Murray, 2018-07-30 Why has no one heard of Edna Cranmer When a young writer is hired to put together the life of an unknown artist from Geelong of all places she thinks it will be just another quick commission paid for by a rich grieving family obsessed with their own past But Edna Cranmer was not a privileged housewife with a paintbrush Edna's work spans decades Her soaring images of red dirt close interiors and distant jungles have the potential to change the way the nation views itself Edna could have been an official war artist Did she choose to hide herself away Or were there people who didn't want her to be famous As the biographer is pulled into Edna's life she is confronted with the fact that how she tells Edna's past will affect her own future This elegant and engrossing novel explores how we value and celebrate art and artists lives The Biographer's Lover reminds us that all memory is an act of curation Sydney Morning Herald Best Young Australian Novelist Longlisted 2019 Colin Roderick Award Murray is a magical storyteller Brenda Niall An accomplished and moving novel about the gaps left in our inherited history and the imperfect storytellers we entrust to fill them So beautifully constructed that I finished reading it and immediately turned to the first chapter to start again Abigail Ulman American Book Publishing Record, 1977-03-31 Here's quick access to more than 490 000 titles published from 1970 to 1984 arranged in Dewey sequence with sections for Adult and Juvenile Fiction Author and Title indexes are included and a Subject Guide correlates primary subjects with Dewey and LC classification numbers These cumulative records are available in three separate sets The Crossley Gallery, 1966-1980 Jenny Zimmer, 2003 When in 1966 Tate Adams opened Crossley Gallery in a lane off Bourke Street Melbourne he pioneered the importation of contemporary Japanese prints by masters such as Munakata and Sasajima These were shown alongside those emerging local artist printmakers including at that time Fred Williams Roger Kemp George Baldessin Bea Maddock and many others This productive collision of cultures soon established the Crossley Gallery and its associated activities such as the Crossley Print Workshop as the hub of activity in this art form The book contains memoirs of those associated with the Gallery and features prints shown or commissioned by Tate Adams a leading printmaker himself It provides first hand insights into a previously under examined aspect of the development of contemporary art in Australia Also comes as a special edition with original wood engraving by Tate Adams special cloth binding and a slip case Printed Images by Australian Artists 1885-1955 Roger Butler, National Gallery of Australia, 2007 The history of printmaking in Australia International Who's Who in Poetry 2005 Europa Publications, 2004-08-02 The 13th edition of the International Who's Who in Poetry is a unique and comprehensive guide to the leading lights and freshest talent in poetry today Containing biographies of more than 4 000 contemporary poets world wide this essential reference work provides truly international coverage In addition to the well known poets talented up and coming writers are also profiled Contents Each entry provides full career history and publication details An international appendices section lists prizes and past prize winners organizations magazines and publishers A summary of poetic forms and rhyme schemes The career profile section is supplemented by lists of Poets Laureate Oxford University professors of poetry poet winners of the Nobel Prize for Literature winners of the Pulitzer Prize for American Poetry and of the King's Queen's Gold medal and other poetry prizes Subject Index of Modern Books Acquired British Library, 1971
