Consciousness and the Neoliberal Subject Jon Bailes, 2020-04-08 Consciousness and the Neoliberal Subject outlines a theory of ideological function and a range of ideological positions according to which individuals rationalise and accept socio economic conditions in advanced consumer capitalist societies Through a critical examination of the social and psychoanalytic theories of Herbert Marcuse Fredric Jameson and Slavoj Žižek the author extends the understanding of ideology to consider not only the unconscious attachment to social relations but also the importance of conscious rationalisation in sustaining ideologies In this way the book defines different ideologies today in terms of the manner in which they conditionally internalise a dominant neoliberal rationality and considers the possibility that entrenched social norms may be challenged directly through conscious engagement It will appeal to scholars of social and political theory with interests in ideology neoliberalism psychoanalytic thought and critical theory

The Routledge Handbook of Critical Pedagogies for Social Work Christine Morley, Phillip Ablett, Carolyn Noble, Stephen Cowden, 2020-01-20 The Routledge Handbook of Critical Pedagogies for Social Work traverses new territory by providing a cutting edge overview of the work of classic and contemporary theorists in a way that expands their application and utility in social work education and practice thus providing a bridge between critical theory philosophy and social work Each chapter showcases the work of a specific critical educational philosophical and or social theorist including Henry Giroux Michel Foucault Cornelius Castoriadis Herbert Marcuse Paulo Freire bell hooks Joan Tronto Iris Marion Young Karl Marx Antonio Gramsci and many others to elucidate the ways in which their key pedagogic concepts can be applied to specific aspects of social work education and practice The text exhibits a range of research based approaches to educating social work practitioners as agents of social change It provides a robust and much needed alternative paradigm to the technique driven conservative revolution currently being fostered by neoliberalism in both social work education and practice The volume will be instructive for social work educators who aim to teach for social change by assisting students to develop counter hegemonic practices of resistance and agency and reflecting on the pedagogic role of social work practice more widely The volume holds relevance for both postgraduate and undergraduate qualifying social work and human services courses around the world

The Marcusean Mind Eduardo Altheman C. Santos, Jina Fast, Nicole K. Mayberry, Sid Simpson, 2024-10-29 Herbert Marcuse 1898 1979 was a member of the Frankfurt School a leading figure of 1960s counterculture and a fundamental character for the New Left His ideas and theories inspired by a rich fusion of Marxian and Freudian thought exert a strong influence on contemporary thinking about activism emancipation and political resistance He was also a student of Martin Heidegger in the late 1920s and engaged deeply with philosophy throughout his career The Marcusean Mind is an outstanding survey and assessment of Marcuse's thought Beginning with a thorough introduction to Marcuse's life and work 39 chapters by an international and interdisciplinary team of contributors are organized into five clear parts Intellectual Ecosystems of Marcuse Reason and Sensibilities Futures and Utopias Contemporary Movements Counterrevolutions Neoliberalism and Fascism These sections each contain a short introduction after which Marcusean ideas are brought to bear on many key contemporary debates and issues across the humanities social sciences and science and technology Including a

Foreword by Craig Calhoun and an Afterword by Douglas Kellner The Marcusean Mind is a superb resource for anyone interested in Marcuse's thought and its legacy It is valuable reading for students of contemporary political theory activism philosophy sociology media and cultural studies critical legal studies and race and gender studies Forms of Fanonism Reiland Rabaka,2010-03-08 When Frantz Fanon's critiques of racism sexism colonialism capitalism and humanism are brought into the ever widening orbit of Africana critical theory something unprecedented in the annals of Africana intellectual history happens five distinct forms of Fanonism emerge Forms of Fanonism Frantz Fanon's Critical Theory and the Dialectics of Decolonization is discursively distinguished from other engagements of Fanon's thought and texts insofar as it is the first study to consciously examine his contributions to Africana Studies and critical theory or rather the Africana tradition of critical theory Forms of Fanonism identifies and intensely analyzes Fanon's contributions to the deconstruction and reconstruction of Africana Studies radical politics and critical social theory In highlighting his unique solutions to the problems of racism sexism colonialism capitalism and humanism five distinct forms of Fanonism materialize These five forms of Fanonism allow contemporary critical theorists to innovatively explore the ways in which his thought and texts can be dialectically put to use in relieving the wretched experience of this generation's wretched of the earth Critics can also apply these forms to deconstruct and reconstruct Africana Studies radical politics and critical social theory using their anti imperialist interests Throughout Forms of Fanonism Reiland Rabaka critically dialogues with Fanon incessantly asking his corpus critical questions and seeking from it crucial answers This book in short solemnly keeps with Fanon's own predilection for connecting critical theory to revolutionary praxis by utilizing his thought and texts as paradigms and points of departure to deepen and develop the Africana tradition of critical theory School Shootings Nils Böckler,Thorsten Seeger,Peter Sitzer,Wilhelm Heitmeyer,2012-12-13 School shootings are a topic of research in a variety of different disciplines from psychology to sociology to criminology pedagogy and public health each with their own set of theories Many of these theories are logically interconnected while some differ widely and seem incompatible with each other leading to divergent results about potential means of prevention In this innovative work leading researchers on the topic of school shootings introduce their findings and theoretical concepts in one combined systematic volume The contributions to this work highlight both the complementary findings from different fields as well as cases where they diverge or contradict each other The work is divided into four main sections an overview of current theoretical approaches and empirical models application of these theories to international cases including Columbine USA Emsdetten Germany and Tuusula Finland a critique of the influence of the media both in the portrayals of past events and its effect on future events and finally an overview of existing models for prevention and intervention and measures of their success The result is a comprehensive source for current research on school shootings and will provide a direction for future research Spontaneous Combustion Jason Del Gandio,AK Thompson,2017-08-28 From the events of May 1968 to the Arab Spring and Occupy we have seen social movements develop spontaneously around the globe propelling thousands and at times millions of people into the streets to demand an end to oppression In order to make sense of such events the authors draw on George Katsiaficas's conception of the eros effect which picks up and takes off from concepts developed by Herbert Marcuse This effect describes moments in which the instinctual human need for justice and freedom undergoes a massive spontaneous awakening Drawing on Marcuse the concept foregrounds the instinctual foundation of the desire for freedom in which a biologically based pleasure drive eros is given free play from the Foreword by Peter Marcuse However even as the eros effect provides a valuable framework for understanding spontaneous global uprisings Katsiaficas has acknowledged that the concept has remained underdeveloped Spontaneous Combustion provides an introduction to the eros effect along with a series of elaborations applications and critical rejoinders concerning its implications A truly interdisciplinary venture the book features contributions from cutting edge scholars and activists on the frontlines of today's struggles

Education and the Spirit of Time Olli-Pekka Moisio, Juha Suoranta, 2006 The aim of this book is to raise current social political and moral issues in social theory by taking a critical stance towards historical global and educational themes in the context of culture politics and technology Thus the focus of the book is critical Zeitgeist analysis and its potential in addressing various social maladies of the present era Methodologically critical Zeitgeist analysis is argued to be of value in demonstrating how to both utilize and expand the possibilities of writing normative social theory

Building Sanctuary Jessica Squires, 2013-09-20 Canada enjoys a reputation as a peaceable kingdom and a refuge from militarism Yet Canadians during the Vietnam War era met American war resisters not with open arms but with political obstacles and public resistance and the border remained closed to what were then called draft dodgers and deserters Between 1965 and 1973 a small but active cadre of Canadian antiwar groups and peace activists launched campaigns to open the border Jessica Squires tells their story often in their own words Interviews and government documents reveal that although these groups ultimately met with success in the process shaping Canadian identity and Canada's relationship with the United States they had to overcome state surveillance and resistance from police politicians and bureaucrats Building Sanctuary not only brings to light overlooked links between the anti draft movement and Canadian immigration policy it challenges cherished notions about Canadian identity and Canada in the 1960s

Unis Vers Cythère Josef Chytrý, 2009 Unis vers Cythère forms a continuation of the ongoing project to disseminate a new faculty of thought called cytherics which is defined as the sighting and siting of aphrodisian aesthetic erotic environments The first part of the book proposes polis thought as a subdivision within political theory that would encourage attention to the polis element the openness furnished by the classical polis city for disputation rhetoric performance ceremony and the carnivalesque for political theory and history The second part develops the concept of the artful firm derived from contemporary firm and management theories on the art firm and artful making to argue for further convergences in related areas of aesthetics and management Unis vers Cythère begins and ends with essays on the ancient Hellenic twin concepts of thalassocracy and theatrocracy in their relations to orthodox contemporary theories of political democracy Challenging the Right, Augmenting the Left Robert Latham, 2020-04-08T00:00:00Z What does the future hold for the left How does the left adapt to and prepare for the crises of our time In moments of crisis it is always important to rethink longstanding assumptions jettison wishful thinking and dated ideas and recover wisdom from the past In so doing we have the opportunity to plot a new way forward The authors of this edited collection do just this putting forward a diversity of approaches and issues to strategize for the work that awaits us in the 2020s particularly in the struggle against capitalism climate change and the far right Working within five major thematic areas the contributors examine how to engage working class people in anti capitalist struggles undermine reactionary currents of ethno nationalism while supporting anti colonial movements strategically build power inside and outside the state apparatus demand new forms of resistance to address environmental crises and effectively promote solidarity and ecological responsibility This book provides suggestions for working with popular disaffection taking the rich fragmented conflicted history of refusals and defeats as a starting point for next steps in the struggle against capitalism and the far right rather than as the basis for more conflict or defeatism Critical Theory and Authoritarian Populism Jeremiah Morelock, 2018-12-17 After President Trump's election BREXIT and the widespread rise of far Right political parties much public discussion has intensely focused on populism and authoritarianism In the middle of the twentieth century members of the early Frankfurt School prolifically studied and theorized fascism and anti-Semitism in Germany and the United States In this volume leading European and American scholars apply insights from the early Frankfurt School to present day authoritarian populism including the Trump phenomenon and related developments across the globe Chapters are arranged into three sections exploring different aspects of the topic theories historical foundations and manifestations via social media Contributions examine the vital political psychological and anthropological theories of early Frankfurt School thinkers and how their insights could be applied now amidst the insecurities and confusions of twenty first century life The many theorists considered include Adorno Fromm L. W. and Marcuse alongside analysis of Austrian Facebook pages and Trump's tweets and operative media drama This book is a major contribution towards deeper understanding of populism's resurgence in the age of digital capitalism Late Fascism Alberto Toscano, 2023-10-24 The rich archive of twentieth century debates on fascism can steer a path through an increasingly authoritarian present Developing anti fascist theory is an urgent and vital task From the Great Replacement to campaigns against critical race theory and gender ideology today's global far right is launching lethal panics about the threats to traditional political sexual and racial hierarchies Drawing especially on Black radical and anti colonial theories of fascism Toscano makes clear the limits of associating fascism primarily with the kind of political violence experienced by past European regimes Rather than looking for analogies from history we should see fascism as a mutable process one anchored in racial and colonial capitalism which both predates and survives its crystallization in Mussolini's Italy and Hitler's Germany It is a threat that continues to evolve in the present day The Frankfurt School, Jewish Lives, and Antisemitism Jack Jacobs, Jack Lester Jacobs, 2015 This book explores the ways in which the Jewish backgrounds of leading Frankfurt School Critical Theorists shaped their lives work and ideas Psychedelic Mysticism Morgan Shipley, 2015-11-12 Concerned with scholarly popular and religious backdrops that understand the connection between psychedelics and mystical experiences to be devoid of moral concerns and ethical dimensions a position supported empirically by the rise of acid fascism and psychedelic cults by the late 1960s Psychedelic Mysticism Transforming Consciousness Religious Experiences and Voluntary Peasants in Postwar America traces the development of sixties psychedelic mysticism from the deconditioned mind and perennial philosophy of Aldous Huxley to the sacramental ethics of Timothy Leary Richard Alpert and Ralph Metzner to the altruistic religiosity practiced by Stephen Gaskin and The Farm Building directly off the pioneering psychedelic writing of Huxley these psychedelic mystics understood the height of psychedelic consciousness as an existential awareness of unitive oneness a position that offered worldly alternatives to the maladies associated with the postwar moment e g vapid consumerism and materialism lifeless conformity unremitting racism heightened militarism In opening a doorway to a common world Morgan Shipley locates how psychedelics challenged the coherency of Western modernity by fundamentally reorienting postwar society away from neoliberal ideologies and toward a sacred understanding of reality defined by mutual coexistence and responsible interdependence In 1960s America psychedelics catalyzed a religious awakening defined by compassion expressed through altruism and actualized in projects that sought to ameliorate the conditions of the least advantaged among us In the exact moments that historians and cultural critics often locate as signaling the death knell of the counterculture Gaskin and The Farm emerged not as a response to the perceived failures of the hippies nor as an alternative to sixties politics but in an effort to fulfill the religious obligation to help teach the world how to live more harmoniously Today as we continue to confront issues of socioeconomic inequality entrenched differences widespread violence and the limits of religious pluralism Psychedelic Mysticism serves as a timely reminder of how religion in America can operate as a tool for destabilization and as a means to actively reimagine the very basis of how people relate such a legacy can aid in our own efforts to build a more peaceful sustainable and compassionate world Interrogating Critical Pedagogy Pierre Wilbert Orelus, Rochelle Brock, 2014-11-13 Educators teacher practitioners and social activists have successfully used critical pedagogy as a tool to help marginalized students develop awareness and seek alternative solutions to their poor educational and socioeconomic situations However this theory is often criticized as being mostly dominated by privileged white males bringing issues of race and gender to the forefront This volume provides insight on how critical pedagogy can be helpful to scholars and teachers alike in their analysis of racial gender linguistic and political problems It features a wide range of respected scholars who examine the way and the degree to which critical pedagogy can be used to improve education for students of color women and other marginalized groups Revolting Families Carrie Smith, 2013-10-30 Revolting Families places the literary depiction of familial and intimate relations in 1960s West Germany against the backdrop of public discourse on the political significance of the private sphere Carrie Smith Prei focuses on debut works by German authors considered to be part of the new and black realism movements Dieter Wellershoff Rolf Dieter Brinkmann Gisela Elsner and Renate Rasp Each of the works by these authors uses depictions of neurosis disgust vertigo or violence to elicit a reaction in readers that calls them to political social or ethical action Revolting Families thus extends the concept of negativity which has long been part of post war German philosophical and aesthetic theory to the body in German literature and culture Through an analysis of these texts and of contextual discourse Smith Prei develops a theoretical concept of corporeal negativity that works to provoke socio political engagement with the private sphere
