Margins Of Belonging Essays On The New Testament And Theology:

Margins of Belonging William A. Beardslee, 1991 The Gospel of Matthew and the Sayings Source Q Frans Neirynck, 1998 The New Literary Criticism and the New Testament Elizabeth Struthers Malbon, Edgar V. McKnight, 1994-10-01 This publication presents the rich variety of critical methodologies in contemporary literary study of the New Testament The tradition of study represented in the essays lies at the conjunction of developments in biblical studies and literary criticism 1 the exhaustion of New Testament historical criticism in general and redaction criticism in particular 2 the waning of Formalist New Critical approaches in literary study and 3 the emphasis upon the text in terms of language and discourse as the free play of signifiers The essays deal with theory exegesis and their interdependence in this new literary context However contributions of earlier epochs in the history of literary criticism and New Testament study are integrated into current approaches For example the issue of reference originating in the mimetic theories of classical antiquity is raised implicitly and explicitly Implications of literary study for theology are suggested The relationship between redaction critical and literary approaches is examined Theoretical and exegetical essays growing out of feminist literary study are offered Orality allegory deconstruction ideology sociological criticism rhetorical criticism narrative criticism as well as other themes and methods are discussed in the essays treatment of writings of the New Testament A rich variety of critical methodologies in contemporary literary study of the New Testament Jewish Theology and Process Thought Sandra B. Lubarsky, David Ray Griffin, 2012-02-01 This collection constitutes the first extended discussion of the relationship between Judaism and process thought In the last half century the philosophies of Alfred North Whitehead and Charles Hartshorne have become important sources for contemporary theological reflection Recently a number of Jewish thinkers have examined process thought as a potentially valuable resource for postmodern Jewish theology This book brings together many Jewish thinkers who have pioneered this discussion Jewish thinkers who have found process thought to be a useful framework for contemporary Jewish thought discuss issues that are primarily theological such as God's transcendence and immanence the problem of evil the idea of revelation Also included is a dialogue between Jewish and Christian thinkers on the appropriateness of process thought for their religious traditions Critical reflection on the continuities and discontinuities between Judaism and the process model is also covered Margins of Belonging William A. Beardslee, 1991 Interfigural Readings of the Gospel of John Ingrid Rosa Kitzberger, 2019-11-20 New and challenging readings of biblical characters This volume of collected essays introduces the concept of interfigurality the interrelations and interdependence between characters in the Gospel of John and in the Synoptic Gospels and the Hebrew Bible The essays are informed by a narrative critical reader response post feminist hermeneutics and an autobiographical approach to biblical texts This volume encourages transformative encounters between present day readers and the ancient biblical texts Features Previously unpublished conference papers and published essays A new perspective on the relation between New Testament and Hebrew

Bible Foreword by Fernando F Segovia Ingrid Rosa Kitzberger is an independent scholar and the author of Transformative Encounters Jesus and Women Reviewed 1999 and the editor of The Personal Voice in Biblical Interpretation 1998 and Autobiographical Biblical Criticism Between Text and Self 2002 To Each Its Own Meaning Stephen R. Haynes, Steven L. McKenzie, 1999-01-01 This volume introduces the reader to the most important methods of biblical criticism It serves as an indispensable handbook for the work of students approaching biblical studies for the first time and for the professional interpreter of scripture who wants to understand the latest currents in biblical scholarship The Discipleship Paradigm David Beck, 2021-11-15 This volume examines the Fourth Gospel narrative in terms of its character portrayal especially the portrayal of anonymous characters It focuses on how characterization impacts readers eliciting their involvement in the narrative particularly the recognition of and response to Jesus identity and how anonymity facilitates that participation The first chapters examine the understanding of characterization in contemporary literary theory then the author explores other contemporaneous narratives for the function of anonymous characters in those narratives The final chapters examine specific character portrayals in the Fourth Gospel demonstrating how the narratives of anonymous characters draw the reader into participation in the narrative and enables identification with those characters especially the disciple Jesus loved the Johannine paradigm of discipleship Cross-bearing in Luke Sverre Bøe, 2010 Luke records twice how Jesus called on people to take up or carry their crosses He also reports how Simon of Cyrene carried Jesus cross behind Jesus No metaphorical uses of the well known phenomenon of cross bearing were confirmed in any language prior to the Gospels The idiom was also unknown in Semitic languages What did a call to become a voluntary cross bearer sound like before the cross became kitsch In Luke s Gospel cross bearing is connected with self denial and hating one s family Not only the disciples but all are called on to take up their crosses Since cross bearing is a daily duty it can hardly refer to martyrdom and cannot be linked to imitation Sverre Boe argues that the cross signifies death through radical self denial but not as ascetic exercises His book includes a survey of the history of scholarship on the five Synoptic texts of cross bearing American Journal of Theology & Philosophy , 1993 The Quest for Context and Meaning Talmon, Craig A. Evans, 2021-11-15 This collection of studies is published in honor of Professor James A Sanders a leading scholar in the fields of the canon of Scripture textual criticism and the relationship of the two Testaments Contributors include leading scholars in these and related fields of study The studies investigate in what ways the early sacred tradition was interpreted and how this tradition takes new shape in the Jewish and Christian communities of faith Included are studies of Jesus understanding of Scripture Paul s interpretation of Scripture and the ways in which Scripture was interpreted by the Rabbis In many instances novel interpretations and new approaches to old problems are offered Advanced students and veteran scholars will enjoy the many insights and provocative new ideas Processing Reality John H. Buchanan, 2022-10-27 In this book John Buchanan takes us on a journey through the early death of a parent the ups and downs of addiction the extraordinary revelations of psychedelic experiences and the rewards of a sober and meaningful life Reflecting on these experiences the author identifies five pivotal events that drove him to seek a deeper understanding of the significance of extraordinary experiences the nature of mind and the universe the meaning of life and most generally to ask What is Reality Drawing on his wide ranging studies and explorations Buchanan discusses the ideas that most influenced his search and led him to conclude that transpersonal psychology and process philosophy especially as developed by Stanislav Grof and Alfred North Whitehead offer the most satisfying answers He presents in some detail the essence of Grof s and Whitehead s thought as it pertains to these basic questions about life and reality so that readers can appreciate these ideas for themselves Buchanan argues that taken together process thought and transpersonal theory offer the kind of enspirited worldview capable of providing both the necessary inspiration and the intellectual understanding for confronting the great challenges facing our world

The Catholic Biblical Quarterly
Wendell Stephen Reilly,1992 Includes various reports of the Association New Testament Abstracts ,1992 The Gospel of Mark ,1992 AAR/SBL Annual Meeting Program American Academy of Religion. Meeting,1991 New Testament Story David L. Barr,1995 The thesis of this book is that every New Testament writing stands within a story even if it does not tell stories The approach allows readers to view the documents as vital elements in the lives of real persons The book maintains its focus on bringing the writings alive and shows how critical study enhances understanding of their meanings Its prime goal is teaching students to read these writings for themselves bridging the chasms of language history and culture that separate them from us The latest methods of research are utilized in this quest but the focus always remains on the New Testament documents

A Pastoral Approach for the Journey of Healing and Wholeness Through Sharing One's Latvian Grief Story Ruth Sonia Ziedonis,1997 Author explores the benfits of telling grief stories to arrive at self acceptance and acceptance of others Subject Guide to Children's Books in Print 1997 Bowker Editorial Staff,R R Bowker Publishing,1996-09 Paperbound Books in Print 1995 Reed Reference Publishing,R5ference Reed,1995-12
