Roots And Ever Green The Selected Letters Of Ina Dillard Russell:

Roots and Ever Green Ina Dillard Russell, Sally Russell, 1999 When Ina Dillard Russell died in 1953 flags throughout Georgia were lowered to half mast in honor of her dedication to her state community and family Roots and Ever Green is the engaging true story told through her letters of this remarkable woman's life at the turn of the century in a dramatically changing South Born in 1868 Ina Dillard grew up in rural Georgia during Reconstruction After Ina married Richard Brevard Russell an Athens lawyer and future chief justice of the Georgia Supreme Court in 1891 the simple life she had imagined was transformed Russell became the matriarch of a large and influential family and raised thirteen children including future Georgia governor and U S Senator Richard Russell This energetic and talented woman balanced her household family and social responsibilities with extraordinary skill reinventing traditional roles to accommodate her active life The letters presented in this volume are selections from the estimated three thousand that Russell wrote to her children and husband during her lifetime Ranging from the turn of the century to the early years of the Great Depression they provide an intimate view of what life was like for many women in the South during a time of great political and social upheaval From guidelines on manners nutrition and fashion to instructions on education motherhood and home health remedies she offers insights into the numerous roles women were expected to fill Not limited to family matters Russell's letters record her views on politics football the World Wars music and life in various Georgia towns A frequent traveler she also offers entertaining anecdotes of her excursions and descriptions of the people she met This intimate detailed portrait of one woman's life chronicles a critical period of change in the roles and ambitions of women in the South and in the United States Memories of a Georgia Teacher Martha Mizell Puckett, 2002 While Puckett offers a valuable perspective on schooling in the twentieth century rural South she also captures the essence of daily life in the communities in which she taught We read of how she sometimes boarded with the parents of her pupils of how teachers students and parents joined together in observance of holidays and of how schooling managed to continue through the busy growing seasons Personal details of Puckett's life also emerge from her relationship with her parents to her life at home with her husband and their eight children Richard Brevard Russell, Jr Sally Russell, 2011 In 1897 the year Richard Brevard Russell Jr was born the world was poised for a dramatic swing into a century that would see more changes in religion politics society science technology and war than almost all other centuries of human history combined It was a wild ride for a boy born to fulfill great expectations in the mercurial modern political arena yet reared to venerate the worn and vanishing splendor of the American South He would become one of the half dozen most powerful men in Washington for a period of almost twenty years and it would be frequently admitted most notably by President Harry Truman that if Russell had not been from Georgia if he had been from a state such as Indiana Illinois or Missouri the Presidency could not have been denied him His love of the South and his native state was such that when Truman's remark was quoted to him Russell replied I'd rather be from Georgia than be President This book acquaints the reader with a fascinating and complex man of contrasts An ardent segregationist who fought civil rights legislation Richard B Russell was also the devoted father of the School Lunch Program A Georgia farm boy Russell almost idolized the agricultural society from which America sprang but embraced the nuclear age and space technology An intense family man he appreciated women fell in love easily and conducted numerous affairs Yet Russell never married Deeply private he lived his entire adult life in the public eye Richard Russell was good company His personal story makes good reading A Heart for Any Fate Sally Russell,2004 Born in 1861 eldest in a while middle class Southern family that lost everything material in the American civil war Richard Russell grew up consumed with ambition to make a name for himself His dream was to found an outstanding family and to hold the three highest offices in Georgia Chief Justice of the Supreme Court Governor and United States senator In striving for these ambitions he married twice and ran for public office seventeen times Although elected to lesser offices he lost races for chief justice governor Congress and the U S Senate He was elected to the first Georgia Court of Appeals in 1906 and to the Supreme Court as chief justice in 1922 His first wife Minnie Tyler died in childbirth in 1886 leaving him bereft but five years later he married again With Ina Dillard he formed an exemplary marriage relationship that produced fifteen children thirteen of whom survived to become responsible adults credits to effective parenting The eldest son Richard Brevard Russell Jr fulfilled the gubernatorial and senatorial dreams of his father becoming governor of Georgia in 1931 and U S senator from Georgia in 1933 when he was thirty five years old He served thirty seven years in the United States Senate and became Georgia s premier statesman of the twentieth century Thanks to their father s emphasis on education and his willingness to pay for it the Russell children studied law medicine the ministry and teaching and became respected professionals in their careers The glory and difficulty of patriarchy come clear in this story of social and familial structures that both restricted and strengthened conscientious middle and upper class white men of the post Civil War South

Time to Reconcile Grace Bryan Holmes,2000 Grace Bryan Holmes was born in rural Georgia in 1919 During a troubled childhood she frequently found solace in the black servants who cared for her family part time After the death of one of these servants she resolved to help the woman s surviving children and grandchildren Over the course of her life this commitment altered her perspective on the racial prejudice so prevalent in her community She shouldered the burden of her growing awareness through many years of service as the wife of a rising Baptist minister until the gradual assertion of the convictions she had formed in silence brought her into direct conflict with prevailing social attitudes her strong willed mother and her husband s congregation Time to Reconcile is a redemptive account of a southern woman s struggle to free herself from the legacies of prejudice parental domination paternalism and class consciousness that had defined her life and constricted her thinking Holmes s vividly detailed and extraordinarily honest recollections offer a refreshingly candid look at the fabric of southern society in the mid twentieth century Shatter Me with Dawn Sally Russell,2001 Essays describe the author s life after she moved onto Somechoes Farm in rural Russell County Georgia The Latitude of Home Sally Russell,2008

Coming from a family that some would call addicted to storytelling Sally Russell began listening nearly twenty years ago especially for stories that bring the past into the present The subjects range from love sex and death to less weighty considerations such as journeys building fires cooking and a variety of family matters Beginning with her own family s account of what happened to them during the American Civil War and how those stories directly affected her life 125 years later Russell shares the discovery of time traveling through a range of tales that are humorous historical haphazard heart warming and heartbreaking often within the same story For Russell all stories however personal or cultural represent shared human history and form an intricate original and sheltering tapestry that belongs to all and represents a curious security in our future shock world Through beloved old stories and through new ones Russell forms threads of regret sorrow joy wonder courage wisdom beauty and some other thing that isn t any of these things perhaps the greatest mystery are woven into a fabric that entertains educates and delights with scenes of days gone by portraits of worthwhile people and events that shape our characters Storytelling is an important vehicle by which we bond with each other in multiple dimensions and across generations The stories she shares show how story telling gives us a latitude of home to use an old nautical term i e a reference point on our map of being that shows us where we came from In a figurative sense latitude of home is that place time from which we start Our stories our family myths give us the knowledge of our place in Time Russell invites readers to consider their own repertoires of stories what they can learn about and from their own family myth and how they can share that myth to inform delight and strengthen
