New Homes In A New Land:

New Homes in a New Land Ethel Hander Geue, 2009-06 This work is essentially a compilation of information gleaned from the passenger lists of ships that arrived at Galveston between the years 1847 and 1861 It is also the story of the German immigration to Texas during this formative period of Texas history HC 289 - Disposal of Public Land for New Homes Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons. Committee of Public Accounts, 2015 The Department for Communities and Local Government cannot demonstrate the success of the land disposal programme in addressing the housing shortage or achieving value for money because it does not collect information on the actual number of houses built or under construction the proceeds from land sold or whether the parcels of land were sold at market value Instead it chose to focus only on a notional number for potential capacity for building houses on the land sold by individual departments in order to determine success The Department also counted towards the programme's target the capacity of land sold before the programme had even started It did not collect basic information necessary to oversee the programme effectively and where it did collect programme level data there were omissions and inconsistencies With much greater ambitions for land disposals in the new Parliament the Department must address the weaknesses in the current programme and the Department has accepted that it needs to improve its general monitoring If it is to oversee the new programme effectively then this must specifically include tracking sale proceeds and progress with the actual construction of new homes and overseeing the programme in a way that gives Parliament and the taxpayer much greater assurance over the value for money achieved from all disposals

Delivering New Homes Nick Gallent, Sarah Carmona, 2003-09-02 This book examines the processes and relationships that underpin the delivery of new homes across the United Kingdom focussing primarily on the land use planning system in England the way that housing providers engage with that system and how the processes of engagement are changing or might change in the future Planning market and social house building the three key processes are first dissected and explored individually then brought together to study the key areas of interaction between planning and the providers of social and market housing by way of the range of tensions that have consistently dogged those interactions Extensive illustrative case study material provides a platform to the consideration of developing more integrated realistic and proactive approaches to planning Proposing evolutionary and sometimes radical proposals for change Delivering New Homes makes a bold contribution to finding a better way of delivering the new homes that the nation increasingly needs The New Land Rush Barrett Williams, ChatGPT, 2025-05-08 Unlock the door to the next frontier of real estate with The New Land Rush your essential guide to the groundbreaking world of NFTs and property Dive deep into a revolutionary synergy that is reshaping the landscape of both virtual and physical real estate Begin your journey with a foundational understanding of NFTs and their pivotal role in future real estate transactions Explore how digital assets and blockchain technology are driving a new era for property ownership Discover the appeal of virtual real estate platforms such as Decentraland Cryptovoxels and

New Homes for the Old Country George S. Baden-Powell, 2023-06-12 Reprint of the original first published in 1872 The publishing house Anatiposi publishes historical books as reprints Due to their age these books may have missing pages or inferior quality Our aim is to preserve these books and make them available to the public so that they do not get lost A New Land Law Peter Sparkes, 2003-08-05 Peter Sparkes path breaking text on land law has been rewritten with two aims in mind to incorporate the seismic changes introduced by the Land Registration Act 2002 along with commonholds the explosion of human rights jurisprudence and the unremitting advance of judicial exposition and to accommodate the author's developing thinking on the structural aspects of the subject The book opens with a series of shorter chapters each exploring a fundamental building block registration houses flats and commonholds land ownership and its transactional powers social controls balanced by human rights to property fragmentation by time the doctrine of estates divisions of ownership and proprietary rights In terms of substantive chapters the book opens with discussion of the new transfer system paper based transfer alongside the evolution towards electronic conveyancing and the consequent changes to the proof of registered titles and to the registration curtain The new approach to adverse possession against registered titles has called for extended discussion as has the authoritative elucidation of the concept of adverse possession in Pye In terms of proprietary interests the fundamentals are seen as rights to transfer beneficial interests under trusts which are overreachable burdens which are endurable leases money charges such as mortgages which are redeemable and the obligations enforceable within the neighbour principle easements covenants and positive covenants being treated as a semi coherent whole An attempt has been made to assist students by moving some of the more arcane learning later into the book or into separate chapters where these matters might be more readily ignored by a candidate concerned primarily to prepare for an examination A massive amount of research and scholarship has gone into the book with impressive citation of cases articles and case notes and of other text books This newcomer on the scene is a considerable addition to the ranks of serious text books on land law and the author is to be congratulated The New Law Journal The scope of this work is ambitious it is a bold attempt to take the study of land law forward much more than a basic land law text book it would be a pleasure to be able to teach a course requiring students to cover the substance or the bulk of it whether in one or more modules a difficult blend of background and history massive referencing discussion of statute and case law all wrapped up in a text that is not too difficult to absorb The Law Teacher A most interesting and ground breaking book Michael Cardwell University of Leeds At last a brilliant land law book I think the approach is marvellous and will strongly recommend it to my students Keith Gompertz University of Central England takes a more modern approach to the area I am very impressed with the style layout and format It will be a good teaching tool and I am looking forward to using it Alison Dunn Newcastle Law School not baffling in the way land law texts tend to be Helen Taylor University of Teesside Excellent Professor Edward Burn City University School Life ,1933
