cities is to be found in their streets and neighborhoods This is especially true of Rome What distinguishes this guidebook to Rome from so many others is that it explores neighborhoods instead of merely describing monuments By taking the reader on walks through the streets around the Campo dei Fiori the Piazza Navona the Jewish Ghetto and Trastevere and by paying close attention to architecture local history and people art religion archeology and of course cuisine Romewalks by Anya M Shetterly offers a remarkably intimate and comprehensive look at the city and its history Also included in this guidebook are maps of each of the four walks photographs a concise section of information and advice a list of specially selected restaurants and shops and an index

The Long Morning of Medieval

Europe Jennifer R. Davis,2016-12-05 Recent advances in research show that the distinctive features of high medieval civilization began developing centuries earlier than previously thought The era once dismissed as a Dark Age now turns out and convincing presentation of Christian hope against a background of political economic and social disintegration religious fanaticism or aberration in the end time climate which prevails in the world today This is the essential guide to the end of the Millennium presenting and analysing the latest events that we have all faced and their influence on the world that is due to start next year From the ancient and more recent history of Jerusalem and the problems of the Middle East through the prospect of a world wide economic collapse to the view that happiness and sexual gratification have become an inalienable right and the spoliation of the environment the author examines the current and forthcoming problems that the world faces Finding the links between them he draws a picture that could move the reader to despair But the almost unalloyed bleakness of the World s way to global catastrophe is not the main burden of the book For the Christian who is faithful to God there is hope even more the sure promise of deliverance from the last great tribulation Philip Blair interprets the words addressed by Jesus to the Church at Philadelphia Because you have kept my word of patient endurance I will keep you from the hour of trial which is coming on the whole world to try those who dwell upon the earth Revelation 3 10 as meaning that a promise has been given to all true believers that they will not be required to pass through this period of unparalleled world distress this outpouring of God s wrath Philip Blair s interpretation seems credible and replete of the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted of God It is impossible therefore to overestimate the importance of this book The author has shed light on one of the less obvious truths of scripture and his book deserves the widest possible readership providing hints guidance and comfort for the years to come
