most original contribution to an unravelling of a pagan Arthurian past lies in his appropriation of the fascinating evidence of standing stones and pagan cultic sites The magical attributes of stones are exemplified in prehistoric standing stones the real counterparts of the perrons of the French romances This is dark and difficult territory but certain events in the Arthurian cycle which take place on and around Salisbury Plain have correspondences with known prehistoric events Building on these elusive clues and tracing a range of sites around the river Severn and south Wales John Darrah has added a significant new dimension to the search for the sources of England's great epic the legends of Arthur and his court Jacket Empires of Antiquities Billie Melman, 2020 Empires of Antiquities is a history of the rediscovery of the imperial civilizations of the ancient Near East in a modern imperial order that evolved between the outbreak of the First World War and the decolonization of the British Empire in the 1950s It explores the ways in which near eastern antiquity was redefined and experienced becoming the subject of imperial regulation modes of enquiry and international and national politics Billie Melman follows a series of globally publicized spectacular archaeological discoveries in Iraq Egypt and Palestine which made antiquity material visible and accessible as never before She demonstrates that the new definition and uses of antiquity and their relations to modernity were inseparable from the emergence of the post war international imperial order transnational collaboration and crises the aspirations of national groups and collisions between them and the British mandates This study uniquely combines a history of the internationalization of archaeology and the rise of a new regime of antiquities under the oversight of the League of Nations and its institutions a history of British attitudes to and passion for near eastern antiquity and on the ground colonial policies and mechanisms as well as nationalist claims on the past It points at the centrality of the new mandate system Drawing on an unusually wide range of materials collected in archives in six countries as well as on material and visual evidence this volume weaves together imperial international and national histories and the history of archaeological discovery which it connects to imperial modernity Annual Catalogue of the Mt. Holyoke Seminary and College in South Hadley, Mass Mount Holyoke College, Mount Holyoke Female Seminary, 1917 Lithic Technology in the Middle Potomac River Valley of Maryland and Virginia Wm. Jack Hranicky, 2012-12-06 The archaeological focus on a single geographical area offers an opportunity to present projectile point typology as a microtechnology even though some of the types have widespread distributions The area of the Middle Potomac River Valley presents a physical artefact collection for a view of prehistory This volume which includes several hundred images of the investigation artefacts and archaeological research compiled and recorded from over 30 years of work in the area includes an overview of the Middle Potomac River Valley archaeology including the peoples and sites new data and interpretations for the lithic technology of the area and classification and typology of artefacts including the usage of projectile point axe celt drill and knife implements This work will be of great interest to prehistory archaeologists especially those working in the Middle Atlantic region of the United States Archaeology Harold Edward Leslie Mellersh, Denis Wrigley, Elsie Wrigley, 1966
