

There's An Elephant In The Room

By Adele Penn © 2020

There's an elephant in the room.
And I'm feeling kind of restless, as we begin to chatter, flatter, and commune.
I'd really like to address its presence. Doesn't seem like you've noticed though.
It's really quite a distraction too.

I hope it doesn't cause too much disturbance or damage.
There's no telling what an elephant in the house could do.
If we could just address the issue for a moment and all be aware,
I'd feel much more secure.

There is an elephant in the room. I feel impending doom.
Its shadow is overwhelming with unspoken concern.
If we could just remove it first, Yes, that's what I yearn.
How can we talk about everything else as if this elephant isn't there?
This seems a little risky, as if you don't care.

Well, the conversation has been pleasant, what I could follow of it anyway.
But that elephant in the room just keeps getting in the way.
So please don't take me wrong. But I really can't stay long,
I believe it's time I excuse myself from this elephant in the room.
