research interests include refugees and public policy Community Groups in Context Angus McCabe, Jenny Phillimore, 2017-03-15 In the past decade community groups have been portrayed as the solution to many social problems Yet the role of below the regulatory radar community action has received little research attention and thus is poorly understood in terms of both policy and practice Focusing on self organised community activity this book offers the first collection of papers developing theoretical and empirically grounded knowledge of the informal unregistered yet largest part of the voluntary sector The collection includes work from leading academics activists policy makers and practitioners offering a new and coherent understanding of community action below the radar The book is part of the Third Sector Research Series which is informed by research undertaken at the Third Sector Research Centre funded by the Economic and Social Research Council and Barrow Cadbury Trust Spreading the 'burden'? Robinson, Vaughan, Andersson, Roger, 2003-07-30 European governments are now engaging in one of the largest exercises in social engineering that the continent has seen since the Second World War Hundreds of thousands of asylum seekers and refugees in Europe are now being denied their basic right to choose where they live and are instead being compulsorily dispersed Spreading the burden is the first book length study of dispersal policies explicitly comparative in nature and written by three national experts highly topical and controversial as the review of dispersal policies is under way in many countries a valuable case study of how society deals with outsider groups and space The book is essential reading for national and local policy makers those interested in human rights social policy and refugee studies as well as human geographers and sociologists The Dispersal and Social Exclusion of Asylum Seekers Patricia Hynes, 2011 Establishing asylum seekers in the UK as a socially excluded group this book provides readers with an understanding of how they experience the dispersal system and gives an insight into how this impacts on their lives Building on Diversity, 2006 Refugee Children In The Uk Rutter, Jill, 2006-06-01 Includes statistical tables and graphs Migrant Activism and Integration from Below in Ireland Ronit Lentin, Elena Moreo, 2012-02-17 This book analyzes the interaction between migrant activists and leaders and the state of the Republic of Ireland a late player in Europe s immigration regime against the background of an increasingly restrictive immigration regime Towards Understanding Community C. Clay, M. Madden, L. Potts, 2007-11-09 Written in the temporal and political context of the British New Labour Government s ongoing reliance on the word community academics and activists critically engage here with the range of ways in which contemporary ideas of community are being used and contested The key focus is on understanding community from action into theory and vice versa Refugees, Capitalism and the British State Tom Vickers, 2016-04-08 Today in a period of economic crisis public sector cuts and escalating class struggle Marxism offers important tools for social workers and service users to understand the structures of oppression they face and devise effective means of resistance This book uses Marxism s lost insights and reinterprets them in the current context by focussing on one particular section of the international working class refugees and asylum seekers in Britain Vickers analysis demonstrates the general utility of a Marxist approach enabling an exploration of the interplay between state policies how these are experienced by their subjects and how conflicts are mediated The substantive focus of the book is twofold to analyse the material basis of the oppression of refugees in Britain by the British state and to examine the means by which the British state has managed this oppression through the cultivation of a refugee relations industry within a broader narrative of social capital building These questions demand answers if social workers and other practitioners are to successfully work with refugees and asylum seekers and this book provides these through a detailed Marxist analysis
