Oshita,2007-04-20 In Conflict Management in Nigeria Issues and Challenges Dr Oshita O Oshita one of the leading peace researchers in Nigeria interrogates a number of cross cutting issues and challenges that may be encountered in the process of engaging with conflict mitigation in Nigeria He explores the complex issues involved just as he analyses the challenges arising from the political economy of conflict management in Nigeria from historical and contemporary perspectives Conflict and Poverty in Africa Ebenezer Durojaye,Gladys Mirugi-Mukundi,John-Mark Iyi,Usang Maria Assim,2025-02-17 The contributors to this book examine the conceptual issues relating to the link between conflict and poverty as well as presenting case studies of countries often regarded as hot spots for conflict in Africa They also explore the roles of regional and sub regional bodies and institutions in addressing the causes of poverty and mitigating the impacts of conflict on vulnerable and marginalized groups Africa is often regarded as the epicentre of conflicts worldwide Virtually every part of the continent is currently engulfed in one form of conflict or another Beyond the loss of life conflicts have brought untold hardship to millions and have derailed social and economic development on the continent Written by African academics this book is divided into three sections the first of which discusses the factors that fuel conflicts and the nature and impacts of conflicts on vulnerable groups The second section comprises case studies of South Sudan Central African Republic Nigeria Ethiopia South Africa Uganda and Cameroon These countries are representative of the sub regional dynamics of Africa west east central and south reflecting the diversity of the continent The final section examines the role of key institutions and bodies in Africa in mitigating the impact of conflict on the socioeconomic lives of the people in the region Bodies discussed include the African Union Economic Community of West African States Southern African Development Community and the East African Community The book will be an invaluable resource for researchers academics and policymakers working in the areas of law political science human rights peace studies development studies and African studies Inter-ethnic and Religious Conflict Resolution in Nigeria Ernest E. Uwazie,Isaac Olawale Albert,G. N. Uzoigwe,1999-01-01 Since 1982 Nigeria has experienced more than ten large scale ethnic or religious riots in its major cities These violent clashes have wreaked economic political and social havoc caused an enormous number of deaths and injuries and posed serious obstacles to Nigeria s sociopolitical development as well as retarded efforts at nation building The papers collected in this book serve as a critical part of an overall objective to develop and promote mechanisms for the understanding and resolution of ethnic and religious conflicts in Nigeria Both academic and community leaders address various aspects of these conflicts and Uwazie offers several thoughtful options for their successful resolution Inter Ethnic and Religious Conflict Resolution in Nigeria will interest students of African history and current affairs scholars of anthropology and ethnicity studies and those involved in international relations and peace studies

Christian Churches and Nigeria's Political Economy of Oil and Conflict Nkem Emerald Osuigwe, 2014-09-18 The received account on African evangelical Christianity regarding social witness in a section of Western scholarship is that it is anti development and a political Such an account heavily draws from an instrumentalist and functionalist assessment of such Christianity without recourse to its emic perspective Using the case study method this book presents an ethnographic examination of this functionalist reading by investigating describing and analysing evangelical Christian theological and socio political consciousness within the context of oil and conflict in Nigeria s Niger Delta region Adopting approaches from practical theology congregational studies and anthropology of religion the author challenges such a reading using data gathered from three congregations in the region His discourse revolves around answers to the following four critical questions What are the underlying theological issues and beliefs of Nigerian evangelical Christians within the context of oil and conflict What is their prevalent praxis within the context of Nigeria s political economy of oil and conflict How accurate is the received account that African evangelical and fundamentalist Christianity lacks social responsibility and is a political and anti development What would a contextual political theology for Nigeria s political economy of oil look like The theological issues are varied and the prevalent praxis nuanced which then serves as a veritable critique of the claim that African evangelical Christianity lacks social responsibility due to its preoccupation with soul winning Whereas such Christianity places much emphasis on the winning of souls as an expression of its spirituality it is neither oblivious nor indifferent to its socio political milieu Rather it sees such spirituality as a form of political praxis Some of the trajectories of the spirituality include a theology of conversion a theology of prayer and an ethics of crude oil with Total Freedom as the nomenclature for the specific theological perspective offered for Nigeria s political economy of oil While locating this theological perspective within the taxonomy of Liberation Theology the affinity and dissonance between the two are identified

Oil, Environment and Resource Conflicts in Nigeria Augustine Ovuoronye Ikelegbe, 2013 This book presents a critical analysis of how oil and gas exploitation with huge negative impacts on environment development and human security has constructed a disturbing terrain of civil agitation state repression violent conflicts and insecurity within Nigeria Drawing on the nature and content of public policy and corporate social responsibility practices the book interrogates the conflicts communal and regional dimensions in terms of causality dynamics and interventions In presenting strategies and mechanisms for resolving the diverse dimensions of the resource conflicts it charts the way towards sustainable development and conflict transformation two issues which would remain germane to the resource conflict resolution discourse in the specific case of the Niger Delta and beyond Series Politics and Economics in Africa Vol 7

Demystifying the cycle of armed conflicts in Nigeria. A holistic healing approach Joy Alasia, 2016-02-05 Master s Thesis from the year 2015 in the subject Sociology War and Peace Military University of Innsbruck course Peace Security and Conflict Studies language English abstract As stated in the UNESCO preamble Since wars begin in the minds of men it is in the minds of men that the defenses of peace must be constructed This quote is the foundation for this work My thesis demystifies the cycle of armed conflicts in Nigeria I strongly believe that there is a need to positively transform the mindsets and ideologies that drive and fuel violent hostilities At every point in time in Nigeria there is unrest ranging from election violence quest for self determinism or tensions arising from ideological dissonances This thesis investigates what triggers these hostilities and further explores nonviolent grassroots and people oriented conflict transformation approaches The historical cultural and ethno political complexity of Nigeria made this research a big challenge For this study to be concrete I explored some root cause dynamics connected to armed conflicts in Nigeria Obviously armed conflicts are confrontations with the presence and the use of mobile and stationary weapons This is why some scholars and experts argue that without weapons armed conflict will not exist Thus eliminating weapons is the ultimate solution for ending armed conflicts This argument is the brain behind arms embargo treaties such as the ECOWAS Moratorium on Small and Light Weapons and the Bamako Declaration Nigeria ratified both treaties and has further demonstrated commitment in several multilateral disarmament and non proliferation initiatives This nexus between weapons availability and armed conflict is also the driving force behind demobilization and disarmament programs in Nigeria The fundamental question here is despite these acclaimed political and diplomatic endeavors on national regional and international levels why do armed conflicts still exist My thesis unravels this missing puzzle Following this the threefold research questions for this study are as follows 1 What internal and external factors facilitate incessant armed conflicts in Nigeria 2 Why has previous conflict resolution or conflict management mechanisms proved to be ineffective 3 Taking the aforementioned questions into consideration what approaches could be deployed to transform the situation

Pastoralist-Farmer Conflicts in Nigeria Adeola Aderayo Adebajo, 2022-09-26 This book provides an in depth analysis of one of the most persistent and perennial types of conflict in Africa pastoralist farmer conflicts and the linkages with conflict management and resolution vulnerability and displacement government capacity and deficits and the role of local and international governmental and non governmental agencies in the specific Nigerian context Conflict induced displacement generates humanitarian and protection issues particularly when the government is unwilling to carry out its responsibility of protecting the civilians in flight The book fills the intellectual vacuum created on the implications the conflict management mechanisms adopted in resolving pastoralist farmer conflict have on the protection of internally displaced persons IDPs It extensively describes the displacement and associated risks and vulnerabilities of IDPs arising from the conflict and the efforts of the different stakeholders in responding to the protection issues It examines various conflict management mechanisms adopted by stakeholders in resolving pastoralist farmer conflict and how they have affected the protection of IDPs It also elucidates the imperativeness of internally displaced persons involvement in the management resolution processes of pastoralist farmer conflict which will not only impact the resolution of the conflict but also provide opportunity for their issues of protection to be addressed

Nigeria, a Country under Siege Dele

Babalola, Hakeem Onapajo, 2018-06-11 This volume offers a comprehensive assessment of the problem of conflict and its methods of management in Nigeria's contemporary democracy. It represents a compendium of resourceful studies provided by experts on conflict studies from various disciplines across the Social Sciences and Humanities. Such studies are very useful at this crucial point in Nigeria's history as there are currently various national and international efforts to address the scourge of violent conflicts that have caused huge numbers of deaths and displacement of persons. The book will be of particular interest and use to conflict researchers, students, practitioners, and government officials. Insurgency and War in Nigeria Akali Omeni, 2019-12-12 Boko Haram is the major threat to the Nigerian state and has emerged as a destabilizing factor across sub-Saharan Africa. This is now a major focus of global policy making as between 2013 and 2014 insurgency-related deaths in Nigeria exceeded those in Iraq and Afghanistan. This book is the first to focus on the military nature of Boko Haram, the reasons for its success in those specific regions of the Chad basin it operates in, and a detailed history of the Nigerian army's counter-insurgency with whom uniquely the author has spent research time. The book identifies and analyses the battles and skirmishes on the front line as well as unearthing a wider explanation for Boko Haram's military success and the causes of the instability in the region. New Perspectives on the Nigeria-Biafra War Chima J. Korie, 2021-10-13 New Perspectives on the Nigeria-Biafra War No Victor No Vanquished analyzes the continued impact of the Nigeria-Biafra war on the Igbo, the failure of the reconstruction and reconciliation effort in the post-war period, and the politics of exclusion of the memory of the war in public discourse in Nigeria. Furthermore, New Perspectives on the Nigeria-Biafra War explores the resilience of the Igbo people and the different strategies they have employed to preserve the history and memory of Biafra. The contributors argue that the war had important consequences for the socio-political developments in the post-war period, ushering in two differing ideologies: a paternalistic ideology of co-option of the Igbo by the Nigerian state under the false premise of No Victor No Vanquished, and the Igbo commitment to self-preservation on the other. Nigeria's Resource Wars Egodi Uchendu, 2021-03-02 Nigeria's Resource Wars reflects on the diversity of conflicts over access to and allocation of resources in Nigeria. From the devastating effects of crude oil exploration in the Niger Delta to desertification caused by climate change and illegal gold mining in Zamfara, to mention a few, Nigeria faces new dimensions of resource-related struggles. The ravaging effects of these resource conflicts between crop farmers and Fulani herders in Nigeria's Middlebelt and states across Southern Nigeria call for urgent scholarly interventions with the Fulani cattle breeders' onslaught, altering the histories of many Nigerian families through deaths, loss of homes and investments, and permanent physical incapacity. Currently, there is an almost total breakdown of interethnic relations, with political commentators acknowledging that Nigeria has never been so divided as it presently is in its history. The struggles have now degenerated into kidnaps, armed robbery, and incessant targeted and random killings across the country, compounding the already complex problem of insecurity in Nigeria. The chapters in this volume engage with these issues, presenting the different arguments on resource conflicts in

Nigeria They draw insights from similar conflicts in Nigeria's colonial post independence past and events from around the world to proffer possible solutions to resource related confrontations in Africa By offering a collection of different intellectual perspectives on resource conflicts in Nigeria this volume will be an important reference material for understanding the diversity of thought patterns that underpin the struggle and policy approaches towards resolving conflict situations in Africa This volume will be of considerable interest to scholars of Africa researchers in the humanities social sciences and conflict studies and policymakers interested in understanding the resource crisis in Africa

Homeland Security and Terrorism in Nigeria Sheriff Folarin, Abiodun Raufu, Godwyns Agbude, 2024-10-15 As Nigeria grapples with critical homeland security challenges Homeland Security and Terrorism in Nigeria Crises Climate Change and Counterterrorism analyzes these crises to deepen understanding of the Nigerian security dilemma and to seek pathways to a more secure homeland This book examines the nature and dimensions of the security challenges focusing on terrorism and its stranglehold on Nigeria's peaceful existence Leveraging a multi disciplinary approach this study combines a range of perspectives cutting across criminology political science sociology history international relations and strategic studies to dissect the subject and problem Sheriff Folarin Abiodun Raufu Godwyns Agbude and the contributors explore the origins dynamics and character of terrorism in Nigeria They also examine the changing nature of Nigeria's security architecture as well as adaptive coping mechanisms and counterterror measures in the homeland This book is a treasure for strategic and security analysts Nigerian and African security governance scholars political scientists and other students and scholars interested in researching Nigeria

Socio-Cultural and Religious Conflicts and the Future of Nigeria Lotanna Olisaemeka, 2022-12-10 With the prevailing violent conflict situation of our world perpetuated sometimes even in the name of religion humanity today faces extinction To reverse this ugly trend humanity has no choice than to build a society where every tribe and tongue can coexist in peace This work analyzed the violent conflicts from anthropological behavioral politico philosophical and theological perspectives and makes a demand on humanity to save herself through proper education and dialogue with all men and religions Lotanna Olisaemeka is a researcher in Missiology affiliated with the Philosophisch Theologische Hochschule Vallendar Germany

The Nigeria-Biafra War, OAU and the Politics of Diplomatic Recognition of Biafra, 1967 - 1970 Nwobi Obiora Isaac, A historical methodology of analysis that is thematic chronological and descriptive was adopted in this study of the Nigeria Biafra war of 1967 1970 particular regarding the Organization of African Unity OAU and the Politics of Recognition given to Biafra during the Civil War The focus of this book is to unearth the factors that propelled the four African states to declare support and accord de facto recognition to the Biafran regime against the OAU's position The nature dimension significance and the implications of such recognition were also analyzed The title of the work is not only interesting but inviting It spans across the diverse disciplines of History International Relations Political Science and International Law The results indicate as follows i Diplomatic recognition of Biafra by four African state became an elixir to the prolongation of the Nigeria Biafra war ii The credibility of the Organization of African Unity OAU appeared severely tarnished given the contradictions inherent in its charter vis a vis the national interests and dispositions of some of its member nations iii Nigeria s insistence that the conflict was its internal affairs also presented another contradiction as by so doing Nigeria purported to be a judge in its own cause by way of adjudication and negotiations iv The blockade and quarantine of Biafran territory meant to emasculate the economy and society of the secessionist enclave inadvertently succeeded in galvanizing international sympathy for the Biafran cause besides giving a lie to the aforementioned mantra of Nigeria s internal affairs as mentioned earlier v Despite the enormous humanitarian question raised and sustained by the war power politics and international realist perspective prevailed at the end

Ethnic Militias and the Threat to Democracy in Post-transition Nigeria Osita Agbu, 2004 The democratic opening presented by Nigeria s successful transition to civil rule June 1998 to May 1999 unleashed a host of hitherto repressed or dormant political forces Unfortunately it has become increasingly difficult to differentiate between genuine demands by these forces on the state and outright criminality and mayhem Post transition Nigeria is experiencing the proliferation of ethnic militia movements purportedly representing and seeking to protect their ethnic interests in a country which appears incapable of providing the basic welfare needs of its citizens It is against the background of collective disenchantment with the Nigerian state and the resurgence of ethnic identity politics that this research interrogates the growing challenge posed by ethnic militias to the Nigerian democracy project The central thesis is that the over centralization of power in Nigeria s federal practice and the failure of post transitional politics in genuinely addressing the National Question has resulted in the emergence of ethnic militias as a specific response to state incapacity The short and long term threats posed by this development to Nigeria s fragile democracy are real and justify the call for a National Conference that will comprehensively address the demands of the ethnic nationalities

Humanitarian Displacement and Boko Haram in Nigeria Medinat Abdulazeez Malefakis, 2022-05-11 The book analyses the management of the internal displacement caused by activities of Boko Haram s terrorist insurgency in Nigeria With over 3.1m persons displaced the humanitarian crisis is at teeter ends with acute malnourishment inadequate wash and non relief materials improper hygiene facilities and lack of access to basic relief aid for displaced persons The array of humanitarian organisations belies the concrete living conditions of displaced persons and calls to question the huge resources assumed to be expended on managing the humanitarian crisis in the northeast of Nigeria and the Lake Chad Basin in general Based on ethnographic research in IDP camps the book chronicles the concrete living conditions of displaced persons and argues that IDPs in Northeastern Nigeria have been victimised first by Boko Haram s terrorism and then victimised again by inefficient un coordinated and unsuitable displacement management programs This book also explicate the roles played by the Nigerian government and international aid agencies in managing this displacement vis vis a comparative analysis of similar but better managed displacement situations in Kenya Lebanon and Turkey
