Read To Me Recommended Literature For Children Ages Two Through Seven:

Read to Me, 1992 Bringing together the home school and community in the task of developing children's abilities to read and appreciate literature this book presents annotations of over 400 books suitable for children ages two through seven. Titles annotated in the book represent classic and contemporary picture books, story books, and concept books, as well as books in other languages, stories with a multicultural perspective, and books recognized as traditional favorites. Selections in the book were made to 1 encourage young children to enjoy hearing stories and being introduced to pictures and print 2 help children view reading as a worthwhile activity 3 help local curriculum planners select books for their early childhood education programs 4 assist parents and early child caregivers to make wise choices of enjoyable books for their children and 5 stimulate educators at the local level to evaluate their literacy development programs and change or improve them as necessary. Sections of the book are The Child, The Child's Home and Family, The Child's Community, and The Child's World. The criteria for selection of literature included in the book and a list of 46 resources for adults are attached. RS

Black Authors and Illustrators of Books for Children and Young Adults Barbara Thrash Murphy, Deborah L. Murphy, 2006-12-21 Black Authors and Illustrators of Books for Children and Young Adults is a biographical dictionary that provides comprehensive coverage of all major authors and illustrators past and present. As the only reference volume of its kind available, this book is a valuable research tool that provides quick access for anyone studying black children's literature, whether one is a student, a librarian charged with maintaining a children's literature collection, or a scholar of children's literature. The Fourth Edition of this renowned reference work illuminates African American contributions to children's literature and books for young adults. The new edition contains updated and new information for existing author/illustrator entries, the addition of approximately 50 new profiles, and a new section listing online resources of interest to the authors and readers of black children's literature.

Guides to Library Collection Development John Thomas Gillespie, Ralph J. Folcarelli, 1994-08-15 Intended to enhance collection development in school, public, and college libraries, this volume lists and annotates approximately 1,500 significant bibliographies published from 1985 through 1993, with some earlier but still useful publications. Annotations indicate scope of the work, size, often the number of entries, kinds of material included, purpose, arrangement, nature of entries, indexes, special features, and a recommendation. Author, title, and subject indexes provide easy access to the entries. With its deep and comprehensive coverage, this work will help not only in the process of selecting and acquiring materials for the library but also in the process of identification of items for reference readers advisory interlibrary loan and collection evaluation

Developmental Psychology and Young Children's Religious Education Olivera Petrovich, 2022-12-16 Developmental Psychology and Young Children's Religious Education sets out to identify the conceptual pre requisites for young children's religious education learning and clearly highlights the challenges that children and their teachers encounter in the RE educational process Based on a study with 431 children aged 5 to 7 years from different schools faith and non faith and 47 teachers from the same schools as the children this book offers an insightful look into younger children s religious education providing statistical evidence to dismantle the belief that young children lack the ability to conceptualise God in abstract terms The information obtained from these children and their teachers reveals a major discrepancy between the teachers perceptions of young children s conceptual abilities for RE learning on the one hand and children s actual abilities revealed in their responses throughout the study on the other Based on the evidence described in the volume Petrovich argues that teacher training courses for primary RE need to be designed to include a substantial component of contemporary developmental research that is of direct relevance to children s conceptual abilities and understanding of abstract concepts Developmental Psychology and Young Children s Religious Education is essential reading for students and researchers in developmental psychology religious education teacher education education studies and cultural anthropology

Losing Our Minds Deborah L. Ruf, 2005 Wouldn t it be a disgrace if we lost the brightest students now attending our nation s schools Dr Deborah L Ruf establishes that there are far more highly gifted children than previously imagined yet large numbers of very bright children are never discovered by their schools Using 78 gifted and highly gifted children as her examples she illustrates five levels of giftedness Parents will be able to estimate which of the five levels of giftedness their child fits by comparing their own child s developmental milestones to those of the children described in the book This book contains practical advice for parents including how to find a school that works for your child Book jacket
