Ennio Morricone Alessandro De Rosa, 2019-02-01 Master composer Ennio Morricone's scores go hand in hand with the idea of the Western film. Often considered the world's greatest living film composer and most widely known for his innovative scores to The Good, the Bad and the Ugly and the other Sergio Leone's movies The Mission, Cinema Paradiso and more recently The Hateful Eight, Morricone has spent the past 60 years reinventing the sound of cinema. In Ennio Morricone In His Own Words, composers Ennio Morricone and Alessandro De Rosa present a years-long discussion of life, music and the marvelous and unpredictable ways that the two come into contact with and influence each other. The result is what Morricone himself defines beyond a shadow of a doubt: the best book ever written about me, the most authentic, the most detailed and well-curated. The truest opening for the first time the door of his creative laboratory, Morricone offers an exhaustive and rich account of his life from his early years of study to genre-defining collaborations with the most important Italian and international directors including Leone, Bertolucci, Pasolini, Argento, Tornatore, Malick, Carpenter, Stone, Nichols, De Palma, Beatty, Levinson, Almodóvar, Polanski and Tarantino. In the process, Morricone unveils the curious relationship that links music and images in cinema as well as the creative urgency at the foundation of his experimentations with absolute music. Throughout these conversations with De Rosa, Morricone dispenses invaluable insights not only on composing but also on the broader process of adaptation and what it means to be human. As he reminds us, coming into contact with memories doesn't only entail the melancholy of something that slips away with time but also looking forward, understanding who I am now and who knows what else may still happen. The Encyclopedia of Italian Literary Studies is a two-volume reference book containing some 600 entries on all aspects of Italian literary culture. It includes analytical essays on authors and works from the most important figures of Italian literature to little-known authors and works that are influential to the field. The Encyclopedia is distinguished by substantial articles on critics, themes, genres, schools, historical surveys and other topics related to the overall subject of Italian literary studies. The Encyclopedia also includes writers and subjects of contemporary interest such as those relating to journalism, film, media, children's literature, food and vernacular literatures. Entries consist of an essay on the topic and a bibliographic portion listing works for further reading and, in the case of entries on individuals, a brief biographical paragraph and list of works by the person. It will be useful to people without specialized knowledge of Italian literature as well as to scholars. Italian

Women and the City Janet Levarie Smarr, Daria Valentini, 2003 Studies of the city and of women's experiences of the city have focused primarily on modern times, especially as modernism was defined in large part by urban life. Italy, however, has a long history of urban-centered culture and women have been a vocal part of that culture since the Renaissance. This volume therefore looks at the art and literature of both earlier and more modern periods to investigate the meanings of the city for Italian women, the intensely gendered meanings for both sexes of those city spaces that excluded women and the conditions that permitted a limited permeability of gendered boundaries Two aspects to the combination of women and city are salient to these investigations One involves their metaphorical relationship Urbs citta ville the words for city tend to be grammatically feminine and a long tradition of representation associates the city with a woman Women especially writers could exploit modify or resist the prevailing uses of such metaphors The second aspect of connection involves social realities What was or is the relation of the female city with the real women who inhabit it What kind of site has it provided for women seeking a satisfying life for themselves How has art and literature by men and by women represented the relationship of female persons or characters to urban spaces Encyclopedia of Italian Literary Studies: A-J Gaetana Marrone,2007

The Legacy of World War II in European Arthouse Cinema Sam Deighan, 2021-06-11 World War II irrevocably shaped culture and much of cinema in the 20th century thanks to its devastating global impact that changed the way we think about and portray war This book focuses on European war films made about the war between 1945 and 1985 in countries that were occupied or invaded by the Nazis such as Poland France Italy the Soviet Union and Germany itself Many of these films were banned censored or sharply criticized at the time of their release for the radical ways they reframed the war and rejected the mythologizing of war experience as a heroic battle between the forces of good and evil The particular films examined made by arthouse directors like Pier Paolo Pasolini Rainer Werner Fassbinder and Larisa Shepitko among many more deviate from mainstream cinematic depictions of the war and instead present viewpoints and experiences of WWII which are often controversial or transgressive They explore the often complicated ways that participation in war and genocide shapes national identity and the ways that we think about bodies and sexuality trauma violence power justice and personal responsibility themes that continue to resonate throughout culture and global politics Dizionario del cinema italiano :

dialect poetry drama and narrative prose since the codification of the Tuscan literary language in the early sixteenth century when writing in dialect became a deliberate and conscious alternative to the official literary standard The book offers a panorama of the literary dialects of Italy over five centuries and across the country's regions shedding light on a profoundly plurilingual and polycentric civilization As a guide to reading and research it provides a compendium of literary sources in dialect arranged by region and accompanied by syntheses of regional traditions with selected textual illustrations A work of extraordinary importance The Other Italy was awarded the Modern Language Association of America's Aldo and Jean Scaglione Publication Award for a Manuscript in Italian Literary Studies It will serve scholars as an indispensable resource book for years to come
