Rats And Revolutionaries The Labour Movement In Australia And New Zealand 1890-194:

Rats and Revolutionaries' James Bennett, 2004 Normally historians do not consider Australia and New Zealand as having a common experience but Bennett U of Auckland takes careful note of the labour movement that took hold of both countries for about 50 years beginning in the 1890s He explains how labour organising became a multinational entity as groups from both countries supported each other s strikes followed each other s efforts in arbitration and used each other s experiences in organisation to move toward progress in unionisation Bennett examines the large number of separate groups that appeared to keep a close eye on each other as the world moved toward the Depression and on to the Second World War events that substantially changed the labour movements in both countries
