Strahan, Walters Art Gallery (Baltimore, Md.), 1997 The sculpture of Thailand includes some of the most beautiful and significant works made anywhere in Asia but it is among the least studied and least well understood This pathbreaking and authoritative book tells the story of this sculpture beginning with the art of the kingdom of Dvaravati in the seventh century and ending with the abandonment of the city of Ayutthaya in 1767 Hiram W Woodward Jr the principal author bases his account on a study of the most important and comprehensive collection outside Thailand that formed by the pioneering American scholar Alexander B Griswold and bequeathed to the Walters Art Gallery in Baltimore Maryland An unprecedented array of technical tests has been carried out on the Griswold sculptures Thermoluminescence analysis has determined age metal analysis has revealed the content of the alloys and clay core analysis has provided insights into probable place of origin Conclusions drawn from these tests have been integrated into Dr Woodward s narrative Never before has the sequence of styles and the development of regional traditions been presented so clearly The results of the tests presented in full will be a resource for students of Thai art for decades

Monastery, Monument, Museum Maurizio Peleggi,2017-10-31 Ranging across the longue dur e of Thailand s history Monastery Monument Museum is an eminently readable and original contribution to the study of the kingdom s art and culture Eschewing issues of dating style and iconography historian Maurizio Peleggi addresses distinct types of artifacts and artworks as both the products and vehicles of cultural memory From the temples of Chiangmai to the Emerald Buddha from the National Museum of Bangkok to the prehistoric culture of Northeast Thailand and from the civic monuments of the 1930s to the political artworks of the late twentieth century even well known artworks and monuments reveal new meanings when approached from this perspective Part I Sacred Geographies focuses on the premodern era when religious credence informed the cultural alteration of landscape and devotional sites and artifacts including visual representation of the Buddhist cosmology were created Part II Antiquities Museums and National History covers the 1830s through the 1970s when antiquarianism and eventually archaeology emerged and developed in the kingdom partly the result of a shift in the elites worldview and partly a response to colonial and neocolonial projects of knowledge Part III Discordant Mnemoscapes deals with civic monuments and artworks that anchor memory of twentieth century political events and provide stages for both their commemoration and counter commemoration by evoking the country s embattled political present Monastery Monument Museum shows us how cultural memory represents a kind of palimpsest the result of multiple inscriptions

reworkings and manipulations over time The book will be a rewarding read for historians art historians anthropologists and Buddhism scholars working on Thailand and Southeast Asia generally as well as for academic and general readers with an interest in memory and material culture
