Sacred Cows and Other Edibles:

Sacred Cows-- and Other Edibles Nikki Giovanni, 1988 Autobiographical essays and articles Manheimer's Cataloging and Classification, Revised and Expanded Jerry Saye, 1999-09-09 This work has been revised and updated to include the Anglo American Cataloguing Rules 2nd ed the Dewey Decimal System Classification 21st ed and the Library of Congress Classification Schedules The text details the essential elements of the International Standard Bibliographic Description introduces the associated OCLC MARC specifications and more The downloadable resources give more than 500 PowerPoint slides and graphics identical to the text in addition to scans of the title page and title page verso and other illustrations that support examples from Anglo American Cataloguing Rules 2nd ed The Lever of Riches Joel Mokyr, 1992-04-09 In a world of supercomputers genetic engineering and fiber optics technological creativity is ever more the key to economic success But why are some nations more creative than others and why do some highly innovative societies such as ancient China or Britain in the industrial revolution pass into stagnation Beginning with a fascinating concise history of technological progress Mokyr sets the background for his analysis by tracing the major inventions and innovations that have transformed society since ancient Greece and Rome What emerges from this survey is often surprising the classical world for instance was largely barren of new technology the relatively backward society of medieval Europe bristled with inventions and the period between the Reformation and the Industrial Revolution was one of slow and unspectacular progress in technology despite the tumultuous developments associated with the Voyages of Discovery and the Scientific Revolution What were the causes of technological creativity Mokyr distinguishes between the relationship of inventors and their physical environment which determined their willingness to challenge nature and the social environment which determined the openness to new ideas He discusses a long list of such factors showing how they interact to help or hinder a nation's creativity and then illustrates them by a number of detailed comparative studies examining the differences between Europe and China between classical antiquity and medieval Europe and between Britain and the rest of Europe during the industrial revolution He examines such aspects as the role of the state the Chinese gave up a millennium wide lead in shipping to the Europeans for example when an Emperor banned large ocean going vessels the impact of science as well as religion politics and even nutrition He questions the importance of such commonly cited factors as the spill over benefits of war the abundance of natural resources life expectancy and labor costs Today an ever greater number of industrial economies are competing in the global market locked in a struggle that revolves around technological ingenuity The Lever of Riches with its keen analysis derived from a sweeping survey of creativity throughout history offers telling insights into the question of how Western economies can maintain and developing nations can unlock their creative potential

There's Room for Me Here Janet Allen, Kyle Gonzalez, 1998. What do you do with students who cannot or will not read and write? This portrait of Kyle Gonzalez's classroom offers teachers theory-based strategies for helping students become motivated and successful readers and writers. You will see how one middle school teacher sets up her literacy classroom, offers intervention and support for struggling students, and assesses their progress. Rich in description of Kyle's successes, the book also looks honestly at why some practices were ineffective in her setting. With Janet's and Kyle's practical and detailed suggestions for creating a literate environment, you'll learn how to establish a literacy workshop, choose and use effective resources, implement effective informative record keeping, help students establish goals and assess progress, use read-alouds as well as shared, guided, and independent reading and writing, instill reading and writing practices that help students read content-specific texts. There's Room for Me Here includes record-keeping forms, extensive bibliographies of literature and professional materials, resource information, and samples of strategy lessons, all embedded in this engaging story of a teacher's first three years building a literacy workshop in her classroom. Kyle's students are middle school learners who struggle with literacy. The strategies, content area connections, and management ideas, however, are applicable and appropriate for use by any PK-12 teacher.

Teacher Educators as Critical Storytellers Antonio L. Ellis, Nicholas Daniel Hartlep, Gloria Ladson-Billings, David Stovall, 2021. Each chapter will include an analysis drawn from research on identity in teacher education theory and research in education, psychology, and human development.
