Istanbul: An Islamic History Guide Dr Muhammad Wajid Akhter, 2023-12-19 Experiencing a city without knowing the history is like watching a blockbuster movie without a story all sets and visuals but devoid of dialogue plot and drama We are travelling more than ever but the story telling has not kept up An amazing city like Istanbul becomes just another mosque another palace and yet another sultan This book aims to bring to life the stories behind the locations Each story is accompanied by a lesson that can be applied to our lives Why does a chain hang over the entrance to the Blue Mosque Why do the chandeliers of Grand Mosques often have an ostrich egg at their centre Who was Fatih and what made him special This is a guidebook that prioritises the history of the locations and lessons we can learn from the past If you want to experience Istanbul in a way that is a feast for the heart and mind as much as it is for the eyes and stomach read on

Sultan Mahmud of Ghaznin Mohammad Habib, 1927

Kingdom of Hyder Ali and Tipu Sultan Anwar Haroon, 2013-06 Their Kingdom lasted between 1760 1799 Hyder Ali fought two wars with British and died a natural death in 1782 Nawab of Arcot Maharanis of Mysore Nizam of Hyderabad Supported British

East India Company and Maratha Empire fought against Hyder Ali and Tipu Sultan. Tipu Sultan's own ministers and commanders betrayed him. Tipu Sultan fought two wars with British East India Company. He was martyred in the fourth war of Srirangapatam in 1799. Later British East India Company ruled India until 1947. Mausoleum of Tipu Sultan, his father Hyder Ali and mother Fathima Begum. This Mausoleum was built by Tipu Sultan himself. Read in full detail with quotations and illustrations. Translated and compiled by Anwar Haroon. Ottoman Harem Ahmed Akgunduz, 2015-06-26. Thirty years ago we have published The Ottoman Harem in Turkish and I have given a copy to Kran Vahide Mary Weld to evaluate and to translate to English. She has translated the Risale-i Nur Collection completely and is a native in English. When she had completed the translation she told me Dr Akgunduz I have enjoyed translating this book and I think that this book is very important in historical and religious sense. I have spent five years preparing this work. Male and Female Slavery in Islam and the Ottoman Harem. The product of those five years work has now been published in English. The subjects discussed in this book are as follows: Part One the distortions and misrepresentations of male and female slavery and the harem together with some examples; Part Two male and female slavery in non Muslim societies and in other religions; Part Three the institutions of male and female slavery in Islamic law; Part Four aspects of the practice of slavery male and female in the Ottoman state; Part Five an investigation of the question what is the harem; Part Six a lady governess's memoirs of the harem; Part Seven the replies to a number of important questions on these subjects. My request of readers is that they read the sections they are interested in and particularly that they study Parts One, Five and Seven. I realize that Part Two is a slight digression but I am of the opinion that the comparison is necessary in order to illuminate slavery in Islam and in the Ottoman state. Ahmed Cevdet Pasha says To own slaves in Islam is to be a slave. What should be realized here is that Islam did not introduce slavery. So how was slavery practised in other societies and religions? How did other religions and peoples act towards slaves? Since Everything is known through its opposites it is essential to know this in order to understand male and female slavery in Islamic law and the harem in Ottoman society. The women in the Sultan's harem lived under very strict discipline. They lived an enclosed life in their apartments just as they paid great attention to these matters when they were out on trips or travelling. Since it was thus does it conform to historical fact to show them to be immodest and overly free and easy as in the films made recently? Does this reflect history as it was lived or is it make belief? This should be pondered over fairly and reasonably.
