Ravi Lancers:

Ravi Lancers John Masters,1973-09 The Ravi Lancers John Masters,1972 The Ravi Lancers John Masters,1972
January 1914 They had suffered at the hands of the Raj now they were being asked to die in its name Reinforcing all that Prince Krishna Ram admires about Britain in Warren Bateman it seems the Ravi Lancers have a decent commanding officer A professional soldier when the Rajah s heir volunteers the Ravi Lancers to accompany the Indian forces destined for Europe it is Bateman who guides their path In the opening months of the First World War the fields of Flanders could not have been a tougher proving ground for them But battle affects men in different ways and while the bloody carnage draws Krishna ever closer to his men Bateman retreats behind rigid military patriotism As they slowly forge themselves from a prince s private army into a unit as effective as any regulars on the front line Bateman tramples over their customs and traditions A clash with Krishna is inevitable In the trenches far from home the tear between allegiance to their own ancient deities and their debt to an alien god of war starts to cause a wound deeper than any man made weapon Dying for a cause not their own every man of the Ravi Lancers faces the ultimate choice who do they follow Making their fateful choice the consequences for all will be severe nothing will be the same again Indian English Literature Basavaraj S. No Man's Land Eric J. Leed, 1979-05-31 Based on the firsthand accounts of German French British and American front line soldiers No Man's Land examines how the first modern industrialized war transformed the character of the men who participated in it. Ancient myths about war eroded in the trenches where the relentless monotony and impotence of the soldier's life was interrupted only by unpredictable moments of annihilation. Professor Leed looks at how the traumatic experience of combat itself and the wholesale shattering of the conventions and ethical codes of normal social life turned ordinary civilians into liminal men men living beyond the limits of the accepted and the expected. He uses the concept of liminality to illuminate the central features of the war experience the separation from home the experience of pollution death comradeship and the uncanny and the ambivalence of returning veterans about civilian society. In a final chapter Professor Leed assesses the long term political impact of the front experience. He finds that the end of hostilities did not mean the end of the war experience as much as the beginning of a process by which that experience was framed institutionalized celebrated and relived in political action as well as in fiction.

A Short History of Asia Colin Mason, 2014-06-24 The nations of Asia now make up more than half of the world's population. With increasingly affluent educated middle classes and vigorous innovative industries they are more populous and powerful than ever before and their influence on the rest of the world is only growing. Colin Mason provides a clear readable introduction to their histories and traditions from the Stone Age right up to the present day. This thoroughly revised updated and expanded third edition contains new chapters on Mongolia Nepal and Bhutan separate expanded chapters on the South Asian nations and revised chapters on all the modern states. A new introduction explores the nature and implications of the new politics of guided democracy and the current clash between industrialisation and the consequences of climate change. Enriched with maps and a guide to further reading this book is the essential guide to the history of a fascinating continent and its peoples.

Turkey and India in the Shadow of the Great War Burcu Çevik-Compiègne, 2024-12-30 What do Turkey and India have in common? Burcu Çevik Compiègne brings sources from two apparently separate contexts into conversation to offer fresh insights into the Great War and its ongoing legacy highlighting the perspectives of people in two post imperial nation states. She uses public discourses literature oral histories memorials and other material as entry points into histories of writing overwriting and erasing the shadows of an imperial war. The connections and parallels between Turkey and India are traced in the narratives of self and the nation from the war to the present and across the globe all the way to contemporary Australia.

The Great War Rakhshanda Jalil, 2021-12-30 It is very hard to endure the bombs Father It will be difficult for anyone to survive and come back safe and sound from the war The son who is very lucky will see his father and mother Extract from a letter by an Indian soldier serving in France written on 14 January 1915 to his father The Great War as the First World War was referred to saw the service of over 1.3 million Indians of whom 74 000 never made it back home For their families the War was something they could not fully fathom Soldiers from the Indian subcontinent won over 12 908 awards for bravery including 11 Victoria Crosses Yet this unprecedented show of valour by Indian soldiers remains largely unsung and unrecognised particularly in India Commemorating hundred years of the end of the First World War this volume brings together diverse voices Rabindranath Tagore Mulk Raj Anand Sarojini Naidu Mohamed Ali Chandradhar Sharma Guleri and many more that reflect a variety of attitudes among Indians towards the War Included too are Rakhshanda Jalil's original translations of the works of Urdu poets of the time capturing their responses to the War This volume of writings originally written in Urdu Hindi Bengali and English attempts to recognise and remember the contribution of the unknown soldiers to the Great War

WILTSHIRE AND THE GREAT WAR T. S. Crawford, 2012-08-01 Soon after the start of the Great War work hastily began on a series of hutted camps in Wiltshire for more than 100 000 men and during the course of the war it became home to troops from Canada Australia and New Zealand as well as Britain With soldiers forming a third of the population the effect on the businesses farms and indeed the morals of the county was dramatic Even after the Armistice peace did not return with mutinies and rioting in the camps because of frustration at delays in demobilization Wiltshire and the Great War describes this turbulent fascinating period in depth It describes pre war training showing how inappropriate it was to future warfare outlines the pioneering of military aviation in the county and describes the role of railways in moving tens of thousands of troops There are accounts of shirkers spies escaped prisoners of war prostitutes the landship that clanked across the county and the wireless station that pinpointed the position of Zeppelins Also described are advances in military technology the camp building scandals that led to an inquiry by a Royal Commission press censorship and the blighting of the Stonehenge landscape

Trial by Fire Nikolas Gardner, 2003-08-30 While existing accounts of this period have elevated the exploits of the British soldiers on the battlefield to almost legendary status the operations of the British Expeditionary Force in the dramatic opening campaign of the First World War remain poorly understood Based on official unit war diaries as well as personal papers and memoirs of numerous officers this study sheds significant new light on the retreat from Mons in August 1914 the advance to the River Aisne in September and the climactic First Battle of Ypres in October and November In addition Gardner provides important insights into the ideas and values of British officers in the initial stages of the war Beyond explaining the conduct of the 1914 campaign Gardner analyzes the initial stages of the learning curve experienced by British officers as they grappled with an unaccustomed type of warfare including the unprecedented scale and intensity of the conflict as well as the advent of trench warfare He also demonstrates the impact of rivalries among senior officers on the operations of the army As a whole the study adds depth to our understanding of command in European armies during the First World War Sins of Our Fathers

Prasanna K. Datta, 2009-02-26 Our story takes place in British India around the first half of the twentieth century when great political changes were sweeping the globe The two world wars were exposing inhabitants of the world's secluded regions to modernity creating cultural conflicts The mighty British Empire after reaching its zenith was crumbling Gandhi was emerging as a national leader and teaching his followers that freedom from foreign domination can be attained by nonviolent means and that the inhumane treatment of outcasts in India is evil and must end Father Gambino twenty eight reaches India in 1920 from Italy His mission is to spread Christ's love to the pagans who worship idols and believe in many gods instead of his one true God His goal is to save souls and open churches schools and orphanages He refuses to learn or benefit from the experiences of other Catholic priests in India He suspects many of his Christian beliefs were diluted or even defiled by exposure to Eastern thoughts After a few years however his provincialism lessens when he meets and hears a scholarly British commissioner with in depth knowledge of Hinduism and Buddhism When the Japanese army reaches the Indo Burmese border Gambino moves from central India to the northeast to work in the Assam Mission Here the year after America enters World War II he rescues an orphan from certain starvation and takes him to a Catholic orphanage Krishna Swamy was born in the Deccan in 1885 the grandson of a temple priest who believes that everyone shouldn't read or even hear the Vedas He accepts the caste system as a natural order His son secretly resents him and spends the last years of his life with the untouchables defiantly teaching them the forbidden Vedas When he masters the Sanskrit grammar his grandfather teaches Krishna accompanies two of his friends on a pilgrimage During the journey the precocious seventeen year old observes the strength and confidence of Westerners and the fatalism and superstitions of his countrymen At Banaras and Sarnath they expand their horizons by attending many theological discussions After relinquishing his priestly birthrights he assumes the nonsectarian name of Bir Dharma and proceeds alone to Calcutta University to become modern by studying Christianity English and Western values Professor Das and Brother Curren offer him a scholarship as a Sanskrit grammarian Bir and Curren become close friends They discuss commonalities between Hinduism and Catholicism Bir soon discovers that studying other faiths develops respect for all religions In 1911 Bir meets Nongrim Hilly in Calcutta who later joins the priesthood to spread Christ's love to the remote northeast regions Hilly asks Bir to convert and join him in spreading Catholicism But Bir declines He fears organized religions After six years at the university Bir goes to Delhi to work in the construction of the new imperial capital There a Sikh befriends him and invites him to a gurdwara where he learns about Guru Nanak's teachings and Sikh history Construction slows during World War I Unemployment grows and the future looks bleak A cult member offers human sacrifice for early rain While reporting this monstrosity to a newspaper Bir meets a foreign war correspondent who introduces him to American and Indian papers as a Westernized guru and freelancer His fame spreads Colleges and universities invite him to lecture Commissioner Gait requests him to speak about Hinduism to his new Indian Civil Service officers Here Bir meets Gambino When Bir visits the temples of Bhubaneswar a cyclone devastates the coastal regions of Orissa Gambino joins the Catholic Relief Mission and shows Bir the importance of organization in undertaking large projects Gambino next visits Father Kenny in Calcutta who advises him to meet Father Hil School, Society, Nation Rajni Kumar, Anil Sethi, Shalini Sikka, 2006 This book is an anthology that deals with the problems and challenges of contemporary Indian education This volume has 20 essays by eminent persons that discuss child oriented ideas regarding curricula books and the learning processes Many writers in this book speak from a lifetime of engagement with education about issues as varied as globalisation and its impact on education to the importance of educational methods that do not discriminate between boys and girls the disabled and the non disabled the rich and the poor This book does not aim to merely report current educational research and pertinently seeks to promote debate on difficult issues confronting us in education Imagination and the Creative Impulse in the New Literatures in English, 2021-11-01 Imagination and the Creative Impulse in the New Literatures in English brings together the proceedings of a symposium organised by the editors at the University of Trento in 1990 At a time when the study of the post colonial literatures is gaining more widespread recognition scholars based mainly at universities in Italy and Germany were invited to address the manner in which writers are giving literary expression to the complexity of contemporary post colonial and multicultural societies and to consider from their differing perspectives on the new literatures central questions of formal experimentation linguistic innovation social and political commitment textual theory and cross culturality Focusing on such major writers such as Achebe Soyinka and Walcott as well as on lesser known figures such as Jack Davis Witi Ihimaera Rohinton Mistry and Manohar Malgonkar the contributors take up many themes characteristic of the new literatures the challenge posed to traditional authority the expression of national identity the role of literature in the liberation struggle modes of literary practice in multicultural societies the relationship of the new literatures in English to that of the former metropolitan centre and the complex intertextuality characterizing much of the literary production of post colonial societies The Indian Army in the Two World Wars, 2011-10-14 There is no single volume which covers the Indian Army's experiences during the two World Wars And this is what the present edited volume attempts to do This collection of 17 essays analyze the army as an institution and also touch upon the cultural ethos of the army and related social issues Thus this edited volume is a cross between traditional military history study of campaigns tactics leadership and new military history impact of warfare on society and culture While some of the essays take a pan Indian perspective a few essays also focus on those regions within India like Punjab which were intimately related with the army A few contributors also turn the spotlight on the overseas theatres like Mesopotamia France and Burma where the Indian Army played a very important role Contributors are Alan Jeffreys Andrew Syk Daniel Marston David Kenyon Dennis Showalter Gajendra Singh Gavin Rand James Kitchen Nick Lloyd Nikolas Gardner Rajit K Mazumder Raymond Callahan Rob Johnson Ross Anderson Tarak Barkawi and Tim Moreman The Bookseller, 1974
