through this intimate lens that Woolfson invites us to reconsider what creatures can be human s best friend Woolfson shares a house with a host of free ranging birds who cache bits of brie and raw squid in jean cuffs and under rugs who excavate holes in the kitchen wall and who ahem are decidedly not housebroken But are these lifestyles really so peculiar Should we not applaud them Orion Magazine What makes Woolfson's memoir such enjoyable reading even for the non birdobsessed is that she is funny and knows it's rather crazy to have a magpie crow starling or more significantly a rook named Chicken running about your house Bookslut
