Re Forming The Center:

Re-forming the State Hector E. Schamis, 2002 Compares the processes leading to market reform experiments and its political effects in Latin America and Europe Reforming Juvenile Detention Ira M. Schwartz, William H. Barton, 1994 Juvenile detention facilities confine more youths than do any other type of institution in the United States Essentially jails for juveniles who have been arrested and are awaiting trial these centers tend to be overcrowded inadequately staffed and expensive to operate Juvenile justice officials and state and local policymakers throughout the country are desperately trying to determine the proper use of these facilities and more important how to bring detention systems under control The eleven essays in this collection assess today s juvenile detention system bringing to light problems and inefficiencies and suggesting strategies for improving conditions and eliminating these problems The authors of these essays pull together data on national trends in detention policies and practices and examine specific cases to paint a grim picture of a system badly in need of reform They also provide practical summaries of reform targets and strategies and case studies of successful reform attempts thus offering clear and much needed guidance toward possible solutions to the nation s juvenile detention crisis

Reforming the Tsar's Army David Schimmelpenninck van der Oye, Bruce W. Menning, 2004-03-18 This volume examines how Imperial Russia s armed forces sought to adapt to the challenges of modern warfare From Peter the Great to Nicholas II rulers always understood the need to maintain an army and navy capable of preserving the empire s great power status Yet they inevitably faced the dilemma of importing European military and technological innovations while keeping out political ideas that could challenge the autocracy s monopoly on power Within the context of a constant race to avoid oblivion the impulse for military renewal emerges as a fundamental and recurring theme in modern Russian history Reforming Schools Jesse Goodman, 2012-02-01 In Reforming Schools Jesse Goodman discusses the possibilities struggles and complexities involved in reforming today s schools Drawing from his own experiences at the Harmony Education Center a progressive educational center he helped establish in 1990 Goodman offers a vision of how to persevere at a time when many progressive educators are feeling discouraged He focuses on practical ideas for reform such as establishing school autonomy creating democratic structures rituals and values upon which school reform discourse can be generated and by addressing the current conservative agenda how to influence what happens in our nation s public schools By situating school reform within a progressive history of Western society the author offers valuable insights and ideas that are alternatives to both the conservative and the radical left analyses of schools and society Reforming UN Decision-Making Procedures Martin Daniel Niemetz, 2015-03-24 The institutional procedures for the UN s decision making on issues of global peace and security first and foremost the Security Council SC were conceived with the objective of enabling a swift but internationally coordinated response to irregular situations of crises Today however the UN is constantly involved in situations of conflict and has expanded its range of activities This book offers a concrete and practically applicable answer to the question of how to reform the UN and increase the legitimacy of the UN's decision making procedures on issues of global peace and security In order to provide this answer it connects the minutia of institutional design with the abstract principals of democratic theory in a systematic and reproducible method thereby enabling a clear normative evaluation of even the smallest technical detail of reform This evaluation demonstrates that there is a range of feasible proposals for reform that could improve the SC's accountability both to the General Assembly and to the general public that could increase the opportunities for effective input from the UN membership and NGOs This book will be of interest to students and scholars of the United Nations International Organizations and regional governance

Anglican Re-Formation Jack A. Estes, 2017-05-17 The Anglican Communion is at a crossroads A tipping point has been reached on the fulcrum where things can no longer be kept in balance A choice must be made between two competing worldviews which are at heart radically different The time has come to decide which set of beliefs and practices will be adhered to and taught in the church and which vision will be offered to the world as the Christian faith Are we sinners brought back into relationship with God through the atoning sacrifice of Jesus Christ or are all made in the image of God and therefore inherently good Is Jesus Christ the only means of salvation or is salvation available through a plurality of religions that lead us to the knowledge of the divine presence within each person The time for re formation is at hand The calling of the Anglican reformers of the twenty first century goes beyond setting their own house in order The famous Via Media of Anglicanism brings it close to every other expression of the church A revived and restructured fellowship of Anglican Churches could readily become a model and a catalyst for the re formation of the various Christian fellowships worldwide Reforming China Sen Peng,2010-09-01 This book chronicles the dramatic events that have taken place since China opened up to the world in 1978 and adopted a policy of economic reform It records how economic policies were drafted between 1978 and 1991 brought into law initiated and then im Reforming Philadelphia, 1682-2022 Richardson Dilworth,2022-12-16 Uses Philadelphia as a case study to argue that political reform is a constant though not always dominant theme in city politics maintained through various interconnected social and professional networks Always Reforming Craig D. Atwood,2001 Always Reforming highlights the fact that in the modern era the notion of heresy has fallen apart Every church has been declared heretical at some time or other by another church and it is not the role of the historian to decide who is right or wrong on doctrinal issues Christians have adapted to sweeping social changes including scientific discoveries and changing world views This volume attempts to uncover some of the hidden dynamics of faith within the many ways in which other Christians have tried to live out the gospel in an uncertain world It also demonstrates that all human institutions including churches change over time Jacket

Reforming the Indian Health Care System United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Indian Affairs (1993-),2009 Reforming Hollywood William D. Romanowski,2012-06-26 In Reforming Hollywood William Romanowski tells the long and complex story of the relationship between Protestants of all stripes from Episcopalians to evangelicals and the American film industry Drawing on personal interviews and previously unexamined primary sources he chronicles Protestant efforts to exert influence on the industry and use movies to promote the moral health of the nation At the same time Romanowski shows mainline Protestants were surprisingly averse to censorship which they saw as intruding upon individual conscience and antithetical to American democracy of which they saw themselves as the guardians Reforming the Broken Heart of Leadership Fred Meadows,2013-06 Dynamic leaders are created from the inside out They are those individuals who have discovered that their identity as leaders are found in the integrity of being a child of the creator God rather than being shaped by their abilities performances and successes This book uncovers the underlying reality of why Christian leaders stray off the path of faithfully living out their calling Centered in the formative spirituality of Fr Adrian van Kaam Dr Fred Meadows links the many anomalies of leadership to what van Kaam labels as functionalism a self sufficient mode of operation initiated by internal pride that pushes us to define ourselves in terms of our accomplishments we are what we do Functionalism blocks our ability to see from a higher perspective and to experience transcendence By rediscovering the ancient practices of silence solitude meditation on the Word lectio divina journaling prayer and practicing community pastors ministry leaders and laity alike can begin the process of reforming broken leadership Acknowledging their souls as well as their abilities leaders are able to renew and reconnect with their calling and minister out of the overflow of God s presence while maintaining a healthy and dynamic inner life that fosters being conformed to the image and life of Jesus Christ

Reforming French Culture George Hoffmann, 2017-12-01 Reforming French Culture is a ground breaking work on the literary genre of Reformation satire colloquial obscene scatological designed to mock the excesses as well as the essence of the Roman Catholic rite and hierarchy Enticingly Hoffmann proposes that while romance with its episodic heroic narrative is the literary genre of Counter Reformation satire is the genre of Reformation This minor category of Renaissance French literature is an unstudied continent that plays a key role not only in French literature but also in French history and in the evolution of French culture more generally From this deceptively small focus the volume opens up huge vistas on the Reformation on French history and on the symbiosis of spirituality and estrangement to which it views modern French culture as heir Rather than using literature to illustrate history or contextualizing literature through historical background this book brings literary understanding what satire is and what it does to bear on historical understanding Situated at the crossroads of religion literature and cultural history it explores how France in this period became a culturally Protestant country while remaining confessionally Catholic

Journal of the National Cancer Institute ,1995-07 Reforming the Art of Dying Austra Reinis,2007 This study focuses on the earliest of Protestant handbooks that addressed the subject of death and dying Beginning with Luther s Sermon on Preparing to Die in 1519 and ending with Jakob Otter s Christlich leben vnd sterben in 1528 it explores how Luther and his colleagues adopted traditional themes and motifs transforming them to accord with their conviction that Christians could be certain of their salvation It further shows how Luther s colleagues drew on his writings not only his teaching on dying but also other writings including his sermons on the sacraments The study concludes that the assurance of salvation that these works offered represented a significant change from traditional teaching on death
