Roman Portraits in Context Maxwell L. Anderson, 1998      Roman Portraits in Context Jane Fejfer, 2009-03-13 The highest honour a Roman citizen could hope for was a portrait statue in the forum of his city While the emperor and high senatorial officials were routinely awarded statues strong competition existed among local benefactors to obtain this honour which proclaimed and perpetuated the memory of the patron and his family for generations There were many ways to earn a portrait statue but such local figures often had to wait until they had passed away before the public finally fulfilled their expectations It is argued in this book that our understanding and contemplation of a Roman portrait statue is greatly enriched when we consider its wider historical context its original setting the circumstances of its production and style and its base which in many cases bore a text that contributed to the rhetorical power of the image      From Face to Face Marina Prusac, 2016-08-29 This book is based on an investigation of more than 2000 portraits of which around 500 have proven to be recarved It provides thorough analyses of the different recarving methods some of which can be attributed to geographically localized workshops establishing classifiable categories and an analytical text with special regard to the cultural historical changes in Late Antiquity The investigation underpins a hypothesis on the late antique portraits style as a consequence of the many recarved portraits at the time which relied on a syncretism of politics religion and ideology The conclusion gives a new understanding of how broad scoped culturally and politically encoded and comprehensive the practice of recarving was      Portraits of Livia Elizabeth Bartman, 1999 A study of the influence of the Roman empress Livia s artistic patronage      Roman Portraits in the J.
