Hornberger, 1996-01-01 Americans are now faced with competing visions of where we want our nation to go On the one hand we have the vision of America s Founders individual liberty private property and limited government in which there is no welfare Social Security income taxation Medicare Medicaid regulations subsidies and the like Equally important no foreign wars On the other hand we have the vision of the 20th and 21st century public officials ever increasing taxation regulations and political plunder And of course body bags and caskets as part of their attempt to remake the world into one gigantic welfare state The stakes are too high for any American to ignore For with foreign wars not only do we have taxation and regulation we also have the specter of funerals and wheelchairs for husbands fathers sons wives mothers and daughters It is time for the American people to recognize that our ancestors were right and that public officials were wrong It is time to recapture the principles of our Founders It is time to lead the world out of the welfare state darkness into which it has plunged during most of our lifetime The Failure of America s Foreign Wars strips away the truth obscuring nostalgia for America s foreign adventures and shows the perverse and bloody consequences of these conflicts The Cambridge

Against Immediate Evil Andrew E. Johnstone,2015-08-18 In Against Immediate Evil Andrew Johnstone tells the story of how internationalist Americans worked between 1938 and 1941 to convince the U S government and the American public of the need to stem the rising global tide of fascist aggression As war approached the internationalist movement attempted to arouse the nation in order to defeat noninterventionism at home and fascism overseas Johnstone s examination of this movement undermines the common belief that the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor wrenched an isolationist United States into global armed conflict and the struggle for international power Johnstone focuses on three organizations the American Committee for Non Participation in Japanese Aggression the Committee to Defend America by Aiding the Allies and Fight For Freedom that actively promoted a more global role for the United States based on a conception of the four freedoms later made famous by FDR The desire to be free from fear was seen in concerns regarding America s immediate national security The desire to be free from want was expressed in anxieties over the nation s future economic prosperity The need for freedom of speech was represented in concerns over the potential loss of political freedoms Finally the need for freedom of worship was seen in the emphasis on religious freedoms and broader fears about the future of Western civilization These groups and their supporters among the public and within the government characterized the growing global conflict as one between two distinct worlds and in doing so set the tone of American foreign policy for decades to come
