Tracing the spread of misinformation and disinformation through our fast moving media landscape a journalist scientist medical professional and professor gives readers the skills to identify and counter poorly sourced clickbait and misleading headlines Reading and Writing the Mediterranean Vincenzo Consolo,2006-01-01 Vincenzo Consolo is counted by many critics among the most significant voices in contemporary world literature This volume makes available for the first in English an edited and annotated volume of Consolo s short stories essays and other writings pertaining to the diverse cultures and histories of Sicily and the Mediterranean basin The Mediterranean region holds a particular fascination for Consolo who seeks through his writing to recover the memory of a Sicilian and Mediterranean history which he feels is presently being threatened by the forces of late capitalist Western culture His writings about the region also voice a commitment to questions of ethics and human rights which have been brought to the fore by recent tensions dividing this area and forcing a mass exodus of its people At a time when this part of the world is under threat from unbridled globalization as well as dangerous forms of ethnic and religious fundamentalism Consolo's words offer an insightful rethinking of regionalism within a global hierarchy of values They remind us of the necessity of moderation and contingency and in so doing attempt to recover a moral and ethical dimension for our collective life

Reading Lena Dunham's Girls Meredith Nash, Imelda Whelehan, 2017-06-23 In this book leading and emerging scholars consider the mixed critical responses to Lena Dunham's TV series Girls and reflect on its significance to contemporary debates about postfeminist popular cultures in a post recession context The series features both familiar and innovative depictions of young women and men in contemporary America that invite comparisons with Sex and the City It aims for a refreshed authentic expression of postfeminist femininity that eschews the glamour and aspirational fantasies spawned by its predecessor This volume reviews the contemporary scholarship on Girls from its representation of post millennial gender politics to depictions of the messiness and imperfections of sex embodiment and social interactions Topics covered include Dunham's privileged role as author auteur actor sexuality body consciousness millennial gender identities the politics of representation neoliberalism and post recession society This book provides diverse and provocative critical responses to the show and to wider social and media contexts and contributes to a new generation of feminist scholarship with a powerful concluding reflection from Rosalind Gill It will appeal to those interested in feminist theory identity politics popular culture and media

Cartographies of Empire Myka Tucker-Abramson, 2025-03-18 The road novel is often dismissed as a mundane nostalgic genre Jack Sal and other tedious white men on the road trying to recapture an authentic youth and American past that never existed Yet new road novels appear every year tackling unexpected questions and spanning new geographies from Mexico Brazil Bulgaria Palestine Ukraine and former Yugoslavia Why did the road novel emerge and why does it persist What does it do and why has it traveled so widely Myka Tucker Abramson draws from an archive of more than 140 global road novels from over twenty countries challenging dominant conceptions of the road novel as primarily concerned with American experiences and subjectivities Grounding her analysis in materialist theories of genre world ecology and commodity frontier frameworks and post 45 American literary studies Tucker Abramson persuasively argues that the road novel is a genre specific to coterminous with and revealing of US hegemony s global trajectory Shifting our focus from Americanness to the fraught geopolitics of US Empire from the car to the built environment through which it moves and from passengers to those left behind Tucker Abramson remaps the road novel elucidating the genre s unique ability both to reveal the violent and vertiginous processes of capitalist modernization and to obfuscate these harsh truths through seductive narratives of individual success and failure
