Development-Friendly WTO Architecture Really Look Like? Mr. Arvind Subramanian, Aaditya Mattoo, 2003-08-20 This paper elaborates on a number of key principles that need to underpin a coherent and development friendly architecture for the WTO The key principles include enlarging the scope of WTO bargaining to include labor flows as well as capital flows creating a structure that would provide a balance between furthering liberalization and providing some discretion or policy space to accommodate the inevitable political constraints and minimizing the extent of regulatory harmonization These principles while applicable to all countries may have less immediate relevance in addressing the problems of the least developed countries Gaither's Dictionary of Scientific Quotations Carl C. Gaither, Alma E. Cavazos-Gaither, 2008-01-08

Scientists and other keen observers of the natural world sometimes make or write a statement pertaining to scientific activity that is destined to live on beyond the brief period of time for which it was intended This book serves as a collection of these statements from great philosophers and thought influencers of science past and present It allows the reader quickly to find relevant quotations or citations Organized thematically and indexed alphabetically by author this work makes readily available an unprecedented collection of approximately 18 000 quotations related to a broad range of scientific topics
