Landscape in Middle English Romance

Andrew M. Richmond, 2021-08-05 Our current ecological crises compel us not only to understand how contemporary media shapes our conceptions of human relationships with the environment but also to examine the historical genealogies of such perspectives Written during the onset of the Little Ice Age in Britain Middle English romances provide a fascinating window into the worldviews of popular vernacular literature and its audiences at the close of the Middle Ages Andrew M Richmond shows how literary conventions of romances shaped and were in turn influenced by contemporary perspectives on the natural world These popular texts also reveal widespread concern regarding the damaging effects of human actions and climate change The natural world was a constant presence in the writing thoughts and lives of the audiences and authors of medieval English romance and these close readings reveal that our environmental concerns go back further in our history and culture than we think

Art of the Landscape

Raffaele Milani, 2009-04-01 Aesthetics deals with art a human construction

but what one experiences when placed before nature is also an aesthetic feeling the countryside is a place of reflection like no other In The Art of the Landscape Raffaele Milani interprets natural landscapes as an aesthetic category Drawing from philosophical traditions literature and art he calls the reader's attention to a special consciousness originally established during the pre Romantic age that has become a distinctive feature of contemporary spirituality Focusing on the definition of landscapes in relation to the concepts of nature environment territory and man made settings such as gardens and cities Milani examines the origins of the predilection for natural scenery in the works of landscape painters and in travel literature He addresses the distinctness of the aesthetic experience of landscapes analyses the role of aesthetic categories and explores landscape art as a medium of contemplation What emerges is an original morphology of natural beauty derived from the scrutiny of landscape elements most frequently associated with aesthetic emotion the colour of water and the sky earth and stones fire and volcanic eruptions ruins and the mountains an analysis especially relevant given the increasing fragility of our natural environment

Romantic Capabilities Mike Goode, 2020 Studying works by William Blake Walter Scott and Jane Austen this volume examines the extent to which Romantic literary works can be said to prefigure the ways in which readers will engage with them after the time of their creation Cinéma&Cie. International Film Studies Journal. Aa. Vv., 2016-10-11T00:00:00+02:00 For a long time comparisons of cinema and photography have been predominantly a question of contrast both of their forms and their ways of seeing This special issue of Cinéma&Cie post filmic aesthetics such as the cinematic tableau vivant and innovative examples of contemporary experimental audiovisual production Mediatized Dramaturgy Seda Ilter, 2021-07-15 This study explores the ways in which playtexts have evolved in relation to the sociocultural and cognitive conditions of a mediatized age and how they in form and content respond to this environment and open up new critical possibilities in text and performance The study combines theatre and media theory through the innovative concept of mediatized dramaturgy and offers conceptual reflections on the ways in which a playtext negotiates the new reality of contemporary culture The book scrutinizes the form of playtexts and works through the exchange between text and performance by exploring contemporary works such as Simon Stephens's Pornography Caryl Churchill's Love and Information and David Greig's The Yes No Plays and their selected productions Offering a pioneering intervention that expands discussions about the mediatization of theatre and new playwriting Mediatized Dramaturgy proposes areas for discussion that appeal to researchers audiences and practitioners with an interest in the sub field of media and performance and British and North American drama and theatre Media technologies and their socio cultural repercussions have increasingly influenced theatre particularly since the ubiquitous prevalence of digital technologies from the 1990s onwards Consequently new modes such as digital and intermedial theatre have come to populate and transform the theatre practice and scholarship In this changing theatrical landscape what has happened to plays in the historically text oriented British theatre How has playtext changed in an age of theatre marked by mediatization and its possibilities Poussin and Nature

Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),2008 The work of the great French painter Nicolas Poussin 1594-1665 is most often associated with classically inspired settings and figures depicting solemn scenes from mythology or the Bible Yet he also created some of the most influential landscapes in Western art endowing them with a poetic quality that has been admired by artists as different as Constable Turner and Cezanne As the British critic William Hazlitt noted in 1844 This great and learned man might be said to see nature through the glass of time This beautiful catalogue presents the first in depth examination of Poussin's landscapes Featured here are more than 40 paintings ranging from the artist's early Venetian inspired pastorals to his grandly structured and austere works designed as metaphors or allegories for the processes of nature Also included are approximately 60 drawings and essays by internationally renowned scholars who examine the painter's visual literary and philosophical influences as well as his relationships with his patrons and his place in the art historical canon Publisher description Look At This If You Love Great Photography Gemma Padley,2021-06 Discover the critically acclaimed photographs you simply must see The Age of Watteau, Chardin, and Fragonard Musée des beaux-arts du Canada (Ottawa),Colin B.
