Sew Your Own John-Paul Flintoff, 2011-05-26 What happens when a man dazzled like most of us by hi tech happy to have his suits made by robots in New York sets out to find the meaning of life John Paul Flintoff's improbable and very funny book charts a journey through call centres and allotments rat catching and Savile Row tailors to some kind of enlightenment It is also a book about a man who learns how to crochet and how you might too John Paul Flintoff is a bit of a one off a man who embarks on a spiritual pilgrimage by outsourcing his life to Bangalore then hooks up with Mormons and Buddhists well Richard Gere on a quest for truth and fulfilment His journey is like a twenty first century Candide learning that life's satisfactions and some kind of response to the concerns of economic meltdown and climate change lie in learning how to make things for oneself and mending things that fall apart Along the way Flintoff paints pictures with Brit art oddball Billy Childish gets apprenticed in Savile Row grows his own food and spins fibre from nettles Daringly he also turns his book over to his wife Harriet who likes nothing better than a fancy spa and a shop at Liberty s The results are comic heartwarming and inspiring

Know it All, Find it Fast Robert John Duckett,Bob Duckett,Peter Walker,Christinea Donnelly,2008 There is a queue the phone is ringing the photocopier has jammed and your enquirer is waiting for a response You are stressed and you can feel the panic rising Where do you go to find the information you need to answer the question promptly and accurately Answering queries from users is one of the most important services undertaken by library and information staff Yet it is also one of the most difficult least understood subjects There are still very few materials available to help frontline staff often paraprofessional develop their reader enquiry skills This award winning sourcebook is an essential guide to where to look to find the answers quickly It is designed as a first point of reference for library and information practitioners to be depended upon if they are unfamiliar with the subject of an enquiry or wish to find out more It is arranged in an easily searchable fully cross referenced A Z list of around 150 of the subject areas most frequently handled at enquiry desks Each subject entry lists the most important information sources and where to locate them including printed and electronic sources relevant websites and useful contacts for referral purposes The authors use their extensive experience in reference work to offer useful tips warn of potential pitfalls and spotlight typical queries and how to tackle them This new edition has been brought right up to date with all sources checked for currency and many new ones added The searchability is enhanced by a comprehensive index to make those essential sources even easier to find saving you valuable minutes Readership Offering quick and easy pointers to a multitude of information sources this is an invaluable reference deskbook for all library and information staff in need of a speedy answer in reference libraries subject departments and other information units

Through the Eye of a Needle John-Paul Flintoff,2009 Through the Eye of a Needle is a brilliant account of his journey illuminating enchanting and often extremely funny arguing that the way we look at clothing influences the way we look at the environment the economy and life itself Few books written in our soulless times have such potential to transform people s minds so completely while also making them laugh His encounters are by turns humorous and enlightening He meets BBC TV s Jeremy Clarkson Hollywood superstars Richard Gere and Daryl Hannah spiritual teachers politicians call center and sweatshop workers artists Transition Town leader Rob Hopkins Prince Charles s own Savile Row tailor and many others
