Sacrifice And Redemption Durham Essays In Theology:

Sacrifice and Redemption S. W. Sykes, 1991-06-28 This collection of essays seeks to answer the following question When Christians speak of the death of Christ as a sacrifice what have they meant and does it make sense today The Environment and Christian Ethics Michael S. Northcott, 1996-09-28 This book is about the extent origins and causes of the environmental crisis Dr Northcott argues that Christianity has lost the biblical awareness of the interconnectedness of all life He shows how Christian theologians and believers might recover a more ecologically friendly belief system and life style The author provides an important corrective to secular approaches to environmental ethics including utilitarian individualism animal rights theories and deep ecology Warfare and Belligerence Pierre Purseigle, 2005-06-01 The essays collected here suggest some of the ways in which an interdisciplinary perspective may contribute to our understanding of the Great War Contributors examine the relationship between the character of the war and the nature of belligerent societies and present original research on the comparative history of the First World War In 1914 1918 the front lines did not only separate warring nations but also cut across belligerent societies and ultimately determined the social responses to the conflict Indeed the totalizing logic of the First World War entailed the blurring of boundaries between combatants and non combatants soldier and civilian Subjects included are operational and tactical evolution social mobilization military discipline and morale prisoners of war veterans and demobilization religion and politics war literature and cinema memory and commemoration Contributors Pierre Purseigle Patrick Porter Dennis Showalter Leonard V Smith Nicolas Ginsburger Elise Julien Paul Mulvey Keith Grieves Leen Engelen Nicolas Beaupre Jennifer D Keene Elizabeth Fordham Vanda Wilcox Heather Jones Gearoid Barry

The Background and Content of Paul's Cultic Atonement Metaphors Stephen Finlan, 2004 Problems with Atonement Stephen Finlan, 2005 Examines the origins and outcomes of the Christian doctrine of atonement its biblical foundations development and theological questions surrounding it including questions about its relationship to the Incarnation Provided by publisher Priesthood and Temple in John's Apocalypse Timothy B. Tse, 2024-12-12 Timothy B Tse argues that while John uses language drawn from the Hebrew Bible s descriptions of YHWH s dwelling place scholarship has overlooked the importance of his spatial transformation of that language Tse thus uses theories relating to Relevance Resistance Theory Critical Space Theory and Conceptual Metaphor to demonstrate that a significant part of John s apocalyptic strategy of resistance is to re present his vision to his audience spatially so that they can experience a divinely ordained alternative to the world in which they live Tse first demonstrates John s attempts to relegate his audience s experience of space to his own revelation John s description of the visionary world creates the metaphors the earth is a Sanctuary and the Saints are its priests Tse argues that under this view life on earth must be evaluated according to the concerns of the Sanctuary which by definition requires the removal of everything impure and the Saints namely all Christians in both the historic and visionary worlds must take priestly responsibility for the earth John therefore portrays the Saints joining in the removal of all impurity upon the earth by fighting as priests in God and the Lamb's war against Satan Babylon and all her impurities Tse concludes that overall John means to realign the church's experience of space so that they understand themselves as priests of the Sanctuary and live according to that reality The Psychotheology of Sin and Salvation Paul V. Axton, 2015-10-22 Through the employment of the work of Slavoj Žižek and his engagement with the Apostle Paul Axton argues that Paul in Romans 6:8 understands sin as a lie grounding the subject outside of Christ and salvation is an exposure and displacement of this lie The theological significance of Žižek along with Sigmund Freud and Jacques Lacan is his demonstration of the pervasive and systemic nature of this lie and its description as he finds it in Romans 7 The specific overlap of the two disciplines of psychology and theology is found in the psychoanalytic understanding that the human Subject or the psyche is structured in three registers the symbolic the imaginary and the real These three registers function like a lie analogous to the Pauline categories of law ego and the body of death which constitute Paul's dynamic of sin's deception Axton argues that if sin is understood as a lie grounding the Subject the exposure of the lie or the dispelling of any notion of mystery connected to sin is integral to salvation and the reconstructing of the Subject in Christ While the lie of sin is mediated by the law new life in the Spirit is not through the law but is a principle unto itself which though it accounts for the law is beyond the law States of Emergency Stephen Morton, 2013-02-04 This book examines how violent anti colonial struggles and the legal military and political techniques used by colonial governments to contain them have been imagined in literature and law Case studies examined include Ireland India South Africa Algeria Kenya Israel Palestine Iraq Afghanistan and Northern Pakistan The Letter to the Hebrews: Critical Readings Scott D. Mackie, 2018-04-05 The Letter to the Hebrews is a key text in the New Testament canon It has recently received a great deal of attention prompting a resurgence of scholarly works and a need to re engage with some of the foundational works of scholarship on the text The history of research on Hebrews is presented in this volume of critical readings edited by Scott D Mackie The volume is organized thematically addressing the following sub areas theology Christology and pneumatology eschatology authorship and audience structure and Greco Roman influences the relationship with contemporaneous Judaism and soteriology Each section is prefaced by an introduction and summary of the particular theme in Hebrews At the end of each section is an annotated bibliography to point researchers towards further readings in and engagements with these key themes The Specter of the Jews Ari Finkelstein, 2018-11-06 In the generation after Constantine the Great elevated Christianity to a dominant position in the Roman Empire his nephew the Emperor Julian sought to reinstate the old gods to their former place of prominence in the face of intense opposition from the newly powerful Christian church In early 363 c e while living in Syrian Antioch Julian redoubled his efforts to hellenize the Roman Empire by turning to an unlikely source the Jews With a war against Persia on the horizon Julian thought it crucial that all Romans propitiate the true gods and gain their favor through proper practice To convince his people he drew on Jews whom he characterized as Judeans using their scriptures institutions practices and heroes sometimes as sources for his program and often as models to emulate In The Specter of the Jews Ari Finkelstein examines Julian s writings and views on Jews as Judeans a venerable group whose religious practices and values would help delegitimize Christianity and surprisingly shape a new imperial Hellenic pagan identity
