Michael Brown

Poets Notebook Excerpts From The Notebooks Of 26 American Poets:

The Poetic Eye: Occasional Writings 1982-2012 Michael Sharkey, 2016-11-07 This volume contains a selection of the Australian poet Michael Sharkey's uncollected essays and occasional writings on poetics and poets chiefly Australian and New Zealand. Reviews and conversations with other poets highlight Sharkey's concern with preserving and interrogating cultural memory and his engagement with the practice and championing of poetry. Poets discussed range from Lord Byron to colonial era and early twentieth century poets Francis Adams, David McKee, Wright and Zora Cross, underrepresented Australian women poets of World War I, traditionalists and experimentalists including several New Australian Poetry activists of the 1970s and contemporary Australian and New Zealand poets. Writings on poetics address form and tradition, the teaching and reception of poetry and canon formation. The collection is culled from commissioned and occasional contributions to anthologies of practical poetics, journals devoted to literary and cultural history and book reviewing as well as newspaper and small magazine features from the 1980s to the present. The writing reflects Sharkey's poetic practice and pedagogy relating to the teaching of literature, rhetorical analysis, cultural studies and writing in universities, schools and cultural organizations in Australia, New Zealand, China and Germany. It also evidences Sharkey's familiarity with literatures written in English and his wider career in publishing, editing, free lance journalism and the promotion of Australian and New Zealand literature, especially poetry.

Marianne Moore and the Archives Jeff Westover, 2024-05-09 Marianne Moore and the Archives features new archival research to explore the work of a major American modernist poet, providing innovative approaches to Moore's career as it is documented in her archives in Philadelphia. Sound of the Ax Vincent Wixon, Paul Merchant, 2014-02-10 Sound of the Ax brings together for the first time over four hundred aphorisms and twenty-six aphoristic poems by one of America's most essential poets of the twentieth century. Many readers are familiar with the trenchant nature of William Stafford's poems with lines such as "Justice will take us millions of intricate moves" and "Your job is to find what the world is trying to be but have never had the opportunity to read a sustained selection from the thousands of wise, witty and penetrating statements he created in over forty years of daily writing in his journal. In keeping with Stafford's varied interests, the aphorisms in Sound of the Ax explore many topics: war and peace, involvement, aging, appearances, fear, egotism, writing, nature, animals, suffering, faith, living an ethical life, and so on, with his incisive view. The poems are either made up entirely or primarily of aphorisms and range from the well-known "Things I Learned Last Week" to some never before collected. Readers will find much to enjoy and to think about here and will return over and over to Sound of the Ax for inspiration, pleasure and wisdom from an author noted for his integrity and mindful living.
