Fuller, 2021-04-20 In his lifetime the opera composer Fromental Halévy was considered the leader of the French school his admirers included Wagner Berlioz and later Mahler Today he is chiefly remembered for his grand tragic opera La Juive 1835 Halévy a native of Paris was active when the French capital was at the centre of the operatic world His 30 operas worked within established genres of grand opera and opera comique and many of them attained considerable popularity across Europe and the wider world such as La Reine de Chypre 1841 Charles VI 1843 Les Mousquetaires de la reine 1846 and Le Val d'Andorre 1848 Although acclaimed in their day most have not been staged for decades This study throws light on this shadowy figure looking at his life contemporary opinion about him and most importantly his operas Each one is examined in terms of its origin libretto musical features and place in the vibrant critical journalism of mid 19th century France The book provides musical examples and something of the rich iconography that accompanied the creation of his works Present Pasts Dervila Cooke, 2005-01-01 This is the first in depth study of the twelve Modiano texts specifically concerned with life writing in autobiographical and biographical cum historiographical projects The texts covered range from La Place de la toile 1968 through to La Petite Bijou 2001 Close textual analysis is combined with a theoretical approach based on current thinking in autobiography biography and reader response Modiano's use of autofiction and biofiction is analysed in the light of his continuing obsession with both personal trauma and History as well as his problematic relationship with his paternally inherited Jewish links His view of identity of self and other is thus discussed in relation to a particular literary and socio historical context French postmodern post World War II and post Holocaust Masters in Art: Dutch school, 1905

Masters in Art, 1900 Each number is devoted to one artist and includes bibliography of the artist A Self-conscious Art Akane Kawakami, 2000-01-01 A Self Conscious Art deals with the formal complexities of Modiano's work by reading against the grain of his self professed ingenuousness A detailed examination of his narratives shows the deeply postmodern nature of his writing Parodying precursors such as Proust or the nouveau romanciers his narratives are built around a profound lack of faith in the ability of writing to retrieve the past through memory and this failure is acknowledged in the discreet playfulness that characterises his novels      Patrick Modiano Akane Kawakami,2015-12-10 The most up to date and comprehensive critical study of Nobel Prize winning author Patrick Modiano      Le Tumulte Noir Jody Blake,1999-01-01 Jody Blake demonstrates in this book that although the impact of African American music and dance in France was constant from 1900 to 1930 it was not unchanging This was due in part to the stylistic development and diversity of African American music and dance from the prewar cakewalk and ragtime to the postwar Charleston and jazz Successive groups of modernists beginning with the Matisse and Picasso circle in the 1900s and concluding with the Surrealists and Purists in the 1920s constructed different versions of la musique and la danse negre Manifested in creative and critical works these responses to African American music and dance reflected the modernists varying artistic agendas and historical climates
