Sindi and the Moon

By Zanele Dlamini

Read the story below.

Sindi was a very lively little girl who loves to sing and dance. She lived with her parents and her Gogo. One evening Sindi's mother said, "Sindi," "After the Christmas holidays, you are going to school." She was happy that she would get to learn how to read and write. Sindi started to wonder what school would really be like. The night was very hot. She tiptoed outside. The moon was big and bright. Sindi spoke to the moon. "Dear moon," she said, "I'm going to school tomorrow, what will it be like?" "Will they let me sing and dance?" A gentle voice spoke to her. "Dear little Sindi, school is a wonderful place. You will learn many things: to read and write, to sing and dance and to make many friends." The time came for school. Mama held Sindi's hand as they approached the school.
