"Death, Torture and the Broken Body in European Art, 1300-1650" JohnR. Decker,2017-07-05 Bodies mangled limbs broken skin flayed blood spilled from paintings to prints to small sculptures the art of the late Middle Ages and early modern period gave rise to disturbing scenes of violence Many of these torture scenes recall Christ's Passion and its aftermath but the martyrdoms of saints stories of justice visited on the wicked and broadsheet reports of the atrocities of war provided fertile ground for scenes of the body's desecration Contributors to this volume interpret pain suffering and the desecration of the human form not simply as the passing fancies of a cadre of proto sadists but also as serving larger social functions within European society Taking advantage of the frameworks established by scholars such as Samuel Edgerton Mitchell Merback and Elaine Scarry to name but a few Death Torture and the Broken Body in European Art 1300-1650 provides an intriguing set of lenses through which to view such imagery and locate it within its wider social political and devotional contexts Though the art works discussed are centuries old the topics of the essays resonate today as twenty first century Western society is still absorbed in thorny debates about the ethics and consequences of the use of force coercion including torture and execution and about whether it is ever fully acceptable to write social norms on the bodies of those who will not conform volume guide to Rome Now available in ePub format Martyrdom and Persecution in the Early Church W. H. C. Frend, 2014-04-15 Although the story of the triumphant rise of Christianity has often been told it was a triumph achieved through blood and tribulation The literal meaning of the term martyr meant witness but among early Christians it quickly acquired a harsher meaning one who died for the faith and that witness through death was responsible for many conversions including those of Justin Martyr who himself offered just such witness and perhaps even Tertullian Persecution was seen by early Christians as by later historians as one of the crucial influences on the development of the early church and Christian belief Why did the Roman Empire persecute Christians Why did thousands of Christians not merely accept but welcome martyrdom In his classic work Martyrdom and Persecution in the Early Church the late W H C Frend explores the mindset of Christians who suffered persecution as well as the motivations of those who persecuted them He shows the critical importance of Jewish ideas to early Christians heavily influenced as they were by the story of Daniel and the revolt of the Maccabean He argues that the Christian concept of martyrdom held in such high regard among early Christians can only be understood as springing from Jewish roots Frend explores a number of major persecutions to show both common themes and variations and examines also the relationship between the heavenly kingdom of Christ and the rule of the earthly emperor In doing so he shows how persecution formed an essential part in a providential philosophy of history that has profoundly influenced European political thought Mornings Among the Jesuits at Rome Hobart Seymour, 1852 The History of Church J. H. Kurtz, 2020-12-17 The History of Church in three volumes is an account of the Christian Church written by prominent Lutheran theologian Johann Heinrich Kurtz The work comprises ecclesiastical history from its beginnings to the end of 19th century First part of the book covers the period from pre Christian era and the founding of the Church by Christ and his Apostles to the 10th century Second part spans from Christian missionary enterprises and the Crusades to Reformation and the Counter Reformation The final part covers the years from 17th to 19th century and what Christian church went through in that period Commemorating the Dead Laurie Brink, Deborah Green, 2008-12-10 The distinctions and similarities among Roman Jewish and Christian burials can provide evidence of social networks family life and perhaps religious sensibilities Is the Roman development from columbaria to catacombs the result of evolving religious identities or simply a matter of a change in burial fashions Do the material remains from Jewish burials evidence an adherence to ancient customs or the adaptation of rituals from surrounding cultures What Greco Roman funerary images were taken over and baptized as Christian ones The answers to these and other questions require that the material culture be viewed whenever possible in situ through multiple disciplinary lenses and in light of ancient texts Roman historians John Bodel Richard Saller Andrew Wallace Hadrill archaeologists Susan Stevens Amy Hirschfeld scholars of rabbinic period Judaism Deborah Green Christian history Robin M Jensen and the New Testament David Balch Laurie Brink O P Margaret M Mitchell Carolyn Osiek R S C J engaged in a research trip to Rome and Tunisia to investigate imperial period burials first hand Commemorating the
