Romantic Predicament:

The Romantic Predicament Geoffrey Thurley, 1983-01-01 Critical Writings Paul De Man, Twenty five essays and reviews not previously collected most of which were written before 1970 and eight of which are appearing in English for the first time Valuable for the insights they afford into his development as a critic the essays are also significant in addressing de Man's consistent views of romanticism modernism and the dilemmas central to literature in recent centuries Romantic Generations Lene Østermark-Johansen, 2003 Unlike the first two volumes of ANGLES on the English Speaking World this special issue does not originate in a set of conference papers The idea of compiling a collection of essays on Romanticism emerged from the unusually strong concentration on Romantic studies among the graduate students of the English Department a couple of years ago This volume places their work in the context of distinguished international scholars of greater seniority scholars who have become academic contacts through conferences and assessment committees and whose contributions I am very pleased to be able to include alongside the works of local contributors The Romantic generations of the title of this volume thus strike a number of different chords generations of scholars in Romantic studies conventional divisions of Romantic poets into first second and possibly third generations the self generative aspect of Romanticism the awareness of poetic reputation and the image and afterlife of the poet The collection spans just over a hundred years from the 1780s to the 1890s and while not in any way attempting to define Romanticism or raise issues of periodization the volume allows for the continued existence of Romantic features right until the end of the nineteenth century Poetry looms large in this issue of ANGLES apart from Ian Duncan's essay on Hume Scott and the Rise of Fiction all the other essays are in some way concerned with the Romantic poet and his poetry The Romantic poet is thus represented as a collector and editor of ballads as a political radical and printmaker as other to himself essentially ignorant of the process of poetic composition as a rival and collaborator with other poets or as a poet long dead the subject of successive generations of poetic lament The boundaries between poetry and the visual arts is explored in a couple of the essays indeed the rivalry between portraiture and literature pervades no less than three of the contributions and no matter whether the subject of inquiry is the image of the poet or the image of the poet's mother the Romantic poet displays a high degree of self consciousness with respect to both literary and visual media Romantic generations generate both selves and others in poetry and portraiture Selected Essays of John Berger John Berger, 2008-12-10 The writing career of Booker Prize winner John Berger poet storyteller playwright and essayist has yielded some of the most original and compelling examinations of art and life of the past half century In this essential volume Geoff Dyer has brought together a rich selection of many of Berger's seminal essays Berger's insights make it impossible to look at a painting watch a film or even visit a zoo in quite the same way again The vast range of subjects he addresses the lean beauty of his prose and the keenness of his anger against injustice move us to view the world with a new lens of awareness Whether he is discussing the singleminded intensity of Picasso's Guernica the parallel violence and alienation in the art of Francis Bacon and Walt Disney or the enigmatic silence of his own mother what binds these pieces throughout is the depth and fury of Berger's passion challenging us to participate to protest and above all to see

Romanticism and the Human Sciences Maureen N. McLane, 2000-09-14 This study published in 2000 examines the dialogue between Romantic poetry and the human sciences of the period Maureen McLane reveals how Romantic writers participated in a new found consciousness of human beings as a species by analysing their work in relation to discourses on moral philosophy political economy and anthropology Writers such as Wordsworth Coleridge Mary Shelley and Percy Shelley explored the possibilities and limits of human being language and hope They engaged with the work of theorists of the human sciences Malthus Godwin and Burke among them The book offers original readings of canonical works including Lyrical Ballads Frankenstein and Prometheus Unbound to show how the Romantics internalised and transformed ideas about the imagination perfectibility immortality and population which so energised contemporary moral and political debates McLane provides a defence of poetry in both Romantic and contemporary theoretical terms reformulating the predicament of Romanticism in general and poetry in particular

Post-Romantic Predicament Paul de Man, 2012-04-04 The first collection of texts by Paul de Man to follow the posthumous Aesthetic Ideology 1996 the title refers to de Man's Harvard thesis of the late 1950s from which the long section on Mallarmé is reproduced Also included are texts by de Man on Ste

The Russian Kurosawa Olga V. Solovieva, 2023-04-03 The Russian Kurosawa offers a new historical perspective on the work of the renowned Japanese film director Akira Kurosawa It uncovers Kurosawa's debt to the intellectual tradition of Japanese Russian democratic dissent reflected in the affinity for Kurosawa's worldview expressed by such Russian directors as Grigory Kozintsev and Andrei Tarkovsky Through a detailed discussion of the Russian subtext of Kurosawa's cinema most clearly manifested in the director's films based on Dostoevsky Tolstoy Gorky and Arseniev the book shows that Kurosawa used Russian intertexts to deal with the most politically sensitive topics of postwar Japan Locating the director in the cultural tradition of Russian inflected Japanese anarchism the book challenges prevalent views of Akira Kurosawa as an apolitical art house director or a conformist studio filmmaker of muddled ideological alliances by offering a philosophically consistent picture of the director's participation in postwar debates on cultural and political reconstruction

The Edge of Knowing Roy Bing Chan, 2016-11-01 Reveals the historical impact of dream rhetoric on Chinese modernity and nation building Realism and the rhetoric of dreams intersected in modern Chinese literature from the May Fourth Era in the early twentieth century through the period just following the end of the Cultural Revolution in 1976 The Edge of Knowing investigates this relationship showing how writers' attention to dreams demonstrates the multiple influences of Western psychology utopian desire for revolutionary change and the enduring legacy of traditional Chinese philosophy At the same time modern Chinese writers used their work to represent social reality for the purpose of nation building Recent political usage of dream rhetoric in the People's Republic of China attests to the continuing influence of dreams on the imagination of Chinese modernity By employing a number of critical perspectives The Edge of Knowing will appeal to readers seeking to understand the complicated relationship between literary form and Chinese history and politics

The Politics of the Picturesque
Stephen Copley, Peter Garside, 1994-03-10 Essays on eighteenth and nineteenth century ways of looking at landscape in theory and practice

Serenity in Crisis Ortwin de Graef, 1993-01-01 A polymath well versed in European literature and philosophy one of the founders of deconstruction and a widely respected teacher Paul de Man brought unprecedented attention and acclaim to the so called Yale Critics His fame was at a zenith when he died suddenly in 1983 A few years later Ortwin de Graef found the de Man had written for the collaborationist press during the Nazi occupation a discovery that ignited an international reassessment of de Man's work Serenity in Crisis is the first sustained account of the complex intertextual tradition in which de Man wrote and of the persistent concerns expressed in his early work It reconstructs the truth models with which de Man justified his political choice before and during the occupation and traces them back to an ambitious intention to integrate the competing truths of the natural sciences the social sciences and literature The significance of de Man's ideational framework and the decisions that followed from it have extended well beyond the disasters of World War II De Graef clearly illuminates and critiques the abstruse paths of logic in de Man's early writings as well as in the reformulations of de Man's thought expressed in his writings of the 1950s

Walter Pater Richmond Crinkley, 2021-11-21 This provocative study suggests that Pater usually thought of as a florid prose stylist and second rate adjunct to the Esthetic Movement is in reality an articulate prophet of the twentieth century Pater's work the book indicates shows a consistent concern with the transmission of humanism from one generation to the next through the medium of art The link in that transmission is the human image in a milieu the appearance of man as manifested in painting sculpture prose poetry or drama Pater's fiction as well as his criticism strives to create a milieu extracting both what is unique and what is constant from that milieu His treatment of humanism has seemed introverted bizarre almost obsessional but he prefigured the concerns of such writers as Joyce and Yeats and his esthetic has become an accepted part of our mid twentieth century intellectual structure

Coleridge the Visionary John Beer, 2007-01-01 First published in 1959 by Chatto Windus this much cited book throws light on the intellectual organization of Coleridge's poetry and the imaginative qualities implicit in his philosophy John Beer's treatment of the visionary Coleridge is at the same
