Dutch and Flemish Newspapers of the Seventeenth Century, 1618-1700 (2 Vols.) Arthur der Weduwen, 2017-11-06 Winner of the 2019 Menno Hertzberger Encouragement Prize for Book History and Bibliography In Dutch and Flemish Newspapers of the Seventeenth Century Arthur der Weduwen presents the first comprehensive account of the early newspaper in the Low Countries Composed of two volumes this survey provides detailed introductions and bibliographical descriptions of 49 newspapers surviving in over 16 000 issues in 84 archives and libraries This work presents a crucial overview of the first fledgling century of newspaper publishing and reading in one of the most advanced political cultures of early modern Europe Seventy years after Folke Dahl s Dutch Corantos first documented early Dutch newspapers Der Weduwen offers a brand new approach to the bibliography of the early modern periodical press This includes amongst others a description of places of correspondence listed in each surviving newspaper The bibliography is accompanied by an extensive introduction of the Dutch and Flemish press in the seventeenth century What emerges is a picture of a highly competitive and dynamic market for news in which innovative publishers constantly adapt to the changing tastes of customers and pressures from authorities at home and abroad

Early Modern Women in the Low Countries Susan Broomhall,Jennifer Spinks,2016-05-13 Combining historical historiographical museological and touristic analysis this study investigates how late medieval and early modern women of the Low Countries expressed themselves through texts art architecture and material objects how they were represented by contemporaries and how they have been interpreted in modern academic and popular contexts Broomhall and Spinks analyse late medieval and early modern women s opportunities to narrate their experiences and ideas as well as the processes that have shaped their representation in the heritage and cultural tourism of the Netherlands and Belgium today The authors study female authored objects such as familial and political letters dolls houses account books visual sources funeral monuments and buildings commissioned by female patrons and further artworks as well as heritage sites streetscapes souvenirs and clothing with gendered historical resonances Employing an innovative range of materials from written sources to artworks material objects heritage sites and urban precincts the authors argue that interpretations of late medieval and early modern women s experiences by historians and art scholars interact with presentations by cultural and heritage tourism providers in significant ways that deserve closer interrogation by feminist researchers

Introduction to Dutch William Z. Shetter,1988 Leerboek Nederlands voor anderstalige beginners

CLARIN in the Low Countries Jan Odijk,Arjan van Hessen,2017-12-28 This book describes the results of activities undertaken to construct the CLARIN research infrastructure in the Low Countries i e in the Netherlands and in Flanders the Dutch speaking part of Belgium CLARIN is a European research infrastructure for humanities and social science researchers that work with natural language data This book introduces the CLARIN infrastructure describes various aspects of the technical implementation of the infrastructure and introduces data applications and software services created in the Low Countries for a wide variety of humanities disciplines These enable researchers to accelerate their research activities and to base their conclusions on a much larger and richer empirical base than was possible before thus providing a basis for carrying out groundbreaking research in which old questions can be investigated in new ways and new questions can be raised and investigated for the first time Given CLARIN s focus on language data linguistics and particularly syntax are prominently present However other humanities disciplines that work with natural language data such as history literary studies religion studies media studies political studies and philosophy are represented as well The book is a must read for humanities scholars and students who want to understand and use the potential that the Digital Humanities offer as well as for computer scientists and developers of research infrastructures in particular for researchers working on the CLARIN infrastructure in other countries Reading in the Digital Age: Young Children's Experiences with E-books Ji Eun Kim, Brenna Hassinger-Das, 2019-07-23 This edited book focuses on affordances and limitations of e books for early language and literacy features and design of e books for early language and literacy print versus e books in early language and literacy development and uses of and guidelines for how to use e books in school and home literacy practices Uniquely this book includes critical reviews of diverse aspects of e books e g features and e book uses e g independent reading for early literacy as well as multiple examinations of e books in home and school contexts using a variety of research methods and or theoretical frames The studies of children s engagement with diverse types of e books in different social contexts provide readers with a contemporary and comprehensive understanding of this topic Research has demonstrated that ever increasing numbers of children use digital devices as part of their daily routine Yet despite children s frequent use of e books from an early age there is a limited understanding regarding how those e books are actually being used at home and school As more e books become available it is important to examine the educational benefits and limitations of different types of e books for children So far studies on the topic have presented inconsistent findings regarding potential benefits and limitations of e books for early literacy activities e g independent reading shared reading The studies in this book aim to fill such gaps in the literature Marketing English Books, 1476-1550 Alexandra Da Costa, 2020 Explores how the earliest printers moulded demand and created new markets and argues that marketing changed what was read and the place of reading in sixteenth century readers lives shaping their expectations tastes and their practices and beliefs British Books in Print , 1985
