Resner,2015-11-04 The community of faith finds itself located precariously between Jesus first and second comings between the promise and fulfillment between what God has begun in the gospel and what God has yet to complete It thus finds itself proclaiming a gospel of life love hope and faith in a world more characterized by death hate despair and fear The gospel insists that Jesus death has shut the door on the age of violence and death even as his resurrection has opened the door on the Age of Shalom and life But in this tensive in between time those conflicting ages overlap and the church struggles against powers and experiences that mock its message Drawing on resources from the New Testament s vision of the apocalyptic gospel Andre Resner urges the church and its preachers to engage in the linguistic practices of lament and proclamation as well as the embodied practices of justice making and justice keeping as counter testimony to those powers that have been served notice in Jesus life death and resurrection that their end is near The reflections offered here model the kind of honest speech and risk of life to which the gospel calls its adherents You Are Your Own Best Medicine Frédéric recent decades the North American public has pursued an inspirational vision of successful aging striving through medical technique and individual effort to eradicate the declines vulnerabilities and dependencies previously commonly associated with old age On the face of it this bold new vision of successful healthy and active aging is highly appealing But it also rests on a deep cultural discomfort with aging and being old The contributors to Successful Aging as a Contemporary Obsession explore how the successful aging movement is playing out across five continents Their chapters investigate a variety of people including Catholic nuns in the United States Hindu ashram dwellers older American women seeking plastic surgery aging African American lesbians and gay men in the District of Columbia Chicago home health care workers and their aging clients Mexican men foregoing Viagra dementia and Alzheimer sufferers in the United States and Brazil and aging policies in Denmark Poland India China Japan and Uganda This book offers a fresh look at a major cultural and public health movement of our time questioning what has become for many a taken for granted goal aging in a way that almost denies aging itself

All That Was Possible Howard Overing Sturgis,2009 Howard Sturgis All That Was Possible is a successful psychologic study Here is one Mrs Sibyl Crofts who discreetly retires to a Welsh countryside after her London past She meets Robert Henshaw a rigidly conventional squireen belonging to the neighborhood At first he shows open hostility to Sibyl a beautiful and charming woman yet as in time they become closely acquainted Henshaw though knowing her history falls to her fascinations The American Monthly Review of Reviews Howard Overing Sturgis has handled his subject with great skill and delicacy and with a remorseless logic that compels the reader to recognize the outcome as inevitable The story is told in the form of letters which can be used by a clever writer with excellent results The letters all written by Sibyl are used as a vehicle for conveying facts not as a medium for revealing character The book is extremely interesting It is so devoid of any preaching yet so logical in its conclusions that no thoughtful person can read it without acquiescing in the lesson it so quietly inculcates M K Ford The Critic
