great confusion of various teachings and into pure hedonism and an egotistic striving for some kind of success and fame or just to simply pleasure and indulge oneself and one's appetites for worldly pleasures In this book is presented a positive spiritual discipline that is free from ego and that will aid a reader to keep one's mind open for the important questions in life Eventually it turns out that we look for happiness in the wrong places all the time the main goal of being happy is not focused on ego but on making others happy most of the times Our transient time and memory are another reason to make us question our ways in the world and what we really want to focus on in our lives Keep in mind that everything that is worthy will not come easily The change starts with you and it takes lots of work We should just stop rushing towards materialism and continue moving on at a steady pace towards our true nature and purpose Enzo Ferrari Luca Dal Monte, 2024-02-29
