Included are nearly 400 alphabetically arranged articles by more than 175 scholars from around the world. New articles in this volume feature authors such as Michael Cunningham, Tony Kushner, Anne Lister, Kate Millet, Jan Morris, Terrence McNally, and Sarah Waters; essays on topics such as Comedy of Manners and Autobiography; and overviews of Danish, Norwegian, Philippine, and Swedish literatures, as well as updated and revised articles and bibliographies.

Women, Mysticism, and Hysteria in Fin-de-Siècle Spain Jennifer Smith, 2021-06-15. Women, Mysticism, and Hysteria in Fin de Siècle Spain argues that the reinterpretation of female mysticism as hysteria and nymphomania in late nineteenth and early twentieth century Spain was part of a larger project to suppress the growing female emancipation movement by sexualizing the female subject. This archival historical work highlights the phenomenon in medical, social, and literary texts of the time, illustrating that despite many liberals' hostility toward the Church, secular doctors and intellectuals employed strikingly similar paradigms to those through which the early modern Spanish Church castigated female mysticism as demonic possession. Author Jennifer Smith also directs modern historians to the writings of Emilia Pardo Baz (1851-1921) as a thinker whose work points out mysticism's subversive potential in terms of the patriarchal order. Pardo Baz, unlike her male counterparts, rejected the hysteria diagnosis and promoted mysticism as a path for women's personal development and self-realization.

360[degree Symbol] Diary Luis Goytisolo, 2008. The Currents in Comparative Romantic Languages and Literatures series was founded in 1987 and actively solicits book-length manuscripts which treat aspects of romance languages and literatures. Originally established for works dealing with two or more romance literatures, the series has broadened its horizons and now includes studies on themes within a single literature or between different literatures, civilizations, art, music, film, and social movements, as well as comparative linguistics.

Africa and the Americas José C. Curto, Renée Soulodre-LaFrance, 2005. A collection of essays reflecting an important structural feature of the slave trade: its circularity. Starting with the removal from Africa, the collection then carries into discussions of ethnic identity, religion, and creolisation. Comparative essays develop the theme of root experience in Africa against the facts of life for disenfranchised slaves, painting a picture of a cohesive worldview shaped by the slave voyage and African beliefs. The collection returns to Africa with analyses of the impact on Africa of formerly slaveholding nations.

Dark Assemblages Kay Pritchett, 2015-10-22. This book examines strategies of transformation, becoming, image making, and the phantasmagoric that figure in four stories and a novel by Gothic fiction writer Pilar Pedraza (Spain, 1951). While critics have long associated the Bildungsroman with Gothic fiction, this study takes a close look at the developmental process itself, the means by which a protagonist young or old might transcend a deprived status to achieve a complete sense of self. Pedraza's works imply that regardless of the path followed a character's ability to think differently is crucial to progress. The fixed image representative of an inflexible socially determined mindset arises as an obstacle to maturation. In De los perros for example a triangular arrangement of coins in a cigar box elucidates the connection between individual lives and the social order or assemblage. Literary texts such as this one serve as collective assemblages of enunciation capable of exposing fixed images as powerful instruments of control. Tristes Ayes del guila Mejicana discovers fixed images among the icons of Colonial Spain's exequias reales used in this case to territorialize the evolving identity of indigenous peoples. The territory that Pedraza's fiction best illuminates is in reality the image. When images remain fixed or territorialized they uncannily infect the assemblages over which they exert influence. Placing emphasis on images that impact women, Pedraza in Anfiteatro for example deconstructs cat woman which albeit a potentially subversive image in its early manifestations eventually ceases to empower the feminine, lashing it rather to a burdensome stereotype. Territorialized the feminine must then break free from the image in order to discover representations more capable of illuminating present day challenges. The phrase dark assemblages drawn from Deleuze and Guattari's A Thousand Plateaus gestures toward societal stagnation as a decisive factor in individual evolvment. Gothic fiction represents an uneven landscape in that it tenders the possibility of a social critique yet equally well lends itself to the exclusion of specific identities and practices that society brands as anomalous. Pedraza's Gothic fiction is indeed subversive in that it offers readers original perceptions of modern day people and the assemblages dark or otherwise to which they belong.

A Comprehensive Etymological Dictionary of the Spanish Language with Families of Words based on Indo-European Roots Edward A. Roberts, 2014. This work traces the etymologies of the entries to their earliest sources, shows their kinship to both Spanish and English and organizes them into families of words in an Appendix of Indo-European roots. Entries are based on those of the Diccionario de la lengua española de la Real Academia Española.

Questioning Theoretical Primitives in Linguistic Inquiry Naomi L. Shin, Daniel Erker, 2018-11-15. Across the world professional linguistic inquiry is in full bloom largely as result of pioneering thinkers who helped rapidly modernize the study of human language in the last century. As the field continues to move forward further solidifying its position as a conduit of insight into the human condition it is essential to take stock of the theoretical primitives that have given linguistics its intellectual foundation. This volume does precisely that: inspecting the load bearing components of the edifice upon which contemporary linguistics has been constructed. The volume's authors whose expertise spans the Generativist, Functionalist and Variationist research traditions remind us of the need to revisit the conceptual bedrock of the field, clarifying and assessing our primary theoretical moves including those relating to such elemental components as the linguistic sign, a language structural relations, grammatical category, acquisition, bilingual competence and sociolinguistic variable.
