The Romantic Realist Jean T. Wilde, 1955      The Romantic Realist Caroline de La Motte Fouqué, by Jean T. Wilde Jean T. Wilde,      Encyclopedia of the Romantic Era, 1760-1850 Christopher John Murray, 2013-05-13 In 850 analytical articles this two volume set explores the developments that influenced the profound changes in thought and sensibility during the second half of the eighteenth century and the first half of the nineteenth century The Encyclopedia provides readers with a clear detailed and accurate reference source on the literature thought music and art of the period demonstrating the rich interplay of international influences and cross currents at work and to explore the many issues raised by the very concepts of Romantic and Romanticism      Gender, Collaboration, and Authorship in German Culture John B. Lyon, Laura Deiulio, 2019-08-22 Gender Collaboration and Authorship in German Culture challenges a model of literary production that persists in literary studies the so called Geniekult or the idea of the solitary male author as genius that emerged around 1800 in German lands A closer look at creative practices during this time indicates that collaborative creative endeavors specifically joint ventures between women and men were an important mode of literary production during this era This volume surveys a variety of such collaborations and proves that male and female spheres of creation were not as distinct as has been previously thought It demonstrates that the model of the male genius that dominated literary studies for centuries was not inevitable that viable alternatives to it existed Finally it demands that we rethink definitions of an author and a literary work in ways that account for the complex modes of creation from which they arose      Towards Emancipation Carol Diethe, 1998 Focusing on feminism in Germany Towards Emancipation examines some of the most influential women writers of the nineteenth century from the late Romantic writers such as Bettina von Arnim and Johanna Schopenhauer to writers who were active in the 1848 Revolution such as Malwida von Meysenbug and Johanna Kinkel The heart of the book is devoted to the leading proponents of emancipation Hedwig Dohm Helene Bohlau and the prolific Louise Otto Peters yet it also includes mainstream writers whose attitudes towards the movement range from lukewarm the enormously popular Marie von Ebner Eschenbach and Gabriele Reuter to downright hostile Lou Andreas Salome and Franziska zu Reventlow      Landscapes of Realism Dirk Götsche, Rosa Mucignat, Robert Weninger, 2021-04-15 Few literary phenomena are as elusive and yet as persistent as realism While it responds to the perennial impulse to use literature to reflect on experience it also designates a specific set of literary and artistic practices that emerged in response to Western modernity Landscapes of Realism is a two volume collaborative interdisciplinary exploration of this vast territory bringing together leading edge new criticism on the realist paradigms that were first articulated in nineteenth century Europe but have since gone on globally to transform the literary landscape Tracing the manifold ways in which these paradigms are developed discussed and contested across time space cultures and media this first volume tackles in its five core essays and twenty five case studies such questions as why realism emerged when it did why and how it developed such a transformative dynamic across languages to what extent realist poetics remain central to art and popular culture after 1900 and how generally to reassess realism from a twenty first century comparative perspective Goethe Yearbook 24 Adrian Daub, Associate Professor of German Studies Adrian Daub, Elisabeth Krimmer, 2017-06-15 Cutting edge scholarly articles on diverse aspects of Goethe and his age featuring in this volume a special section on the poetics of space in the Goethezeit The Goethe Yearbook is a publication of the Goethe Society of North America encouraging North American Goethe scholarship by publishing original English language contributions to the understanding of Goethe and other authors of the Goethezeit while also welcoming contributions from scholars around the world Volume 24 features a special section titled The Poetics of Space in the Goethezeit co edited by John Lyon and Elliott Schreiber with contributions on blind spots in Goethe's Elective Affinities on the topography and topoi of Goethe's autobiographical childhood on disorientation and the subterranean in Novalis on selfhood sovereignty and public space in Die italienische Reise and Dichtung und Wahrheit on Goethe's theater of anamnesis in Wilhelm Meisters Lehrjahre and on spatial mobilization in Kleist's Berliner Abendblätter There are also articles on the horror of coming home in Caroline de la Motte Fouqué's Der Abtrünnige and on Friedrich Heinrich Jacobi's Eduard Allwills Papiere Contributors Colin Benert Stephanie Galasso Tove Holmes Edgar Landgraf Sara Luly John B Lyon Anthony Mahler Monika Nenon Joseph O Neil Elliott Schreiber Inge Stephan Gabriel Trop Christian P Weber Adrian Daub is Associate Professor of German at Stanford Elisabeth Krimmer is Professor of German at the University of California Davis Book review editor Birgit Tautz is Associate Professor of German at Bowdoin College
