Finding Momma'S Notebook Cindy Nelson Smith, 2011-11-28 How many times have you been in a real life situation and had someone tell you God will not put more on you than you can handle These are not just words this is a promise that is in Gods Word a promise from the creator of the entire universe a promise from God who sent His Son to die for our sins so that we could have a real relationship with Him a faithful and merciful Father who will not give us more than we can endure Only through faith fasting and the love of God can we endure life altering events such as sicknesses of both parents Also holding them as God reaches down to bring your Momma to Heaven and then two weeks later holding your Daddy as again God reaches down and brings him home to Him and Momma Parents

dying in the arms of their daughter can only be endured by faith and that is God's awesome mercy and amazing grace And in that is the promise of God saying You can handle this Author Cindy Nelson Smith lived these words as she and her family watched her parents go through the sicknesses and various trials and pain and broken hearts that life can bring Only a loving and merciful Father can bring you through these and all things in life It is a promise that He will not let us go through anything without Him and His helper the Holy Spirit as well as the sacrifice and ever present love of His Son Jesus Its a promise that will not change and will last forever through in any situation Life is not easy Jesus even told us that Even so we are not alone ever We have to trust in the promises of God He will help us love us and guide us He will not give us more than we can endure God doesn't break His promises and that's a promise too

The Science Fiction of Mark Clifton Mark Clifton, 1980 This collection of the best short stories of Mark Clifton makes these fine tales readily available for the first time in two decades Winner with Frank Riley of the 1955 Hugo Award for They'd Rather Be Right Clifton has for a variety of reasons unrelated to the quality of his writing all but disappeared from the awareness of today's science fiction audience Never a prolific writer he had published only about twenty five short stories before his death in 1963 But with those stories and his three novels he irrevocably altered the course of contemporary science fiction Almost single handedly he introduced the full range of psychological insights to the commonly occurring themes of the genre alien invasion expanding technology revolution against political theocracy and space exploration and colonization to ever more truthfully portray how humanity would react to a future that could be either mindless or intellectually stunning With his first published story What Have I Done Clifton initiated the theme of a starkly realistic world in which at its best humanity is inalterably vile a theme that became an inextricable part of all his subsequent works In his later works Clifton occasionally clothed his bitter indictment in the garb of comedy The stories collected here include What Have I Done Star Bright Crazy Joey What Thin Partitions Sense from Thought Divide How Allied Remembrance and Reflection Hide Hide Witch Clerical Error What Now Little Man and Hang Head Vandal
