Consuming Experience Antonella Caru, Bernard Cova, 2013-01-11 This book covers the hot topic of the experiential consumption in an accessible manner and from a unique industry perspective which is not used in any other book It highlights the idea that an experience is not something that can be readily managed by firms and is not limited to the market an individual's daily life is made up of consuming experiences that can occur with or without a market relation Offering an overview of the consumption experience it outlines a continuum of experiences of consumption that consumers go through including those that are mainly constructed by consumers around small items that comprise their daily life such as organic products and non profit or local associations those that have been co developed by companies and consumers tourism or adventure projects rock concerts and cultural events those that have been largely developed by the companies where consumers are immersed in a hyper real context such as fashion sports brands edutainment and retail Broad and comprehensive this book provides a challenging vision of the consumption experience which is an invaluable tool for all those studying marketing and consumer behaviour

The Re-Enchantment of the West Christopher Partridge, 2005-03-04 As a book about emergent spirituality in the contemporary West it focuses on the nature evolution and significance of new forms of religion and alternative spiritualities Part One of the book provides the theoretical background and guides the reader through some of the principal debates After an overview of the secularization thesis which argues that the West is becoming increasingly disenchanted the second chapter turns to the sociological analysis of new religions and alternative spiritualities Particular attention is given to the ideas of the sociologist of religion Ernst Troeltsch especially his enigmatic analysis of the emergence mystical religion which presciently provides helpful insights into understanding the contemporary alternative religious milieu Against sociologists such as Bryan Wilson and Steve Bruce this and the subsequent chapter argues that rather than being insignificant new forms of spirituality are actually proving to be a significant part of Western re enchantment Chapter 3 constructs a general theory of the re enchantment of the West Chris Partridge argues that Western Society is permeated by a broad occulture by which he means a reservoir of ideas beliefs theories and practices to which new religions unorthodox spiritualities film and popular music all draw attention This re enchantment of the West should not be seen as a superficial secondary development in the shadow of Christianity In many ways it is a religious phenomenom in its own right Partridge s arguments in this regard are well put and I warmly welcome this timely book Mikhael Rothstein University of Copenhagen Denmark

Doing Time Rita Felski,2000-09 Nine essays that Felski English U of Virginia has revised from publication elsewhere grapple with whether people live in the same time whether it is possible to talk about men s time and women s or Western and non Western time how to explain that individuals and groups may perceive time very differently and yet seem to inhabit the same time in crucial respects and what the stakes are in either affirming or denying the contemporaneity and coevalness of others c Book News Inc

The Art of Interfaith Spiritual Care Walter Blair Stratford,2016-06-23 Relationships between people are frequently compromised as a result of religious viewpoints but appropriate spiritual care requires bridges to understanding that will allow for trust and justice to become visible The pattern for this book is shaped on the recognition that while religious expressions differ markedly in their presentation we can discern at the core of all religious expressions a supposition of sacred presence It is therefore helpful for us all in the daily events of our lives that we approach people of other faiths with a degree of humility recognizing that neither we nor they have a final answer to the question of faith The book is divided into four parts each part containing some chapters in which elements of interfaith care are considered Part one explores the complexities of interfaith engagement Part two discusses ways for caring for each other in the search for meaning Part three claims that spirituality is most difficult if not impossible to define but can be visible in a variety of experiences The fourth part explores ways in which all that has gone before may be put into practice as spiritual care life The Oxford Handbook of Western Music and Philosophy Tomás McAuley, Nanette Nielsen, Jerrold Levinson, Ariana Phillips-Hutton, 2021 The Oxford Handbook of Western Music and Philosophy celebrates the ways in which musicians have historically called upon philosophy as a source of inspiration and encouragement and scholars of music through the ages have turned to philosophy for insight into music and into the worlds that sustain it Prisoners of Our Thoughts (EasyRead Super Large 18pt Edition) , House and Home Thomas Barrie, 2017-03-16 House and home are words routinely used to describe where and how one lives This book challenges predominant definitions and argues that domesticity fundamentally satisfies the human need to create and inhabit a defined place in the world Consequently house and home have performed numerous cultural and ontological roles and have been assiduously represented in scripture literature art and philosophy This book presents how the search for home in an unpredictable world led people to create myths about the origins of architecture houses for their gods and house tombs for eternal life Turning to more recent topics it discusses how writers often used simple huts as a means to address the essentials of existence modernist architects envisioned the capacity of house and home to improve society and the suburban house was positioned as a superior setting for culture and family Throughout the book house and home are critically examined to illustrate the perennial role and capacity of architecture to articulate the human condition position it more meaningfully in the world and assist in our collective homecoming The Art of Re-enchantment Nick Wilson, 2013-10-25 In the late 1960s a new movement emerged championing historically informed authentic approaches to performance Heard today in concert halls across the world and in a library's worth of recordings it has completely transformed the way in which we listen to old music while revolutionizing the classical music profession in the process Yet the rise of Early Music has been anything but uncontroversial Historically informed performance HIP has provoked heated debate amongst musicologists performers and cultural sociologists Did HIP's scholar performers possess the skills necessary to achieve their uncompromising agenda Was interest in historically informed performance just another facet of the burgeoning heritage industry And was the widespread promotion of early music simply a commercial ruse to make money put forward by profit driven record companies In The Art of Re-enchantment Making Early Music in the Modern Age author Nick Wilson answers these and other questions through an in depth analysis of the early music movement in Britain from the 1960s to the present day While other books have examined the history of early music's revival this interdisciplinary study is unique in its focus on how various constituencies actually made their living from the early music business Through chapters discussing the professionalization of early music the influence of institutions such as the BBC and record companies and the entrepreneurial role of leading early music pioneers this book will shed new light on one of the most fascinating and influential movements in 20th Century art music The Art of Re-enchantment begins a much needed conversation about the true value of art and authenticity today This volume is a must have for early music fans and performers music historians and musicologists with an interest in performance practice and anyone interested in the De Graaff,2025-06-20 Scripture s compelling message of love and justice is powerfully relevant for today The implications of the Amsterdam way of interpreting Scripture are evident throughout the book It is both a personal and timely way of speaking to our disintegrating society The Prophetic Call to Love and Justice provides a meaningful and radical yet simple way of re connecting with the Bible As one of the founders of the Amsterdam way of interpretation Karel Deurloo stated The opportunity to learn anew and understand the language of the Bible has been taken away Often the focus is on the assumed origin and history of a text a historical literary approach or a fundamentalist view creating a fragmented moralistic and doctrinaire emphasis which has alienated many from churches Instead Deurloo and others focused on the prophetic meaning that speaks to all of us as the living word of God today This alternative is rooted in the Hebrew Scriptures Its abiding prophetic message of love and justice is reiterated in the Gospels and apostolic letters Hence the choice of subtitle Rediscovering the Old Testament It is a joyful journey of discovery finding new meaning in the Bible for our lives Smart Living Tania Lewis,2008 What do the Fab Five from Queer Eye for the Straight Guy the

New Visions of Community in Contemporary American Fiction Magali Cornier Michael, 2008-04 In this engaging optimistic close reading of five late twentieth century novels by American women Magali Cornier Michael illuminates the ways in which their authors engage with ideas of communal activism common commitment and social transformation The fictions she examines imagine coalition building as a means of moving toward new forms of nonhierarchical justice for ethnic cultures that as a result of racist attitudes have not been assimilated power with each other rather than power over each other is a collective goal Michael argues that much contemporary American fiction by women offers models of care and nurturing that move away from the private sphere toward the public and political Specifically texts by women from such racially marked ethnic groups as African American Asian American Native American and Mexican American draw from the rich systems of thought histories and experiences of these hybrid cultures and thus offer feminist and ethical revisions of traditional concepts of community coalition subjectivity and agency Focusing on Amy Tan's The Joy Luck Club Barbara Kingsolver's The Bean Trees and Pigs in Heaven Ana Castillo's So Far from God and Toni Morrison's Paradise Michael shows that each writer emphasizes the positive liberating effects of kinship and community These hybrid versions of community which draw from other than dominant culturally specific ideas and histories have something to offer Americans as the United States moves into an increasingly diverse twenty first century Michael provides a rich lens through which to view both contemporary fiction and contemporary life women's bodies and the mass commodification of milk the creation of the toddler as a subject and the commodification of childhood the commodification of sports and the commodification of rock music The third section of the book explores new forms of consumption on a more detailed and concentrated level Papers in this section include the rise of sex tourism as a global industry the commodification of the sacred and the emergence of new consumer spaces in the city An introduction by the editor delineates the advantages of his approach to new forms of consumption based squarely in the emerging issues of cultural studies debates transcending postmodernism and the society of the spectacle
