Brown, Auckland City Art Gallery, Hamish Keith, 1968      New Zealand Painting, 1900-1920 Gordon H. Brown, Bishop Suter Art Gallery, 1972
English, Colonial, Modern and Maori Anna Crichton, 2014-11-24 How and why do works make their way into a public art collection Who decides what will be hung on the walls placed on plinths displayed in cases These important but seldom discussed questions lie at the heart of this cultural biography of the 70 years during which the Robert McDougall Art Gallery was Christchurch's civic art gallery The book explains how the collection came together how it developed and how the public and artists and critics reacted to it The book is presented in three parts each of which has its own introduction It provides an analytical framework in detail and in context by defining terms and explaining particular recurrent concepts These include and indeed highlight selection and presentation cultures derived from the core museological functions of collection and display These together with the framework's other concepts are related to mainstream methodology in the social sciences particularly political science The latter is especially relevant to the study of a public art gallery owned and funded by the public and its elected representatives and controlled by these representatives and their appointed agents Furthermore the framework explores the concept of post colonial tensions between heritages specifically indigenous transplanted and autochthonous ones The significance of this becomes more apparent when the concepts used in relevant previous studies of specific public art galleries in New Zealand are reviewed There is also a strong emphasis on the development of a public Maori art collection It is a story too of vivid and influential personalities the directors and curators who fought for the gallery and the artists represented in it But the book is more than just the story of a single gallery's collection it shines a light on concerns and patterns that will be familiar to galleries everywhere and provides a unique perspective on New Zealand's cultural development over much of the twentieth century      Bateman New Zealand Encyclopedia Gordon McLauchlan,1984 Includes index      Jeffrey Harris Justin Paton,Jeffrey Harris,2005 Publisher description      Aspects of New Zealand Art, 1890-1940 National Art Gallery (N.Z.),1984 Catalogue of an exhibition held at the National Art Gallery from 15 September 1984 27 November 1984      Arts in New Zealand ,1928      Arts and Crafts Movement in New Zealand, 1870-1940 Ann Calhoun,2000 Reveals the exquisite work and extraordinary skill of a group of New Zealand artists most of them women working in a wide variety of art and craft forms This flowering of local talent originated in the British Arts and Crafts movement and is associated with the growth of art education in this country its quiet but dedicated character also suggests much about the situation of women in the years before and after 1900 Jacket      Artbibliographies Modern ,1996 Abstracts of journal articles books essays exhibition catalogs dissertations and exhibition reviews The scope of ARTbibliographies Modern extends from artists and movements beginning with Impressionism in the late 19th century up to the most recent works and trends in the late 20th century Photography is covered from its invention in 1839 to the present A particular emphasis is placed upon adding new and lesser known artists and on the coverage of foreign language literature Approximately 13 000 new entries are added each year Published with title LOMA from 1969 1971      The Penguin History of New Zealand Michael King,2023-10-10 This bestselling book by the late Michael King is the unchallenged contemporary reference on the history of New Zealand First published in 2003 and hailed as a triumph of careful research wide reading and judicious assessment it has been continuously in print for 20 years and has sold over 300 000 copies It remains the definitive yet highly readable starting point for anybody wanting to understand this country New Zealand was the last country in the world to be discovered and settled by humankind It was also the first to introduce full democracy Between those events and in the century that followed the movements and conflicts of human history have been played out more intensively and more rapidly in New Zealand than anywhere else on Earth The Penguin History of New Zealand tells that story in all its colour and drama The narrative that emerges is an inclusive one about men and women M ori and P keh It shows that British motives in colonising New Zealand were essentially humane and that M ori far from being passive victims of a fatal impact coped heroically with colonisation and survived by selectively accepting and adapting what Western technology and culture had to offer Now more relevant than ever this edition includes a Foreword by Sir Tipene O Regan and a biographical essay on the author by Jock Phillips PLATINUM PREMIER NEW ZEALAND BESTSELLER READERS CHOICE AWARD 2004 MONTANA NEW ZEALAND BOOK AWARDS NIELSEN BOOKDATA NEW ZEALAND BOOKSELLERS CHOICE AWARD BEST OF THE BEST 2011      Art Galleries and Museums of New Zealand Keith Westhead Thomson,1981      Bibliographic Guide to Art and Architecture New York Public Library.
