Roots Of Evil A Social History Of Crime:

The Roots of Evil Christopher Hibbert, 1963 Foul Deeds & Suspicious Deaths around Northampton Paul Harrison, 2017-09-30 Twenty true tales of violence and villainy in this area of England's East Midlands includes illustrations Foul Deeds and Suspicious Deaths Around Northampton investigates the darker side of humanity in cases of murder deceit and pure malice committed over the centuries in this picturesque part of England For this journey into Northampton's bloody past Paul Harrison has selected over twenty notorious episodes that give a fascinating insight into criminal acts and the criminal mind He reinvestigates some of the most intriguing cases introduces new evidence and questions verdicts that were reached many years ago Among the cases are two old people who were bludgeoned to death for no apparent reason the murder of a mistress and her child a philandering salesman who faked his own death a promiscuous woman who came to a cruel end a shoemaker who brutally attacked his wife and the disappearance of Lydia Atley whose remains were never found These human dramas are often played out in the most commonplace of circumstances while others are so odd as to be stranger than fiction Criminal Sentencing in Bangladesh Muhammad Mahbubur Rahman, 2017-03-20 In Criminal Sentencing in Bangladesh Muhammad Mahbubur Rahman critically examines the sentencing policies of Bangladesh and demonstrates that the country's sentencing policies are not only yet to be developed in a coherent manner and shaped with an appropriate and contextual balance but also remain part of the problem rather than part of the solution The author forcefully argues that the conception of sentencing policies cannot and should not always be confined exclusively to institutional understandings The typical realities of post colonial societies call for rethinking the traditional judiciary centred understanding of what is meant by criminal sentences This book thus raises the question for theoretical sentencing scholarship whether the prevailing judiciary centred understanding of sentencing should be rethought The Shaming of Sexual Offenders Anne-Marie McAlinden, 2007-04-05 Winner of the 2008 British Society of Criminology Book Prize Sex offenders particularly those who offend against children feature prominently in contemporary law and order debates Child sexual abuse is a small component of the broader category of gendered and sexualised violence which causes significant trauma for victims yet continues to evade conventional approaches to justice This is evidenced not only by the low number of prosecutions due mostly to low levels of reporting and evidential difficulties at trial but also by the failure of the justice system to prevent re offending largely due to the limited availability and effectiveness of prison treatment programmes Following Braithwaite's dichotomy of reintegrative and disintegrative shaming this book argues that contemporary popular and state led responses to the risk posed by sex offenders are largely disintegrative in nature At best the offender may be labelled stigmatised and ostracised from the community while at worst he may be subjected to violence and vigilante action and ultimately return to offending behaviour The failure of these retributive responses means there is considerable scope for exploring alternative forms of justice and their potential for improving the outcome for victims offenders and communities affected by sexual offences This book examines the controversy of whether restorative justice can be applied to child sexual abuse as one of the most intractable of contemporary societal problems and if so what special considerations might apply Although restorative schemes with sex offenders are in short supply a few initiatives have developed in Canada and parts of the United States which have effected significant benefits in reintegrative shaming The book examines whether such ad hoc schemes may be of general application with child sexual abuse and whether they may be implemented on a more holistic basis

The Abuses of Punishment R. Adams, 1998-02-18 This book argues that abusive punishments are particularly deeply rooted in authoritarian states and in some Western countries such as Britain and the USA from which they have been exported over past centuries The book surveys a variety of psychological physically constraining custodial corporal and capital punishments The implicit punitive content of judicial processes such as trial as well as treatments such as behavioural therapy may have as much psychological impact as more explicitly physical punishments

Justice and Law María José Falcón y Tella, 2014-05-08 Apart from considering classical theories of justice from Aristotle Plato Saint Thomas Aquinas the Bible and the Quran the aim of Justice and Law is to focus on the contemporary vista reviewing some of the modern ideas of justice advanced by legal philosophers of our time such as John Rawls Jürgen Habermas Ronald Dworkin Robert Nozick Richard A Posner Wojciech Sadurski Marxism or Feminist Theories In the second part of the work María José Falcón y Tella deals with some of the principal themes relating to justice such as punishment civil disobedience conscientious objection just war conflict of duties and tolerance

Selective Incapacitation and Public Policy Kathleen Auerhahn, 2012-02-01 From the 1970s to the new millennium the prison population in the United States has quadrupled while an unprecedented amount of sentencing reform has taken place largely intended to protect the public from dangerous criminals This book details the California experience including the history and politics of criminal sentencing policy reform as well as the consequences of this activity to the criminal justice system Using cutting edge computer simulation modeling Kathleen Auerhahn explores the impact that sentencing reforms dating back to the 1970s have had on the composition and structure of the criminal justice system with specific focus on prison populations She illustrates how dynamic systems simulation modeling is used to both examine possible futures under a variety of sentencing structures and sentencing policy alternatives including narrowing strike zones and the early release of elderly offenders in order to more effectively target the dangerous criminals these policies promise to remove from society via incarceration

Cultivating Empathy: Inspiring Health Professionals to Communicate More Effectively (Revised Edition) Kathleen Stephany, 2022-01-04 Research demonstrates that even if empathy the capacity to perceive or share emotions with other beings or objects is not part of a person's communication skill set it can be taught Empathy can therefore be viewed as an acquired communication skill Cultivating and practicing the skill of empathy among health care providers enhances the quality of care experienced by their patients which in turn can even improve work satisfaction for health care providers Many communication textbooks or manuals for care giving professions primarily focus on specific communication skills and techniques Cultivating Empathy takes a different approach the book sets empathy as the foundation of all therapeutic interactions and teaches the reader to learn the art of empathy by using constructive approaches and research findings from social sciences and neuroscience Cultivating Empathy is perfect for any student or practicing health care professional who has felt that there was an absence of rapport when interacting with clients or patients and their families Real case narratives dynamic interactive exercises and simulation techniques are also provided in this text to assist helpers to learn how to be more empathetic Readers will gain awareness about human and emotional aspects of patient care which will hopefully make a positive contribution to their professional practice Violence Alex

Alvarez,Ronnet Bachman,2016-11-01 The Third Edition of Violence The Enduring Problem offers an interdisciplinary and reader friendly exploration of the patterns and correlations of individual and collective violent acts using the most contemporary research theories and cases Responding to the fear of pervasive violence in the world authors Alex Alvarez and Ronet Bachman address the various legislative social and political efforts to curb violent behavior They expertly incorporate a wide range of the most current cases to help readers interpret the nature and dynamics of a variety of different yet connected forms of violence While most texts of this type simply cover individual acts of violence this book offers readers a broader perspective covering more collective violence activities such as terrorism mob violence and genocide Criminal Justice in England and the United States J. David Hirschel,William O. Wakefield,Scott Sasse,2008 A detailed comparison between the English and U S criminal justice systems Library Book Catalog United States. Department of Justice,1972

Library Book Catalog United States. Law Enforcement Assistance Administration,1972 The Thief-Taker Hangings Aaron Skirboll,2014-09-02 After the Glorious Revolution a not so glorious age of lawlessness befell England Crime ran rampant and highwaymen thieves and prostitutes ruled the land Execution by hanging often punished the smallest infractions and rip roaring stories of fearless criminals proliferated giving birth to a new medium the newspaper In 1724 housebreaker Jack Sheppard a pocket Hercules his small frame packed with muscle finally met the hangman Street singers sang ballads about the Cockney burglar because no prison could hold him Each more astonishing than the last his final jailbreak took him through six successive locked rooms after which he shimmied down two blankets from the prison roof to the street below Just before Sheppard swung he gave an account of his life to a writer in the crowd Daniel Defoe stood in the shadow of the day s literati Swift Pope Gay and had done hard time himself for sedition and bankruptcy He saw how prison corrupted the poor They came out thieves but he came out a journalist Six months later the author of Robinson Crusoe and Moll Flanders covered another death at the hanging tree Jonathan Wild looked every bit the brute body covered in scars from dagger sword and gun bald head patched with silver plates from a fractured skull and he had all but invented the double cross He cultivated young thieves profited from their work then turned them in for his reward and their execution But one man refused to play his game Sheppard didn t take orders from this self proclaimed thief taker general nor would he hawk his loot through Wild's fences The two faced bounty hunter took it personally and helped bring the young burglar's life to an end But when Wild's charade came to light he quickly became the most despised man in the land When he was hanged for his own crimes the mob wasn't rooting for Wild as it had for Sheppard Instead they hurled stones rotten food and even dead animals at him Defoe once again got the scoop and tabloid journalism as we know it had begun The Spectacle of Criminal Justice Rosie Smith,2022-03-29 Delving into how institutions of justice as well as public expressions of justice such as rage and grief are played out in the media Smith helps us understand how this represents a shift away from historical community displays of punishment towards a media sanitised public engagement with the implementation of control and justice

Frank Tannenbaum Matthew G. Yeager,2015-12-22 Frank Tannenbaum and the Making of a Convict Criminologist is a historical biography about Columbia University professor Frank Tannenbaum and his contribution to American criminology Tannenbaum was a major figure in criminology in the early twentieth century and is known for his contributions to labeling theory particularly his conception of the dramatization of evil presented in his 1938 book Crime and Community Tannenbaum served a year on Blackwell's Island in New York City for labor disturbances in 1914 and subsequently became a prison reformer writing about his experiences with the American penal system and serving as the official reporter for the Wickersham Commission's study on Penal Institutions Probation and Parole in 1931 This book explores his unique early career and his influence on convict criminology drawing on his personal papers housed at the Butler Library at Columbia University Dead Woman Walking Anette Ballinger,2019-05-24 This title was first published in 2000 Between 1900 and 1950 130 women were sentenced to death for murder in England and Wales Only 12 of these women were actually executed Thus 91 per cent of women murderers had their sentence commuted whereas if we examine the corresponding figures for men only 39 per cent had their sentence commuted It would appear that state servants working within the criminal justice system were far more reluctant to hang women than men However this text argues that a closer examination of this apparent discrepancy reveals it to be a misconception which has come about as a result of the statistics regarding infanticide That is to say unlike men the vast majority of women murderers have killed their own child or children Once this is taken into account we find that women who had murdered an adult had less hope of a reprieve than men Thus the author shows that the large proportion of women murderers as killers of their own children has created a false impression of how female murderers fared inside the criminal justice system Routledge Library Editions: The History of Crime and Punishment Various Authors,2022-07-30 This set reissues ten books that explore the history of crime and punishment The titles which were originally published between 1970 and 1988 examine many different aspects of historical criminology over a span of over 400 years with particular focus on the nineteenth century This set will be of particular interest to students of both history and criminology Principles and Practice of Forensic Psychiatry, 2Ed Richard Rosner,2003-02-28 The second edition of this award winning textbook has been thoroughly revised and updated throughout Building on the success of the first edition the book continues to address the History and Practice of Forensic Psychiatry Legal Regulation of the Practice of Psychiatry Psychiatry in relation to Civil Law Criminal Law and Family Law Important sections such as Special Issues in Forensic Psychiatry Law and the Legal System and Landmark Cases in Mental Health Law are included Designed to meet the needs of practitioners of forensic psychiatry for residents in forensic psychiatry and those preparing for the specialty examination in Forensic Psychiatry of the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology this volume will also answer the many questions faced by mental health professionals mental health administrators correctional health professionals and correctional health administrators attorneys judges probation and parole officers and administrators all of whom at one time or another require a substantive presentation of the entire field of forensic psychiatry in the USA Medieval Italy Christopher Kleinhenz,2004-08-02 This Encyclopedia gathers together the most recent scholarship on Medieval Italy while offering a sweeping view of all aspects of life in Italy during the Middle Ages This two volume illustrated A Z reference is a cross disciplinary resource for information on literature history the arts science philosophy and religion in Italy between A D 450 and 1375 For more information including the introduction a full list of entries and contributors a generous selection of sample pages and more visit the Medieval Italy An Encyclopedia website Routledge Revivals: Medieval Italy (2004). Christopher Kleinhenz,2017
