Reframing the "Desert Frontier" Rebecca Repper, M.C. Bishop, Dr Robert Bewley, 2025-03-01 The eastern frontier of the Roman Empire its network of roads trade routes towns and forts is often conceived of as an edge of both empire and civilisation but this borderland is also part of a rich cultural landscape Our awareness and appreciation of these cultures has increased dramatically over the course of the last century Scholarship has deepened methods have advanced and perspectives have shifted Across 20 chapters Reframing the Desert Frontier offers new insights into the rich cultural history of this region through the re examination of existing material such as archives historical accounts and previous surveys and through the use of novel archaeological approaches The bringing together of different methodological approaches to the archaeology of the region in a single volume highlights synergies and offers important comparisons for archaeologists to consider This volume highlights the work of Emeritus Professor David Kennedy whose contribution to the study of the Roman army the archaeology of Jordan and aerial archaeology has inspired and enhanced multiple projects that have reframed this so called desert frontier Reframing the Desert Frontier encapsulates the enriched view of this ancient region generated by new techniques of survey and analysis changed perspectives on older materials a more intense engagement with the rural landscapes surrounding ancient towns and the addition of new discoveries that alter previous consensus Barrington

Atlas of the Greek and Roman World Richard J.A. Talbert, 2000-10-08 In 102 full color maps spread over 175 pages the Barrington Atlas re creates the entire world of the Greeks and Romans from the British Isles to the Indian subcontinent and deep into North Africa It spans the territory of more than 75 modern countries Its large format 13 1 4 x 18 in or 33 7 x 46 4 cm has been custom designed by the leading cartographic supplier MapQuest com Inc and is unrivaled for range clarity and detail Over 70 experts aided by an equal number of consultants have worked from satellite generated aeronautical charts to return the modern landscape to its ancient appearance and to mark ancient names and features in accordance with the most up to date historical scholarship and archaeological discoveries Chronologically the Barrington Atlas spans archaic Greece to the Late Roman Empire and no more than two standard scales 1 500 000 and 1 1 000 000 are used to represent most regions Since the 1870s all attempts to map the classical world comprehensively have failed The Barrington Atlas has finally achieved that elusive and challenging goal It began in 1988 at the University of North Carolina Chapel Hill under the direction of the distinguished ancient historian Richard Talbert and has been developed with approximately 4.5 million in funding support. The resulting Barrington Atlas is a reference work of permanent value. It has an exceptionally broad appeal to everyone worldwide with an interest in the ancient Greeks and Romans, the lands they penetrated and the peoples and cultures they encountered in Europe, North Africa and Western Asia. Scholars and libraries should find it essential. It is also for students, travelers, lovers of fine cartography and anyone eager to retrace Alexander's eastward marches, cross the Alps with Hannibal, traverse the Eastern Mediterranean with St Paul or ponder the roads, aqueducts and defense works of the Roman Empire. For the new millennium, the Barrington Atlas brings the ancient past back to life in an unforgettably vivid and inspiring way.

Map by Map Directory: A Map by Map Directory to the Barrington Atlas is available online: http://assets.press.princeton.edu/B_ATLAS/B_ATLAS.PDF and in a separate two-volume print edition of close to 1,500 pages. The Directory is designed to provide information about every place or feature in the Barrington Atlas. The section for each map comprises a concise text drawing attention to special difficulties in mapping a region, such as extensive landscape change since antiquity or uneven modern exploration; a listing of every name and feature on the map with basic data about the period of occupation; the modern equivalents of ancient placenames; the modern country within which they are located; and brief references to relevant ancient testimony or modern studies; a bibliography of works cited. The Map by Map Directory is an essential accompaniment to the Barrington Atlas. As a uniquely rich, comprehensive, up-to-date distillation of evidence and scholarship, it has no match elsewhere and opens the way to an immense variety of further research initiatives.

Rome and Persia
Adrian Goldsworthy, 2023-09-05: A magnificent Spectator history of the epic rivalry between the ancient world's two great superpowers. The Roman empire was like no other. Stretching from the north of Britain to the Sahara and from the Atlantic coast to the Euphrates, it imposed peace and prosperity on an unprecedented scale. Its only true rival lay in the east, where the Parthian and then Persian empires ruled over great cities and the trade routes to mysterious lands beyond. This was the region Alexander the Great had swept through, creating a dream of glory and conquest that tantalized Greeks and Romans alike. Tracing seven centuries of conflict between Rome and Persia, historian Adrian Goldsworthy shows how these two great powers evolved together. Despite their endless clashes, trade between the empires enriched them both, and a mutual respect prevented both Rome and Persia from permanently destroying the other. Epic in scope, Rome and Persia completely reshapes our understanding of one of the greatest rivalries of world history.

Are We Rome?
Cullen Murphy, 2007: A compelling look at the unexpected ways America resembles ancient Rome and what we must do to avoid a catastrophic fall.

The Rome that Did Not Fall
Gerard Friell, Stephen Williams, 2005-08-08: The Rome that Did Not Fall provides a well-illustrated, comprehensive narrative and analysis of the Roman empire in the east, charting its remarkable growth and development which resulted in the distinct and enduring civilization of Byzantium. It considers the fourth-century background, the invasions of Attila, the resources of the east, the struggle for stability, the achievements of Anastasius.

Rome in the East
Warwick

Ball,2016-06-10 This new edition of Rome in the East expands on the seminal work of the first edition and examines the lasting impact of the near Eastern influence on Rome on our understanding of the development of European culture Warwick Ball explores modern issues as well as ancient and overturns conventional ideas about the spread of European culture to the East This volume includes analysis of Roman archaeological and architectural remains in the East as well as links to the Roman Empire as far afield as Iran Central Asia India and China The Near Eastern client kingdoms under Roman rule are examined in turn and each are shown to have affected Roman and ultimately European history in different but very fundamental ways The highly visible presence of Rome in the East mainly the architectural remains some among the greatest monumental buildings in the Roman world are examined from a Near Eastern perspective and demonstrated to be as much if not more a product of the Near East than of Rome Warwick Ball presents the story of Rome in the light of Rome's fascination with the Near East generating new insights into the nature and character of Roman civilisation and European identity from Rome to the present Near Eastern influence can be seen to have transformed Roman Europe with perhaps the most significant change being the spread of Christianity This new edition is updated with the latest research and findings from a range of sources including field work in the region and new studies and views that have emerged since the first edition Over 200 images most of them taken by the author demonstrate the grandeur of Rome in the East This volume is an invaluable resource to students of the history of Rome and Europe as well as those studying the Ancient Near East

Between Empires Greg Fisher,2011-04-14 An examination of the complex inter relationships between the Roman and Sasanid Empires and some of their Arab allies and neighbours during the last century before the emergence of Islam Greg Fisher stresses the importance of a Near East dominated by Rome and Iran for the formation of early concepts of Arab identity

The Roman Near East, 31 B.C.-A.D. 337 Fergus Millar,1993 From Augustus to Constantine the Roman Empire in the Near East expanded step by step southward to the Red Sea and eastward across the Euphrates to the Tigris In a remarkable work of interpretive history Fergus Millar shows us this world as it was forged into the Roman provinces of Syria Judaea Arabia and Mesopotamia His book conveys the magnificent sweep of history as well as the rich diversity of peoples religions and languages that intermingle in the Roman Near East Against this complex backdrop Millar explores questions of cultural and religious identity and ethnicity as aspects of daily life in the classical world and as part of the larger issues they raise As Millar traces the advance of Roman control he gives a lucid picture of Rome's policies and governance over its far flung empire He introduces us to major regions of the area and their contrasting communities bringing out the different strands of culture communal identity language and religious belief in each The Roman Near East makes it possible to see rabbinic Judaism early Christianity and eventually the origins of Islam against the matrix of societies in which they were formed Millar's evidence permits us to assess whether the Near East is best seen as a regional variant of Graeco Roman culture or as in some true sense oriental A masterful treatment of a complex period and world distilling a vast amount of literary documentary artistic and archaeological evidence always reflecting new findings this book is sure to become the standard source for anyone interested in the Roman Empire or the history of the Near East Interwar Crossroads Leon Julius Biela, Anna Bundt, 2022-11-07 Studying the entangled histories of the areas conceptualized as Middle Eastern and North Atlantic World in the interwar years is crucial to understanding the two areas respective and common histories until today However many of the manifold connections exchanges and entanglements between the areas have not received thorough scholarly attention yet The contributors to this volume address this by bringing together various innovative and interdisciplinary approaches to the topic They thereby further the understanding of the two areas entangled histories and diversify prevailing concepts and narratives Through this the volume also offers enriching insights into the global history of the early 20th century East Rome, Sasanian Persia and the End of Antiquity James Howard-Johnston, 2024-10-28 The last longest and most damaging of the wars fought between East Rome and Sasanian Persia 603-628 brought the classical phase of west Eurasian history to a dramatic close Despite its evident significance not least as the distant setting for Muhammad's prophetic mission this last great war of antiquity attracted comparatively little scholarly attention until the last decades of the twentieth century James Howard Johnston's contributions to the subject most of which were published in out of the way places one that on al Tabari is printed for the first time are brought together in convenient form in this volume They strive to root history in close observation of landscape and monuments as well as careful analysis of texts They explore the evolving balance of power between the two empires look at events through Roman Armenian and Arab eyes and home in on the climax of the final conflict in the 620s War and Warfare in Late Antiquity (2 vols.), 2013-08-19 This two volume publication explores the key factors determining the course and outcome of war in Late Antiquity Volume 8.1 includes a detailed review of strategic and tactical issues and eight comprehensive bibliographic essays which provide an overview of the literature In Volume 8.2 thematic papers examine strategy and intelligence fortifications and siege warfare weaponry and equipment literary sources and topography and civil war while papers focused on particular geographic regions home in on war and warfare in the West Roman Empire in the 4th and 5th centuries and the Balkans and the Eastern frontier in the 4th to 7th centuries AD Contributors are Susannah Belcher Neil Christie Ian Colvin John Conyard Jon Coulston Jim Crow Florin Curta Hugh Elton James Howard Johnston Jordi Galbany Jordi Guàrdia John Haldon Michel Kazanski Maria Kouroumali Michael Kulikowski Christopher Lillington Martin Marta Maragall Oriol Mercadal Jordi Nadal Oriol Olesi Alexander Sarantis Conor Whately Michael Whitby and John Wilkes Rome's Eastern Trade Gary K. Young, 2003-10-04 Utilising new archaeological research the author questions the traditionally held view that the imperial government had a strong political interest in eastern trade Instead he argues that their primary motivation was the tax income The Later Roman Empire, AD 284-430 Averil Cameron, 1993 Marked by a power shift from Rome to Constantinople and the Christianization of the Empire this era requires a narrative and interpretative history of its own Cameron an authority on later Roman and early Byzantine

Rome and Persia at War Peter Edwell, 2020-10-25 This book focuses on conflict diplomacy and religion as factors in the relationship between Rome and Sasanian Persia in the third and fourth centuries AD During this period military conflict between Rome and Sasanian Persia was at a level and depth not seen mostly during the Parthian period At the same time contact between the two empires increased markedly and contributed in part to an increased level of conflict Edwell examines both war and peace diplomacy trade and religious contact as the means through which these two powers competed and by which they sought to gain maintain and develop control of territories and peoples who were the source of dispute between the two empires The volume also analyses internal factors in both empires that influenced conflict and competition between them while the roles of regional powers such as the Armenians Palmyrenes and Arabs in conflict and contact between the two super powers receive special attention Using a broad array of sources this book gives special attention to the numismatic evidence as it has tended to be overshadowed in modern studies by the literary and epigraphic sources This is the first monograph in English to undertake an in depth and critical analysis of competition and contact between Rome and the early Sasanians in the Near East in the third and fourth centuries AD using literary archaeological numismatic and epigraphic evidence and one which includes the complete range of mechanisms by which the two powers competed It is an invaluable study for anyone working on Rome Persia and the wider Near East in Late Antiquity

Historical Dictionary of Byzantium John H. Rosser, 2012 The Byzantine Empire dates back to Constantine the Great the first Christian ruler of the Roman Empire who in 330 AD moved the imperial capital from Rome to a port city in modern day Turkey which he then renamed Constantinople in his honor From its founding the Byzantine Empire was a major anchor of east west trade and culture art architecture and the economy all prospered in the newly Christian empire As Byzantium moved into the middle and late period Greek became the official language of both church and state and the Empire's cultural and religious influence extended well beyond its boundaries In the mid 15th century the Ottoman Turks put an end to 1 100 years of Byzantine history by capturing Constantinople but the Empire's legacy in art culture and religion endured long after its fall In this revised and updated second edition of the Historical Dictionary of Byzantium author John H Rosser introduces both the general reader and the researcher to the history of the Byzantine Empire This comprehensive dictionary includes detailed alphabetical entries on key figures ideas places and themes related to Byzantine art history and religion and the second edition contains numerous additional entries on broad topics such as transportation and gender which were less prominent in the previous edition An expanded introduction introduces the reader to Byzantium and a guide to further sources and suggested readings can be found in the extensive bibliography that follows the entries A basic chronology and various maps and illustrations are also included in the dictionary This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Byzantium

Between Rome and Persia Peter Edwell, 2007-12 This detailed history of Rome's relationship with its Persian neighbour from Peter Edwell takes an innovative regional approach and covers the period from the first century BC to the third century AD Rome, the Greek World, and the East Fergus

Millar, 2011-05-01 This volume completes the three volume collection of Fergus Millar's essays which together with his books transformed the study of the Roman Empire by shifting the focus of inquiry onto the broader Mediterranean world and beyond The eighteen essays presented here include Millar's classic contributions to our understanding of the impact of Rome on the peoples cultures and religions of the eastern Mediterranean and the extent to which Graeco Roman culture acted as a vehicle for the self expression of the indigenous cultures In an epilogue written to conclude the collection Millar argues for rethinking the focus of ancient history itself and for considering the Levant and the eastern Mediterranean from the first millennium B C to the Islamic conquests a valid scholarly framework and an appropriate educational syllabus for the study of antiquity English translations of extended ancient passages in Greek Latin and Semitic languages in all the essays make Millar's most important articles accessible for the first time to specialists and nonspecialists alike Trajan Julian

Bennett, 2003-09-02 Did Trajan really deserve his reputation as the embodiment of all imperial virtues Why did Dante writing in the Middle Ages place him in the sixth sphere of Heaven among the Just and Temperate rulers In this the only biography of Trajan available in English Julian Bennett rigorously tests the substance of this glorious reputation Surprisingly for a Roman emperor Trajan comes through the test with his reputation relatively intact
