Department of Justice, 1910 Women and the Making of Built Space in England, 1870-1950 Elizabeth Darling, Lesley Whitworth, 2017-03-02 This interdisciplinary collection explores the relationships between women and built space in England between the 1870s and the 1940s Historians working in cultural literary architectural urban design labour and social history approach the topic through case studies of often neglected organisations individuals practices and initiatives Included are East End rent collectors tenants diarists and correspondents the All Europe House the Women's Co-operative Guild the Housewives Committee of the Council of Industrial Design provincial and metropolitan exhibitors and activists of varying kinds Moving beyond the study of buildings and their designers the volume considers the making of space in its broadest sense from the production of discourses to the consumption of domestic appliances and the performance of roles as diverse as social reformers committee members and homemakers It thereby demonstrates that women made a significant contribution to the creation of modern built environments in both public and private spheres

Keith's Beautiful Homes Magazine, 1912 Keith's Magazine on Home Building, 1904 Laws Respecting Landlords, Tenants, and Lodgers LAWS., 1812 An Anthropology of Futures and Technologies Débora Lanzeni, Karen Waltorp, Sarah Pink, Rachel C. Smith, 2022-12-30 This book examines emerging automated technologies and systems and the increasingly prominent roles that each plays in our lives and our imagined futures It asks how technological futures are being constituted and the roles anthropologists can play in their making how anthropologists engage with emerging technologies within their fieldwork contexts in research which seeks to influence future design how to create critical and interventional approaches to technology design and innovation and how a critical anthropology of the way that emerging technologies are experienced in everyday life circumstances offers new insights for future making practices In pursuing these questions this book responds to a call for new anthropologies that respond to the current and emerging technological environments in which we live environments for which thinking critically about the possible plausible and impossible futures are no longer sufficient Taking the next step this book asserts that anthropology must now propose alternative ways rooted in ethnography to approach and engage with what is coming and to contest dominant narratives of industry policy and government and to respond to our contemporary context through a public vocal and interventional approach showcases the prolific talent of a central figure in Victorian literature. Renowned for her pioneering contributions to the sensation fiction genre, Braddon combines thrilling plots with intricate social commentary. The collection encompasses her most notable novels, including the infamous Lady Audley's Secret, while reflecting the era's anxieties regarding gender, class, and morality. Braddon's skillful use of suspense and psychological depth invites readers into a world where the boundaries of propriety are tantalizingly tested, underpinned by rich lyrical prose that captures the complexities of human emotion. As a writer, Mary Elizabeth Braddon was profoundly influenced by her own experiences, having navigated her way through a male-dominated literary landscape with determination and acumen. Her background as a theater actress and her early career as a writer for popular magazines enriched her narrative techniques and her engagement with contemporary social issues. Braddon's exploration of themes such as femininity and deception not only contributed to her success during the Victorian era but also established her as a forward-thinking voice in literature. For readers seeking a comprehensive understanding of Victorian societal tensions through a sensational lens, Braddon's Complete Works is essential. This collection not only captivates with its thrilling narratives but also enriches the reader's insight into the complexities of Victorian life, making it a must-read for both enthusiasts of classic literature and those interested in the evolution of women's writing.

MARY ELIZABETH BRADDON Ultimate Collection: Mystery Novels, Victorian Romances & Supernatural Tales Mary Elizabeth Braddon, 2023-11-10. In Mary Elizabeth Braddon Ultimate Collection: Mystery Novels, Victorian Romances, Supernatural Tales, readers are ushered into the intricate world of Victorian literature where Braddon's storytelling prowess shines through her diverse genres. This comprehensive anthology encapsulates Braddon's fascination with the complexities of love and moral ambiguity, featuring captivating mysteries and tantalizing supernatural elements. Her masterful command of suspense and character development, coupled with rich atmospheric settings, reflects the period's intricate social mores and Gothic influences, revealing a nuanced exploration of femininity and societal constraints. Mary Elizabeth Braddon, a prominent figure in Victorian literature, emerged as a formidable author and career woman during a time when women's voices were often stifled. Her personal experiences, including hardships and the challenges of being a single mother, undoubtedly inspired the depth and resilience found in her characters. Braddon's early exposure to the publishing world and her involvement in periodicals led to her swift rise in popularity, particularly with her sensational novel Lady Audley's Secret. This ultimate collection is a must-read for those seeking to investigate the intersection of mystery, romance, and the supernatural within the Victorian context. Braddon's engaging narratives and compelling themes make this anthology essential for scholars, enthusiasts, and casual readers alike, offering a rich tapestry of emotion, intrigue, and the timeless struggle for autonomy.
