Looking For Loopholes Processes Of Incorporation Of Illegal Immigrants In The Netherlands:

Illegal Residence and Public Safety in the Netherlands Arjen Leerkes, 2009 Illegal Residence and Public Safety in the Netherlands is een onderzoek naar de gevolgen van de steeds drastischere maatregelen om illegaal verblijf in Nederland tegen te gaan EU lidstaten als Nederland hanteren steeds zwaardere voorwaarden voor immigratie vanuit niet westerse landen en niet Europese landen Arjen Leerkes onderzocht in hoeverre het verblijf en de migratie van illegale immigranten gevolgen hebben voor de publieke veiligheid en criminaliteit in Nederland Zijn illegale immigranten eerder geneigd tot criminaliteit of weerhoudt hun juridische status hen er juist van Illegal Immigration in Europe F. Düvell, 2005-12-15 The processes of globalization increasing human mobility and European integration have led to immigration and in particular illegal immigration being among the top international policy economic and security concerns This book analyzes the causes of illegal immigration in Europe together with the history and political economy of the phenomenon It offers an assessment of contemporary political responses and proposes an alternative approach aiming at a more sustainable solution Irregular Migration in Europe Anna Triandafyllidou, 2016-05-06 Irregular Migration in Europe contributes to our knowledge of the scale and nature of the much discussed but under researched phenomenon of irregular migration in Europe whilst improving our understanding of the dynamics of irregular migration and its relation to European societies and economies Presenting a comparative analysis of the experiences and policies of different EU member states this book draws on an extensive range of sources many of which have so far been absent from English language analyses to offer an overall picture of irregular migration in twelve EU member states This volume will be of interest to policy makers and researchers within the fields of migration sociology and social anthropology political science European integration and European studies political science and public administration Research Handbook on Irregular Migration Ilse van Liempt, Joris Schapendonk, Amalia Campos-Delgado, 2023-03-02 Moving away from state categorizations on irregular migration this Research Handbook critically examines processes and dynamics that generate and reproduce irregularity and discusses who may count as an irregular migrant Strategic Affection? Irma Thoen, 2007 Since the early days of humanity gifts as varied as valued objects hospitality and works of art have been an essential means of establishing and maintaining social ties Strategic Affection studies the exchange of gifts in order to explore the nature of seventeenth century Dutch social relations Looking at such widely divergent figures as schoolmasters artisans poets and nobles Irma Thoen compares seventeenth century Dutch gifts with contemporary gift exchanges to show that both strategy and affection are necessary elements of any social relations and that what changes most is not the system but the discourse of exchange Policing Non-Citizens Leanne Weber, 2013-09-11 Criminologists are increasingly turning their attention to the many points of intersection between immigration and crime control This book discusses the detection of unlawful non citizens as a distinct form of policing which is impacting on a growing range of agencies and sections of society It constitutes an important contribution not only to the literature on policing but also to the field of border control studies within criminology Drawing on the work of Clifford Shearing Ian Loader and P A J Waddington it offers new theoretical approaches to the study of police powers and practice Navigating Borders Ilse van Liempt,2007 A fascinating study provides an inside perspective into human smuggling processes Crime, Punishment and Migration Dario Melossi,2015-08-18 In the globalized world an extensive process of international migration has developed The resulting conundrum of issues when examining crime and migration makes for a bitterly complex and intriguing set of debates In this compelling account Dario Melossi provides an authoritative take on the theory and research examining the connection of crime migration and punishment Through a socio historical and criminological approach he shows that the core questions of migrants criminal behaviour are tightly related to the rules and practices of migrants reception within the various countries social and normative structures Written for students academics researchers and activists with an interest in the topic the book will appeal to individuals in a range of disciplines from criminology and sociology to politics international relations ethnic studies geography social policy and development Compact Criminology is an exciting series that invigorates and challenges the international field of criminology Books in the series are short authoritative innovative assessments of emerging issues in criminology and criminal justice offering critical accessible introductions to important topics They take a global rather than a narrowly national approach Eminently readable and first rate in quality each book is written by a leading specialist Compact Criminology provides a new type of tool for teaching learning and research one that is flexible and light on its feet The series addresses fundamental needs in the growing and increasingly differentiated field of criminology Immigration And Criminal Law in the European Union Elspeth Guild,P. Paul E. Minderhoud,2006 This book provides a clear picture of the issues of legal and social legitimacy which surround criminal measures relating to trafficking in human beings in six Member States and the EU It includes and explains the legal nature of the types of measures which have been adopted and the presentation of criminal sanctions and the positions taken by key actors in civil society Race, Criminal Justice, and Migration Control Mary Bosworth,Alpa Parmar,Yolanda Vázquez,2018-01-12 The criminalization of migration is heavily patterned by race By placing race at the centre of its analysis this volume examines questions and explains the growing intersection between criminal justice and migration control Through the lens of race we see how criminal justice and migration enmesh in order to exclude stop and excise racialized citizens and non citizens from societies across the world within beyond and along borders Race and the meaning of race in relation to citizenship and belonging is excavated through the chapters presented in the book and the book as a whole thereby transforming the way we think about migration Neatly organized in four sections the book begins with chapters that present a conceptual analysis of race borders and social control moving to the institutions that make up and shape the criminal justice and migration complex The remaining chapters are convened around the key sites where criminal justice and migration control intersect policing courts and punishment Together the volume presents a critical and timely analysis of how race shapes and complicates mobility and how racism is enabled and reanimated when criminal justice and migration control coalesce Migration and the New Technological Borders of Europe H. Dijstelbloem, A. Meijer, 2011-02-01 European borders that aim to control migration and mobility increasingly rely on technology to distinguish between citizens and aliens This book explores new tensions in Europe between states and citizens and between politics technology and human rights Immigration Policy in Europe Virginie Guiraudon, Gallya Lahav, 2006-11-09 Previously published as a special issue of West European Politics this edited volume evaluates the extent to which a policy gap between inputs and outcomes exists with regard to immigration control In exploring an expanded migration policy field which includes the extreme right the media and actors this book goes beyond traditional analyses that focus on classical moments of policy making and instead seeks to understand the normative and cognitive context in which they operate Taking into account the recent work of migration scholars into variants of the disjuncture theme the comparative studies also highlight the variations across time countries regions and sectors The international list of contributors discuss refugee protection asylum and illegal migration in chapters that fall under three subject areas formulating policy implementing policy international policy making Immigration Policy in Europe will be of great interest to students and scholars of European studies and British politics

Delivering Justice to Non-Citizens Eleonora Di Molfetta, 2024-04-30 How does justice for non citizens look like This book provides a nuanced cross section of how criminal courts deliver justice to non citizens investigating rationales and purposes of penal power directed at foreign defendants It examines how lack of citizenship alters the contours of justice creating a different system oriented at control and exclusion of non members Drawing on ethnographic research in an Italian criminal court the book details how citizenship and national belonging not only matter but are matters reproduced elaborated and negotiated throughout the judicial process exploring the implications of this development for the understanding of penal power and the role of criminal courts Set in the context of the growing intersection between migration control and penal power Delivering Justice to Non Citizens explores whether and how instances of border control have seeped into judicial practices In doing so it fills a significant gap in the scholarship on border criminology by considering a rather unexplored actor in the field of migration studies criminal courts Based on a year of courtroom ethnography in Turin Delivering Justice to Non Citizens relies on interviews with courtroom actors courthouse observations analysis of court files together with local media analysis to provide a vivid image of judicial practices towards foreign defendants in a medium size criminal court It considers and balances the distinctive traits of the local context with ongoing global processes and transformations and adds much needed insights into how global processes impact local realities and how the local in turn adjusts to global challenges Through instances of everyday justice the book calls attention to how migration control has silently seeped into the judicial realm The book will be of interest to students and academics in sociology criminology law penology and migration studies It will also be an important reading for legal practitioners magistrates and other law enforcement authorities Conflicting Commitments Shannon Gleeson, 2012-10-05 In Conflicting Commitments Shannon Gleeson goes beyond the debate over federal immigration policy to examine the complicated terrain of immigrant worker rights. Federal law requires that basic labor standards apply to all workers yet this principle clashes with increasingly restrictive immigration laws and creates a confusing bureaucratic terrain for local policymakers and labor advocates. Gleeson examines this issue in two of the largest immigrant gateways in the country: San Jose, California and Houston, Texas. Conflicting Commitments reveals two cities with very different approaches to addressing the exploitation of immigrant workers, both involving the strategic coordination of a range of bureaucratic brokers but in strikingly different ways. Drawing on the real-life accounts of ordinary workers, federal, state, and local government officials, community organizers, and consular staff, Gleeson argues that local political contexts matter for protecting undocumented workers in particular. Providing a rich description of the bureaucratic minefields of labor law and the explosive politics of immigrant rights, Gleeson shows how the lessons learned from San Jose and Houston can inform models for upholding labor and human rights in the United States.

Alternative Criminologies Pat Carlen, Leandro Ayres França, 2017-08-10 Alternative Criminologies celebrates a kaleidoscopic process of permanent critique and a diversity of social and scientific knowledges. It examines complex and global crime issues in light of the many alternative scientific, artistic, empathetic, campaigning, and otherwise imaginative criminologies that attempt to understand and/or fundamentally change why crime and justice take the forms they do. From cutting-edge topics such as crimes against humanity, the criminology of mobility, terrorism, cybercrime, corporate crime, and green criminology to gendered perspectives on violence against women, sexualities, and feminist and queer criminologies to key issues in penology such as mass incarceration, the death penalty, desistance from crime, risk, and the political economy of punishment, Alternative Criminologies demonstrates the breadth, the variety, and the vibrancy of contemporary perspectives on crime, criminalization, and punishment. Bringing together 34 leading experts from around the world, this international collection unites fresh and insightful theoretical positions with innovative empirical research and marks an important juncture for criminologies and their imagined futures. Alternative Criminologies is essential reading for students of crime and criminal justice.

Offshore Citizens Noora Lori, 2019-08-22 This study of citizenship and migration policies in the Gulf shows how temporary residency can become a permanent citizenship status.

Illegal Migration and Gender in a Global and Historical Perspective Marlou Schrover, 2008 This incisive study combines the two subjects and views the migration scholarship through the lens of the gender perspective.

Africans and the Exiled Life Sabella Ogbobode Abidde, Brenda Ingrid Gill, 2018-01-12 Since their early beginning in Africa as foragers, hunters, and gatherers, humans have been on the move. In modern times, their movements have been compelled by geographical, economic, political, cultural, social, and personal reasons. However, beginning in the second half of the twentieth century and into the twenty-first century, their reasons for and pattern of migration have been largely influenced by globalization. Globalization, by its very nature, cuts across virtually every aspect of the human life and human society And especially in the United States African immigrants are subject to the undercurrents of globalization particularly in the areas of culture religion interpersonal relationships and the assimilation and acculturation process Relying on the vast theoretical and practical experience of academics and public intellectuals across three continents this book succinctly interrogates some of the pull push factors of migration the challenges of globalizing forces and the daily reality of relocation The everyday reality and experiences of blacks in the diaspora Latin America Caribbean and Europe are also part of the discourse and the subject matters are approached from different perspectives and paradigms Africans and the Exiled Life therefore is a compelling and rich addition to the ongoing global debate and understanding of migration and exile The

Routledge Handbook on Crime and International Migration Sharon Pickering, Julie Ham, 2017-07-14 The Routledge Handbook on Crime and International Migration is concerned with the various relationships between migration crime and victimization that have informed a wide criminological scholarship often driven by some of the original lines of inquiry of the Chicago School Historically migration and crime came to be the device by which Criminology and cognate fields sought to tackle issues of race and ethnicity often in highly problematic ways However in the contemporary period this body of scholarship is inspiring scholars to produce significant evidence that speaks to some of the biggest public policy questions and debunks many dominant mythologies around the criminality of migrants The Routledge Handbook on Crime and International Migration is also concerned with the theoretical empirical and policy knots found in the relationship between regular and irregular migration offending and victimization the processes and impact of criminalization and the changing role of criminal justice systems in the regulation and enforcement of international mobility and borders The Handbook is focused on the migratory fault lines between the Global North and Global South which have produced new or accelerated sites of state control constructed irregular migration as a crime and security problem and mobilized ideological and coercive powers usually reserved for criminal or military threats Offering a strong international focus and comprehensive coverage of a wide range of border criminal justice and migration related issues this book is an important contribution to criminology and migration studies and will be essential reading for academics students and practitioners interested in this field Looking for Loopholes Joanne Pauline Leun, 2001
