Sacred Time Rohan Singh, AI, 2025-03-05 Sacred Time explores the profound connection between timekeeping and spirituality across diverse cultures. It argues that calendars are not merely practical tools but culturally constructed frameworks imbued with religious meaning. The book highlights how religious beliefs have shaped our perception and organization of time, demonstrating the cultural impact of religion on daily life. One intriguing insight is how prayer cycles such as daily monastic routines structure believers' lives, connecting them to a divine order. Another is the role of sacred festivals like Easter or Diwali in reinforcing communal identity and spiritual renewal. The book examines the evolution of calendar systems from ancient lunar calendars to complex Mayan systems, providing historical context for understanding how early civilizations integrated astronomy with religious narratives. It progresses by introducing fundamental concepts of sacred time, then explores prayer cycles and sacred festivals in different traditions. By drawing from archaeological records, ancient texts, and ethnographic studies, Sacred Time offers a fresh perspective on the relationship between time, religion, and culture, making it valuable for anyone interested in history, religion, and cultural diversity.

Overseas Chinese Christians in Contemporary China Sin Wen Lau, 2020-08-25 Overseas Chinese Christians in Contemporary China explores how diasporic Chinese understandings of what it means to be Chinese are changing in post-1978 China. Ethnographically, it focuses on overseas Chinese Christian business people residing in Shanghai. Hypermobile, well-educated, and financially secure, these elites adopt a long-term view of their time in the country. This study examines how these elites put Christianity to work, mediating their hopes, fears, and obligations in order to illuminate the ways in which this overseas Chinese experience departs from existing academic models of diasporic Chinese as either bridge builders or pragmatic capitalists. By focusing on religion, this study offers novel insights into how overseas Chinese are making a place for themselves in a globalising China.

The Christian Home in Victorian America, 1840--1900 Colleen McDannell, 1994-03-22 wonderfully imaginative and provocative in its interdisciplinary approach to the study of nineteenth-century American religion and women's role within it. Choice, an important addition to the fields of religious studies, women's history, and American cultural history. Journal of the American Academy of Religion, a complete and complex portrait of the Christian home. The Journal of American History.

Reclaiming Family Time Tim and Sue Muldoon, 2017-08-03 What happens when our lives spin out of control because we are so busy and overcommitted? The negative consequences of such a lifestyle are well known, but few of us are able to put on the brakes so that we can truly enjoy the gift of one another. Tim and Sue Muldoon take both a meditative and practical approach to this issue. They help us experience the peace that only God can give and they also share what has and hasn't worked in their own family While there is no magic bullet the Muldoons show us that when we put God first in our lives our other priorities fall into line as well That makes it possible to discern the best ways to spend our time both individually and collectively to build a strong foundation of lasting family relationships
