussen, 2020-01-08 There are few things in our society that provoke such raw emotions as that of child abuse Most people justifiably so are outraged when they hear of allegations of abuse and their anger is intensified as they learn of what seems to be an inappropriate criminal justice response However the debate on child abuse usually happens through visceral emotions rather than facts Taking emotions out of a child abuse debate is much easier said than done but it is of utmost importance to identify the facts When the reader has a better understanding of the scope of child abuse they can become more objective but still maintain their passion about ways to protect this vulnerable and targeted population Child Abuse Child Exploitation and Criminal Justice Responses is unique in that it offers the reader contributing facts based not only through scholarly research but practical experience working in field from this wonderful collaboration of criminal investigator and forensic nurse Thus providing much personal insight and demonstrating how these two areas of expertise can join forces to achieve the objective of working as a team to facilitate safeguarding children The authors also presents the research on this complex yet worthy topic by identifying the unique challenges of investigating these offenses while ultimately bringing the perpetrators to justice and presenting the research from various perspectives of child abuse including both national and international issues and responses

Technology and Domestic and Family Violence
Bridget Harris, Delanie Woodlock, 2023-01-30 This book brings together academics and advocates to explore an emerging issue the use of technology by perpetrators of domestic and family violence Of interest too is critique of government and non government activities in this arena and how technology can be harnessed to respond to harm Domestic and family violence DFV is widely recognised as an important social issue impacting the safety and wellbeing of victim survivors and their children and on a broader scale threatening risk and security on global levels This book provides insights drawn from research and practice in the Global South and Global North to provide an evidence base and real world solutions and initiatives to understand address and ultimately prevent technology facilitated domestic and family violence and how technology can be used to effect positive change and empower victim survivors and communities Technology and Domestic and Family Violence will be of great interest to students and scholars on victimology criminology social work law women s studies sociology and media studies It will also be a valuable reference for practitioners government and non government advocates working on issues around domestic violence Hayes & Williams' Family Law Stephen Gilmore, Lisa Glennon, 2020 Provides a comprehensive critical and case focused introduction to family law Hayes Williams Family Law helps students to gain a firm understanding of family law principles the developing law and key reform debates Are You Okay? Pete Wallis, 2010 Are You Okay deals with these issues that many adults may face when trying to help a young person in their care in the aftermath of a crime It provides detailed information on the different types of crime from assault and hate crime to cyberbullying and sexual abuse and explores how they may affect the young person in different ways
