Nigerian Diplomatic Practice The A Guide First Revision Nigerian Diplomacy:

The Nigerian Diplomatic Practice Udo Moses Williams, 2005-05-01 The NIGERIAN DIPLOMATIC PRACTICE A GUIDE FIRST REVISION is a revision of the recount of the author's impression of the diplomatic norms practiced in the Nigerian Foreign Service during his experience spanning over twenty years which was published in 2004. The book covers the structure, functions and operations of the foreign ministry and the foreign missions which are presented as veritable extensions of the mechanism for the formulation and implementation of Nigeria's foreign policy. Other issues include bilateral agreements which are veritable tools for the implementation of Nigeria's foreign policy, staff relationships in the foreign missions, hospitality and entertainment, diplomatic correspondence and temporary or permanent closure of diplomatic missions among others which are important aspects of diplomatic practice. Brazil has taken charge of the UN military mission in Haiti; Nigeria has deployed peacekeeping troops throughout West Africa; Indonesians have assumed crucial roles in UN Afghanistan operations; Fijians, South Africans and Chileans have become essential actors in global mercenary firms; Venezuela and its Bolivarian allies have established a framework for revolutionary humanitarian interventions; and Turkey, India, Kenya and Egypt are asserting themselves in bold new ways on the global stage. In this context, this collection sheds critical light on intersections between imperialism and humanitarianism, between neoliberal globalization and rescue industry, transnationalism and between patterns of geopolitical hegemony and trajectories of peacekeeping internationalism. These case studies are grouped into three clusters: I Globalizing Peacekeeper Identities, II Assertive Regional Internationalisms and III Emergent Alternative Paradigms. Together, these articulate a new research agenda and offer significant contributions to fields of global studies transnational gender and race studies critical security studies and peace studies comparative politics police and military sociology Third World diplomatic history and international relations This book was published as a special issue of Globalizations Military Review ,2009 Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists ,1972-09 The Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists is the premier public resource on scientific and technological developments that impact global security Founded by Manhattan Project Scientists the Bulletin s iconic Doomsday Clock stimulates solutions for a safer world Examining Human Rights Issues and the Democracy Project in Sub-Saharan Africa E.
