Re Examining Sovereignty From Classical Theory To The Global Age:

Re-examining Sovereignty H. Shinoda, 2000-04-07 This book provides a complete documentary history of the idea of sovereignty from Classical theory to the global age The historical examination of sovereignty leads the author to conclude that the recent transformation of the principle of sovereignty can be understood in the context of new international constitutionalism

Re-envisioning Sovereignty Trudy Jacobsen, 2016-04-08 Sovereignty as a concept is in a state of flux In the course of the last century traditional meanings have been worn away while the limitations of sovereignty have been altered as transnational issues compete with domestic concerns for precedence This volume presents an interdisciplinary analysis of conceptions of sovereignty Divided into six overarching elements it explores a wide range of issues that have altered the theory and practice of state sovereignty such as human rights and the use of force for human protection purposes norms relating to governance the war on terror economic globalization the natural environment and changes in strategic thinking The authors are acknowledged experts in their respective areas and discuss the contemporary meaning and relevance of sovereignty and how it relates to the constitution of international order Ethics, Authority, and War E.

Heinze, B. Steele, 2009-11-23 In original essays written by both senior scholars as well as rising younger scholars in the field of international ethics this volume addresses the ethics of war in an era when non state actors are playing an increasingly prominent role in armed conflict Postgenocide Klejda Mulaj, 2021-03-15 This volume introduces postgenocide as a novel approach to study genocide and its effects after mass killing has ended It investigates how the material violence of genocide translates into contests over memory remembrance and laws and the re imagining of political community Contributions come from academics across a broad range of disciplines including law political science sociology and ethnography Chapters in this volume explore the various permutations of genocide harms and scrutinise the efficacy of genocide laws and the prospects for their enforcement Others engage with socio political responses to genocide including efforts to reconciliation as well as genocide s impacts on victims communities Contributions examine the reconstruction of genocide narratives in the display of victims objects in museums galleries and archives This book brings together cutting edge research from a variety of disciplines to address formerly overlooked themes and cases exploring what a diversity of perspectives can bring to bear on genocide scholarship as a whole

The Closure of the International System Lora Anne Viola, 2020-07-09 As global governance appears to become more inclusive and democratic many scholars argue that international institutions act as motors of expansion and democratization The Closure of the International System challenges this view arguing that the history of the international system is a series of institutional closures in which institutions such as diplomacy international law and international organizations make rules to legitimate the inclusion of some actors and the exclusion of others While international institutions facilitate collective action and common goods Viola s closure thesis demonstrates how these gains are achieved by limiting access to rights and resources creating a stratified system of political equals and unequals The coexistence of equality and hierarchy is a constitutive feature of the international system and its institutions This tension is relevant today as multilateral institutions are challenged by disaffected citizens non Western powers and established great powers discontent with the distribution of political rights and authority Contemporary Tibet Barry Sautman, June Teufel Dreyer, 2017-03-02 The subject of Tibet is highly controversial and Tibet as a political entity is defined differently from source to source and audience to audience The editors of this path breaking multidisciplinary study have gathered some of the leading scholars in Tibetan and ethnic studies to provide a comprehensive analysis of the Tibet question Contemporary Tibet explores essential themes and issues concerning modern Tibet It presents fresh material from various political viewpoints and data from original surveys and field research The contributors consider such topics as representations and sovereignty economic development and political conditions the exile movement and human rights historical legacies and international politics identity issues and the local society The individual chapters provide historical background as well as a general framework to examine Tibet s present situation in world politics the relationship with China and the West and prospects for the future Religious Ideology and the Roots of the Global Jihad J. Turner, 2014-08-26 The events of 9 11 prompted questions as to the origins nature and purpose of international jihadist organisations In particular why had they chosen to target the US and the West in general Turner s book provides a unique holistic insight into these debates taking into account historical perceptions and ideology as key factors IBSS Compiled by the British Library of Political and Economic Science, 2001 IBSS is the essential tool for librarians university departments research institutions and any public or private institution whose work requires access to up to date and comprehensive knowledge of the social sciences The International Criminal Court and Problems of State Sovereignty Oliver Holmes, 2009-12 Scientific Essay from the year 2008 in the subject Law Criminal process Criminology Law Enforcement grade 2 1 University of Leeds course Political Science language English abstract It is the argument of this dissertation that the International Criminal Court is an appropriate tool for the enforcement of international criminal law and embodies a shifting notion of state sovereignty Historically both multilateral and unilateral attempts to enforce international criminal law have been progressive but not wholly successful The International Criminal Court is rooted in customary law and addresses the failures of past attempts The Court s opposition has illustrated problems of state sovereignty which in turn exemplifies how the International Criminal Court embodies a shifting notion of state sovereignty The sources used are the existing academic literature interviews international statute magazines and newspaper articles Bringing Sociology to International Relations Mathias Albert, Barry Buzan, Michael Zürn, 2013-10-03 Functional differentiation has long been at the heart of sociological thought and as such has become a defining feature in the evolution of modern society one which distinguishes it from pre modern societies which have instead typically differentiated by means of segmentation or stratified social systems such as class Drawing on the latest developments on differentiation theory in international relations and sociology this book brings together contributions from leading IR scholars and sociological theorists to offer a unique interdisciplinary synthesis in which contemporary world politics is discussed as a differentiated social realm Bringing Sociology to International Relations is an illuminating and innovative new resource for scholars and students which strives to respond to a significant question across all its chapters what happens when this well established sociological theoretical framework is transposed from the domestic level for which it was originally designed to the larger and more complex subject of international relations

Macrohistory and Globalization Grinin, Leonid, 2012-06-01 The present monograph considers some macrohistorical trends along with the aspects of globalization Macrohistory is history on the large scale that tells the story of the entire world or of some major dimensions of historical process For the present study three aspects of macrohistory have been chosen These are technological and political aspects as well as the one of historical personality Taken together they give a definite picture of unfolding historical process which is described from the beginning of human society formation to the present day and near future The combination in the monograph title of the two terms macrohistory and globalization is in no way artificial On the contrary the connection of these terms is organic at least as the real goal of macrohistory is to find meaning in the past so as to create new possibilities of meaning for the future The analysis of globalization also includes three aspects political economic and futurological as today the world may well be regarded as being at the start of a new global reconfiguration The author presents his ideas of the world prospective political and in some respects social economic development basing on the analysis of macrohistory and contemporary globalization processes The monograph also considers some global scenarios of the World System s near future

African Frontiers John Idriss Lahai, Tanya Lyons, 2016-03-23 Through a multidisciplinary approach African Frontiers counters the superficial Eurocentric and gender insensitive dominant discursive representation of Africa within the discourse of war and conflict management and security and peace nation building The chapters historicize and theorize the realities in postcolonial African states and the ramifications on the continents future Situating the study within the context of the prevailing cultural and geo political realities in the postcolonial African states the chapters illustrate the complex ways in which events and processes are experienced at the local level and how these local realities in turn impact and shape the patterns of political and military engagement in Africa and beyond Organized along three major themes Insurgency governance and peacebuilding expert researchers from around the world contribute chapters on Rebel and insurgent formations such as the RUF the LRA and Boko Haram state governance and corruption terrorism and counter terrorism security and peacebuilding focussing on the tensions and challenges facing post conflict societies such as Sierra Leone Rwanda and the newest nation state on the continent South Sudan This highly significant and topical study problematizes the impact of wars on African nations as well as the epistemological framing of the local realities and fallouts of armed conflict on post colonial states

Partnership Peace Operations Hideaki Shinoda, 2024-04-09 Partnership is a key concept in contemporary international peace operations There is no universal model of peace operations in contemporary international society Ad hoc arrangements of partnership between the United Nations and various regional organizations are consequences of the complex circumstances of international security The ways in which partnerships are organised differently in different regions reflect each region's distinctive security situation The universal nature of liberal peacebuilding is thus maintained only by ad hoc arrangements All the UN peacekeeping operations in Africa have some partnership linkages with regional or sub regional organizations ranging from the African Union AU and regional mechanisms to the European Union EU What are the conditions and characteristics that enable or lead to partnership peacekeeping in Africa How should we understand lower levels of partnership peacekeeping in other regions By highlighting key characteristics of partnership peacekeeping the book explores these issues and argues that partnership is a reflection of political circumstances The book provides an unexplored but critical perspective to understand the contemporary world for those who study International Relations Security Studies International Organizations and Peace Studies

Geopolitical Exotica Dibyesh Anand, Geopolitical Exotica examines exoticized Western representations of Tibet and Tibetans and the debate over that land's status with regard to China Concentrating on specific cultural images of the twentieth century promulgated by novels popular films travelogues and memoirs Dibyesh Anand lays bare the strategies by which Exotica Tibet and Tibetanness have been constructed and he investigates the impact these constructions have had on those who are being represented Although images of Tibet have excited the popular imagination in the West for many years Geopolitical Exotica is the first book to explore representational practices within the study of international relations Anand challenges the parochial practices of current mainstream international relations theory and practice claiming that the discipline remains mostly Western in its orientation His analysis of Tibet's status with regard to China scrutinizes the vocabulary afforded by conventional international relations theory and considers issues that until now have been undertheorized in relation to Tibet including imperialism history diaspora representation and identity In this masterfully synthetic work Anand establishes that postcoloniality provides new insights into themes of representation and identity and demonstrates how IR as a discipline can meaningfully expand its focus beyond the West Dibyesh Anand is a reader in international relations at the University of Westminster London

Why Human Security Matters Dennis Altman, Joseph A. Camilleri, Robyn Eckersley, 2020-07-23 Sea level rises pose a greater long term threat to Australia's coastline and major capital cities than a military attack by a foreign power Citizens are more likely to experience a pandemic virus than a nuclear threat Food shortages have already occurred as a result of flood or drought and the tentacles of international trade in drugs money laundering and human trafficking already reach far into Australian communities Why Human Security Matters argues that Australian external relations needs to treat the soft issues of security as seriously as it treats the hard realities of military defence but also the many complex situations in between whether it be civil war political upheaval terrorism or piracy Australia needs to do this first and foremost in our region but also in relation to the unresolved regional and global security issues as we confront an increasingly uncertain and turbulent world With contributions from leading thinkers in foreign policy and strategic studies Why Human Security Matters is essential reading for anyone seeking a thoughtful and thought provoking analysis of Australia's place in an age of transition Local Ownership in International

Peacebuilding Sung Yong Lee, Alpaslan Özerdem, 2015-04-24 comprehensively examines the theoretical and practical dimensions of local ownership in international peacebuilding uses nine case studies from different countries to explore the topic empirically will be of much interest to students of peacebuilding war and conflict studies development studies global governance security studies and IR Politics: The Key Concepts Lisa Harrison, Adrian Little, Ed Lock, 2015-02-11 Politics The Key Concepts is an up to date and broad ranging introduction to the terms that lie at the heart of political discourse Entries are drawn from areas such as political theory international politics political science and methodology As well as explaining core established principles this informative guide explores some of the more complex topical and contested concepts from the world of politics Concepts covered include Capitalism Class Identity Institutionalism Referendum Marxism Pluralism Postmodernism Socialism Social Constructivism In an accessible A Z format with helpful cross referencing and suggestions for further reading Politics The Key Concepts is an invaluable reference for all students of politics international relations and related courses Diversity of Managerial Perspectives from Inside China Check Teck Foo, 2015-08-05 This

Framing Childhood in Eighteenth-Century English Periodicals and Prints, 1689-1789 Anja Müller, 2016-12-05 Shedding light on an important and neglected topic in childhood studies Anja Müller interrogates how different concepts of childhood proliferated and were construed in several important eighteenth century periodicals and satirical prints Müller focuses on The Tatler The Spectator The Guardian The Female Tatler and The Female Spectator arguing that these periodicals contributed significantly to the construction development and popularization of childhood concepts that provided the basis for later ideas such as the Romantic child Informed by the theoretical concept of framing by which certain concepts of childhood are accepted as legitimate while others are excluded Framing Childhood analyses the textual and graphic constructions of the child's body educational debates how the shift from genealogical to affective bonding affected conceptions of parent child relations and how prints employed child figures as focalizers in their representations of public scenes In examining links between text and image M ller uncovers the role these media played in the genealogy of childhood before the 1790s offering a re visioning of the myth that situates the origin of childhood in late eighteenth century England

International Norms and Local Politics in Myanmar Yukiko Nishikawa,2022-03-07 Nishikawa explores how international norms have been adopted in the local context in Myanmar to project a certain international image while in fact the authorities are exploiting these norms to protect their own interests In the liberal international world order promoted since the end of the Cold War democracy rule of law and human rights have become key components in state and peace building around the world Many donor governments and international organisations have promoted them in their aid and assistance However the promotion of these international norms is based on a flawed understanding of sovereignty and the world For this reason the enforcement of these international norms in Myanmar not only fails to protect vulnerable people but also in some instances exacerbates the situation thereby generating critical insecurity to the most vulnerable people A vital resource for scholars of Myanmar s politics as well as a valuable case study for International Relations scholars more broadly
